FINE BUSINESS STAND

—AND—

STOCK of GOODS FOR SALE.

Wishing to discontinue merchandising in order that he may devote his entire time to other business, a gentlenan will sell his entire stock of MERCHANDISE and FIXTURES, with good will. Will also lease store-room to the purchaser.

The right man will find here a $12,000 to $15,000 business. The present stock is something over $4,000, nearly all new goods. This is a rare opportunity to a hustling up-to-date man. The present proprietor is doing a business which pays nicely, but other duties render it desirable for him to relieve himself of the responsibility of the business.

TO BE UNVEILED TO-DAY.

The Caulk's Field Battle-Marker to be Unveiled Today With Appropriate Ceremonial.

The granite Battle Marker to designate the field on which General Philip Reed and his Kent county militia won the only decisive battle ever fought on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, will be unveiled at Caulk's Field, at 1 o'clock P M. to-day (Saturday, October 18) The fight occurred on August 30, 1814 Gen. Reed died on November 2, 1829, and was interred in the little cemetery at Christ Protestant Episcopal church, I. U. Parish. During all of these years both the grave of the Hero of Caulk's Field and the scene of the Kent county battle have remained unmarked.

The ceremonies of the unveiling and dedicating the heavy block of granite which stands near to or on the firing line of the American forces, will commence at 1 o'clock P. M. A special steamer will be run by the Tolchester Company to bring invited guests and others from Baltimore. The steamer will leave Tolchester for Baltimore on the return trip at 5 o'clock P. M.

The following program will be carried out:

Invocation, Dr. D. L. Greenfield, Pastor of Christ M. P. church, Chestertown.
History of the movement, Rev. Chris. T Denroche, rector of Old St. Pauls and I. U.
Singing, "My Country 'Tis of thee," (chorus) W. W. Chapman, leader.
Selection of the Stones and Inscriptions, Capt. Columbus A. Leary.
Oration, Col. William M. Marine, of Baltimore.
Short addresses by the presidents of the societies—Sons of the War of 1812 and the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The choirs of the Chestertown churches, and the choirs of the Fairlee M. E. church and of St. Paul's will be drawn upon for the music, which will be a delightful feature of the exercises. The singers from Chestertown will go down in real picnic fashion in a big farm wagon.

THE GRAVE STONE UNVEILING.

The unveiling, with appropriate ceremonial of General Philip Reed's grave monument, at Christ Church Cemetery, in the parish of I. U, will take place on Sunday, 26 October, at 3 P. M.

ENJOYABLE RELIGIOUS EXERCISES.

A Remodeled and Greatly Beautified M. E. Church Reopened—Delightful Christian Workers' Services.

The reopening services of the remodeled and greatly beautified Methodist Episcopal church in Chestertown, on Sunday, were of a most enjoyable character.

Rev. Jonathan S. Willis, of Milford, Del., preached an eloquent and strong sermon in the morning from Ecclesiastes 2:13—Then I saw that Wisdom excelleth Folly, as far as light exceedeth darkness. In the evening Mr. Willis delighted a large congregation by his sermon from John 19: 6,—Pilate saith unto them, Take ye Him, and crucify Him; for I find no fault in Him.

The musical program rendered by the following choir was a delightful feature of the day's services: leader, Dr. A. S. Hall; sopranos, Misses Burtie Burchinal, Hallie Toulson, Sue Lambert, Laura R. A. Thomas, Mettie Loud and Anna Bryan; altos, Misses Mabel Toulson, Mary Brown, Ethel Coleman and Fannie Stuart; bass, Arlington L Sparks and Mr Hitch; tenors, M. Wilber Thomas, William Spear Brownley and J. C. Loud. The following members of the choir gave finely rendered solos: Miss Sue Lambert, and Messrs. Brownley, Sparks and Hitch. The main auditorium of the church has been recarpeted, a steel ceiling has been put in and the church furniture reoiled and beautified. The ceiling and walls have been beautifully frescoed and painted by an artist from Philadelphia. The church had been closed for several months and the cost of the repairs will aggregate about $1,400, every cent of which amount is provided for.

A DELIGHTFUL SERVICE.

The Christian Workers of Christ Methodist Protestant church surpassed themselves in the beauty and sweetness of the Song Service on Sunday evening. The following charming program was carried out—Fred G. Usilton, leader; subject—Sermons in Song:

Solo, Mother's Prayer, Miss Flora Wheatley; solo and quartette, When the Angel Shall Lift the Veil, Misses May Fallowfield, Marian Lusby, Messrs. J. Hydie Thompson and J. P. Parrott; male quartette, The Wayside Cross, Messrs. A. M. Culp, J. Hydie Thompson, Fred G. Usilton and J. P. Parrott; instrumental solo, The Palms, violin, Mr. Warren Hurlock, piano, Miss Clara Usilton.

The origin of handshaking was explained, after which all were asked to stand and each join hands with the ones next to them.

The Big Damage Suit.—The attorneys in the $100,000 damage suit of James McKenzie vs the Jacob Tome Institute, moved from Cecil to Kent county, are: for Mr. McKenzie, Albert Constable and Ex-Senator John S. Wirt; for Tome Institute, Austin L. Crothers, Esq. Local counsel has not as yet been made known.

THE COAL STRIKE ENDED.

Members of the Great Coal Strike Commission.

Bishop John L. Spalding, of Illinois; Brig-Gen John M. Wilson, United States Army; E. W. Parker' U S. Geological Survey; E. E. Clark, Chief of Railway Conductors Organization; Judge George Gray, Ex-Senator from Delaware.

The great coal strike is practically over. Both parties to the strenuous battle between capital and labor have made concessions and a national calamity has thereby been averted. The present situation may be summed up as follows:

Convention of United Mine Workers called to meet in Wilkesbarre next Monday to vote on strike settlement. It is believed that work in the mines will be resumed Thursday next.

Coal railroads are getting all their cars ready to rush coal to market as fast as it is taken from the collieries.

New York retail dealers announced that the price of hard coal would be reduced to $10 a ton on next Monday, and all prices are expected to fall at once.

All the members of the arbitration commission appointed by President Roosevelt have accepted.

CHURCH NOTES.

At I. U. parish church there will not be any services on Sunday, October 19, 1902; repairs still going on.

Dr. H. B. Martin, rector of Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church offered prayer on Sunday for the stopping of the excessive rains which have been so serious a matter to the community at large.

Rev. Walter B Stehl, of Shepherdstown, W. Va., has been called by the vestry of St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, Centreville, to become its rector. Rev. James A. Mitchell, the present rector, resigned some months ago on account of ill health. He will retire from the ministry. Rev. Mr. Seahl will assume charge of his new parish in the course of a few weeks.

Bishop Coleman preached in the Church of the Transfiguration, New York, on Sunday. He said:

"If the coal operators and the miners were each to ask themselves 'Lord, what wilt thou have me do?'—ask it from their hearts, and act as they felt the Lord would really have them to do—the entire question that is now perplexing the nation would be speedily settled.

"At the recent meeting between the president and the owners of the great roads controlling the mines I fail to note a record of prayer at the commencement asking for divine guidance. Doubtless if such a prayer had been said many would have read of it and smiled and deemed it inappropriate. Why should it be considered inappropriate?"

"Rahabs Faith," will be the subject at Grace Presbyterian church, to-morrow at 3 P. M Sunday school as usual.

Westminster Presbyterian church, at Georgetown, will be reopened for preaching to-morrow, at 10.30 A. M, by appointment from the Presbytery, Rev. K M. Bull preaching.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

THOMAS G. WROTH, THE "SHOE MAN."

Thomas G. Wroth, the High street "Shoe Man," gives notice of his annual fall opening of one of the most complete and varied lines of fine footwear ever shown in Chestertown. This stock includes the daintiest creations in shoes, slippers etc., as well as those heavy, serviceable lines of goods which must meet the brunt of daily use. His prices are right as well as his stock.

HANDSOME UNDERTAKING OUTFIT

John N. Dodd, the veteran undertaker, has received from the National Wagon Company, of Chillicothe, Ohio, one of the handsomest and most expensive undertaking wagons possibly ever brought to the Eastern Shore. After much care and expense in investigating just what the market afforded in the line of his needs, Mr. Dodd finally decided upon the beautiful wagon—a cut of which was shown in the TRANSCRIPT last week. It is the finest output of one of the most extensive factories in the country.

AN ELEGANT SUPPER.

The splendid suppers to be given by the ladies of Sacred Heart Catholic Church on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, will be ready to be served promptly at 5 o'clock each evening. Every delicacy of the season will be served, and the ladies extend a cordial invitation to the public to attend.

Mr. Moore Seriously Hurt—Mr. Harry Moore, miller at the old Connelly's or Price's mill, near St. Paul's church, was seriously injured on Wednesday afternoon at about 3 o'clock. As no one was in the engine room with Mr. Moore at the time of the accident the details of the occurrence are purely speculative. Young Coleman, who assists in the mill, came in immediately after the accident and found Mr. Moore in a corner of the engine room unconscious and bleeding about the side of the head. Assistance was summoned and the injured man was made as comfortable as possible at his home no many yards away. Dr. Frank Smith was summoned and the bone of one arm was found to be broken and several ugly wounds were found on the side of the head. Though somewhat more encouraging, Mr Moore's condition yesterday was serious. Mr. Price's theory of the accident is that the unfortunate miller was endeavoring to replace a belt on the big wheel of the engine when he was struck and thrown with great force against a post in the engine room.

A number of the young ladies and young men of Chestertown have organized a Card Club, which promises to be one of the delightful social features of the winter. A RIPE OLD AGE.

Mrs. Milcha Atkinson, wife of Mr. George C. Atkinson, of Chestertown, celebrated the eighty-fifth anniversary of her birth, on Wednesday. Circumstances prevented a general reunion of the family, but letters were received from the absent ones, and many friends extended warmest congratulations of the happy occasion. Mrs. Atkinson has the following children now living: Mrs. J. A. Greenwood, of Rock Hall; Mrs. Fannie Davis and M. A. Toulson, of Chestertown; J. Thomas Toulson, of Denton, and James H. Toulson, of Salem, New Jersey. Barring a dullness of vision, Mrs. Atkinson's slight faculties are active and unimpaired. Congratulations are in order and the TRANSCRIPT extends the most sincere well-wishes to this venerable lady.

Mrs. William H. Stewart held a pleasant reception on Saturday evening, at her handsome country place, White Hall, in honor of her son, Mr. William H. Stewart and his bride. The storm which prevailed all of Saturday and during the evening kept many friends away, but those who found it possible to be present fully enjoyed the occasion. A splendid supper and refreshments were partaken of during the evening. Among others present were: Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Hyland P. Stewart, Melvin Stewart and Albert Stewart, of Baltimore; David Stewart Miss Stewart, Harvey Stewart, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Robinson, Miss Todd, of Cambridge; Miss Maude Sheehan, Easton; Mrs. H. Mrs. Chas. R. Twilley and son Merritt, with her friend, Miss Claire Hart, of Wilmington, are guests of Mrs. Lowe, Eutaw Place, Baltimore.

Mr. Ray Sparks has accepted a position as salesman in the store of Mr. T. G. Wroth. Mr. Sparks is the brother of Mr. Arlington L. Sparks and is at present clerking in the store of R. H. Hicks Galena. Possessing a pleasant address and having had extended experience, Mr. Wroth is to be congragulated upon his selection of a clerk.

Master Brice Fountain entertained a number of little friends most delightfully at a birth-day party on Saturday last.

Row in Bohemian Camp.—A big stir was created in the Bohemian camp at the Robinson canning establishment one day this week. An assault was made upon a Polish woman, by a man with a stick, but he was prevented striking her by a Polish woman. A great company from the camp attended the hearing in Justice France's court on Wednesday. Not one of the parties to the fracas, or the witnesses could speak a word of English, consequently an interpreter was necessary. One of the young men of the camp speaks English moderately well and interpreted the testimony to Judge France. The man was fined $1 00 and costs, and the men, women and children who apparently enjoyed the frolic returned to their quarters near the depot.
