Laws of Maryland—No. 153.

A further supplement to the Act passed at December session, eighteen hundred and forty four, chapter one hundred and eighty seven, imposing a tax on commissions allowed to trustees and receivers.

Whereas, doubts are entertained of the true construction of the Supplement to the said original act passed at December session, eighteen hundred and forty five chapter one hundred and sixty six for remedy whereof and to remove such doubts,

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland. That the said supplement passed at December session eighteen hundred and forty five, chapter one hundred and sixty six, shall not be construed to extend to trustees appointed or named to preserve contingent remedies or to any other case when a trustee is interposed merely to preserve or maintain the title; and in cases when the trust is to be placed in the hands, or made subject to the disposition of the trustee only upon the happening of a contingency, no bond shall be required until such contingency shall occur.

Section 2 And be it enacted. That in any case where application for the purpose is made to the Chancellor of Maryland, or to the Judges of the county court in any county or in Howard district, the said Chancellor or Judges may in his or their discretion, prescribe the amount of the bond, of any trustee include in the terms of the said supplementary act, if the said chancellor or judges should believe from an investigation of the circumstances of the case that it would be improper to rdquire a bond to be given for double the amount of the property placed in the hands or made subject to the disposition of said trustee.

LEVY COURT NOTICE.

The Levy Court of Kent county will meet at the Court House, in Chester Town, on Tuesday the 13th and Wednesday the 14th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M. and will continue to meet at the same time and place and hour every Tuesday and Wednesday, until the 23d of June next, for the purpose of altering and correcting the accounts of such persons as have sold, alienated, or transferred, any assessable property, since the first day of June last, and also for the purpose of attending to any other business that may come before them. After the 23d day of June next, no alteration whatever will be made in the assessment.

The Levy Court particularly requests all Supervisors and Constables, to bring in their accounts and renew their bonds, on or before the first Tuesday in May next, and that all supervisors report the number of gates on their respective roads. All supervisors and constables neglecting this notice will be considered as resigned or refused to serve in the office to which they have been appointed and the court will proceed to fill the vacancy.

The Levy Court will require all accounts presented to said Court, to be under oath, (which oath can now be administered Court,) and the several items chargeable in the same to be made out at length; and all new applications for pensions to be made by petition in writing, stating the residence, condition, circumstances of the applicant, and signed by one or more persons having a knowledge of the facts therein set forth

The Court will require all new applicants for the office of Constable, to file their application in writing, with the clerk to the Levy Court, and also a recommendation from the citizens of their immediate neighborhood, stating that the applicant is a suitable person to fill said office; and that public convenience requires said appointment.

Agreeable to an act of the General Assembly, entuled "An act for the re-valuation of the real and personal property in Kent county," passed at December Session 1834, is enacted, viz:—"that if any Executor, Guardian or Trustee, shall hereinafter fail to inform the Commissioners of Tax—or Levy Court—of the transfer of any property belonging to any deceased person, ward, or estate in trust, of which he or she may be Executor, Administrator, Guardian, or Trustee, the said Executor, Administrator, Guardian or Trustee, shall be liable for the tax on the same, until the Commissioners of Tax—or Levy Court—shall be properly notified of such tranfer."
