Im Memoriam

COUGHLIN-A Tribute of love to the memory of my dear mother, JULIA E., who passed away three years ago, January 9th, 1935.

IN MEMORIAM W. HOPPER GIBSON Born August 9, 1853 Died December 22, 1937

The death of our fellow Trustee, Mr. W. Hopper Gibson, after 46 years of activity, as a member of the Board of Trustees of the Queen Anne's County Home, came to us with a sense of personal loss.

Mr. Gibson became a trustee in 1891 and was elected President of the Board April 1st, 1926, which position he filled faithfully until death, and always interested in the welfare of the inmates of the county home.

His service was continuous during the intervening years, and at the time of his death surpassed in length that of any of his associates.

As Chairman of the House Committee, the duties of which bring the wants and needs of the unfortunate more directly under personal observation he was most kind, considerate and solicitous in their

He was at all times a gentleman, possessing not only the substantial qualities which give a man the right to that title, but being endowed also with a courteous and gracious manner, which greatly endeared to all who knew him.

He was modest, generous, kindly, and as a result sincerely beloved. The value of such a life can never be measured by words.

He had the reward of a wellspent life-that which should accompany old age—as honor, love, obedience, troops of friends.

We testify in this way our appreciation of his character and to our keen sense of sorrow.

We tender to the members of his family expressions of sympathy, and assurances that here where he was intimately known he was admired and honored.

The Secretary is directed to have this minute placed on our Records, and a copy sent to Mrs. Gibson, the newspapers of the

1937 Speed Champions
