Quite a jolly party of picnicers went down to Mr. Roby Rasin's Green Point farm on last Saturday and spent a pleasant afternoon. Boating, bathing and such sports were enjoyed until we were invited to supper spread beneath the huge trees on the lawn; and a splendid supper it was, too, to which all did justice and no one was left hungry. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Benj. F. Rash and children, Mrs. A. S. Turner and children, Mrs. John Burris and children, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Crew and daughter, Mrs. Richard Moffett, Mrs. J. W. Carter, Misses Dollie, Lucy and Hallie Crew, Mary Russell, Madge Parks, Clara Taylor, Blanche Duyer! Messrs. Clayton Crew, Harry Ivens, Wylie Hudson, Carroll Loller, Richard and Thomas Bryan, and Lloyd Gale. The last named young man, waiting at Catt's corner for the crowd to gather, met with quite a painful accident. He had an old 32 cavalry revolver in his carriage and while waiting tried to shoot it. He took both hands to pull the trigger back, and having the revolver pointed downward, before he was aware of it the weapon went off, the cartridge entering the fleshy part of his leg. Dr. Dodd located the ball which was nearly through the leg, and took it out from the other side. We hope he will suffer no further inconvenience

Mr. Biddle Wendling, of Wilmington, is spending his vacation at his uncle's, Mr. William Campbell, in this place.

The Union M. E. Sunday school picnic, which was to have been held Wednesday, at Worton Manor Beach, was posponed on occount of the rain. A date will be fixed next Sunday. Presbyterian Sunday School expect to take their pic nic to that place on Wednesday next.

Mr. L. C. Hayes has sold 26 of his fine large steers at $50 each. This is big money, but it was fine stock.

Mr. E. M. Bonwill has bought the Jeremiah Peacock farm for $7,500. Mr. Ray Bonwell, it is stated, will come up with us next year.

The remains of Mrs. Ella Miller, who died in Baltimore, were brought over on the Kitty Knight on Monday and interred in the M. E. cemetery on Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Williams, wife of Capt. George Williams, died at her home in Fredericktown, on Monday morning. The remains were interred in Georgetown cemetery on Wednesday. Undertaker W. T. Hicks, in charge.

A special feature of the evening services at Christ M. P. Church last Sunday evening was the singing. Miss Bertha Stone, of Baltimore, and Mr, Thomas W. Perkins sang.

Work will be begun on the repairs and improvements to the interior of the Chestertown M. E. Church, this week. A steel ceiling will be put in, walls re-frescoed and other improvements made.

The annual conference session is the one focal point of general interest in the Methodist churches. Call it whatever we may, the fact remains that prearrangements of church affairs take place, and in many cases considerable shrewdness of a political character mark the transactions at and prior to the regular sessions. Under the heading, Conference Slatemaking, the following item is going the rounds of the rural press:

"The terms of Revs. Wilbur F. Corkran, D. D., and T. E. Martindale, D. D., presiding elders of Easton and Salisbury districts of the Wilmington M. E. Conference, respectively, expire with this year. Although the session of conference is eight months off, speculation is being indulged in as to their probable successors. The Wilmington Every Evening says: 'Slatemakers are surveying the field, and suggest the Rev. Vaughn S. Collins, pastor of Asbury Church, Smyrna, for the Easton district presiding eldership, and Rev. Stephen M. Morgan, pastor of the Avenue Church, Milford, for the Salisbury district presiding eldership. The possibility of Dr. Corkran exchanging with Rev. C. S. Baker, D. D., presiding elder of the Dover district, is also being discussed. The next session of the conference will be held in Easton in March.
