The Great Eastern Shore Kent and Queen Anne County Fair!

TO BE HELD AT TOLCHESTER BEACH, MD., AUGUST 26, 27, 28 AND 29.

$5,525 IN PURSES.

Nothing ever like it on the Eastern Shore of Maryland before. The best horses from all over the United States. The stock and farm products the largest. Don't fail to have something to help make your county famous, and show to the world what your county is and can do. If you want to know more drop a postal for fair book. All the ladies are taking a great interest this year and that department will be second to no fair in the State. Every day will be a big day. How to get there—watch your county papers, as all railroads and steamboats will give reduced rates.

A Few Things to Remember.

ENTRIES.—All entries will be free, except in Races and Poultry Department, but ten per cent. will be deducted from all premiums which may be awarded. Entries on poultry must be paid at time of entry.

The office of the Secretary on the Fair Grounds will be open after August 1st for the reception of entries and arrangement of place for exhibits.

EXHIBITS.—Exhibits must be in place 10 A. M. TUESDAY, AUGUST 26th, and shall not be removed before 5 P. M. FRIDAY, AUGUST 29th, under forfeiture of all premiums which may have been awarded to any person so offending.

HAVE YOU READ THE RULES?

1. Save yourself and the Secretary trouble by sending your entries in ahead of the Fair, at least a week. The Secretary and all clerks are on the grounds all during the week of the Fair.
2. Application for space does not make your entry, and where entries are made by mail, you must call at the office and get your tags. Neglect this and you may lose your premium. The tags are always ready for you.
3. Always give of animals, 1, age; 2, sex; 3, pedigree, if any. We can make no entry on a statement that you want to show a horse at the Fair, and yet many people expect to have a tag ready on just such entries.
4. Always say how many stalls you want, and give the smallest number you can get along with, and what you want them for.
5. Everyone makes mistakes. We do, but we will correct them cheerfully if it it our fault; but you must not blame us if you rely on what people say you ought to do. If you are in doubt, come to the office and find out. The clerks are paid extra to answer questions Take no advice of any one but the officers.
6. Be sure your entry blank is made out in the name of the person you want the premium awarded to. Checks in payment are sent to the person whose name is on the entry blank.
7. Don't ask officers to attend to exhibits, because they have something else to do. Attend to them yourself, and if anything is wrong you know who to blame.
8. Don't blame the officers too much if the judges, superintendents, etc., are not on hand at exactly the appointed time, but keep your attendants, stock, etc., where you can get at them when wanted. There is a great deal to be done in a short time.
9. All feed furnished Will be charged for.
10. The success of the Fair depends on you. The Board of Managers will do all they can to make you comfortable and to make the Fair a success, but they CANNOT DO IT ALL.

ADMISSION.

G. E. NOLAND, Secretary.

PRESENTING FIVE COMPLETE ACTS

GAIETY AT WORTON

Strawrides, Fish-Frys and Other Charming Summer Diversions.

The vicinity of Worton is the center of a delightful whirl of mid-summer pleasures. As usual Mr. Benjamin F. Rash is the leader of the jolly set who keep social pleasures going. Mr. and Mrs. Rash and their friends will cap the climax of the season's outings with a strawride, and supper at Betterton, tonight. The jolly party will leave Worton at 2 o'clock in Mr. Rash's big farm wagon drawn by four able horses. It is expected that Betterton will be reached at about 4 o'clock when a plunge in the sparkling waters of the Chesapeake bay will be in order. Arrangements have been made in advance for an elegant supper at the Chesapeake House, which will follow the bathing, at about 6.30 o'clock. The return trip by moonlight will be a most charming feature of the outing.

Those composing the party will be: Mr. and Mrs. Rash, Mrs. A. S. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark, Mrs. James, Mrs. John Carter and son, Lester; Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Jewell; Misses Clara Staats, Nannie Matthews, Tillie Hutchinson, Lucy Crew, Hallie Crew, Madge Parks, Mary Russell, Lizzie Clark, Florence Jewell; Herbert Matthews, Mr. Pratt, Marion Rash, Wallie Hodson, George Williams, Charles Boyles, Mr. Bryan, Mr. Clendaniel and El Morris.

A large party from the vicinity of Worton enjoyed a fish-fry on Deputy's shore. The ladies carried every imaginable delicacy except the fish. The fish were in abundance and fresh from the waters of the Chesapeake. Two cooks were on hand and the affair was in every way an elegant success.

EXCURSION TO ATLANTIC CITY.

The Second Low Rate Excursion via the Queen Anne's Railroad.

The Queen Anne's Railroad Company will run another special low rate excursion to Atlantic City, on Wednesday, August 20th. A special train will carry the excursionists to Lewis, Delaware, and thence to Cape May, on the palatial steamer Queen Caroline to Cape May, and from thence to Atlantic City over the Atlantic City Railway. There will be no waits either going or coming on this trip. Six hours at Atlantic City and returning the Queen Caroline will run special to Lewis, getting the excursionists home two hours sooner than on the previous trip. This is one of the best and cheapest routes a person can take. Only $2.00 for the round trip. Train will leave Centreville at 5.15 A. M. and reach Atlantic City at 11.15 A. M.
