MR. ELLEGOOD SAYS: "I WOULD NOT BE CONGRESSMAN AT THE EXPENSE OF DEBAUCHING AMERICAN MANHOOD."

MR. JACKSON SAYS: "I WILL BUY MY WAY INTO CONGRESS—TO THE WINDS WITH A PURE BALLOT AND GOOD CITIZENSHIP."

THE VOTER at next Tuesday's election should not fail to remember that the cross (X) mark on the ballot must be entirely within the square, and must not extend beyond the square. This is in harmony with a recent Court of Appeals decision. The voter by exercising care in this matter, not only secures beyond all question the counting of his ballot, but will greatly lessen the work of the election officials and shorten the delay in making returns. This is a matter of vital interest to the voter in the approaching election and should be borne in mind.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Same Old Story.—The Wilmington School, one of the most up-to-date educational institutions in the country, writes to the TRANSCRIPT as follows:

"We are pleased to say that we are feeling the effects of our newspaper advertising this year."

Public School Appointment.—Miss Anna Matthews has been appoined to school number 1, district No. 1, to succeed Miss Matie G. Hazell, resigned. Miss Dora M. Loller, teacher of the public school near Kennedyville, has resigned her position, the resignation to take effect December 1.

Football Today.—The Washington College football team will meet the strong team of the Maryland Agricultural College, on the W. C. diamond, this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The home boys declare that they "will keep the gridiron warm," and ask for a good attendance. This will be the last game of the season on the home grounds.

Has Not Sold Out.—The report that Mr. Medford M. Rasin had sold his interest in the sailing vessels plying from Buck Neck and other points on the bay, is totally without foundation. Mr. Rasin says that he would sell his stock however, at $150 (par $100) The Tull, the gasoline steamer which is now being put in thorough repair at Buck Neck for the new freighting company, will soon be ready for active service

Mr. Ellegood says: "I would not be congressman at the expense of debauching American manhood."

Mr. Jackson says: "I will BUY my way into Congress—to the winds with a pure ballot and good citizenship."

CHURCH NOTES.

Today is All Saint's Day—a festival observed from the earliest days of the church, in honor and commemoration of the Apostles, Martyrs and other eminent saints of God. In the 9th century, the day following All Saint's day, was universally observed throughout the church as All Soul's day, the intention being that on this day special prayers and alms should be offered for all those who haae departed this life but could not be classed among the Saints or holy dead.

In Emmanuel Church to-morrow morning the rector will preach a special sermon dealing with the teaching and comforting thoughts suggested by these two days to all christian people.

Kennedyville M. P. Church, Rev. R.S. Rowe, pastor, subjects for Sunday, November 2. 10.30 A. M., "Make your own Election Sure. Have no uncertainty about that!" 7 P. M., "Is your name on Heaven's Registration Book? Is it written in the Lamb's Book of Life?"

The painting and other repairs to Christ Church, I. U. Parish, not having been completed, there will be no services there to-morrow, Sunday.

"Covering Sin" will be the subject at Grace Presbyterian Church tomorrow at 3 P. M. and at Westminster Church at 10.30 A. M.

There will be a series of lectures given by the Passionist Non-Catholic Missionary, the Rev. F. Valentine, in Sacred Heart Church, as follows:

Monday, November 3—"Religion, Vital to Human Happiness."
Tuesday, November 4—"Christianity and the Church."
Wednesday, November 5—"Sacerdotal Celibacy, or Why Priests do not Marry."
Thursday, November 6—"Emmanuel—God With us."
Friday, November 7—"The Divinity of Christ Proved by the Divine Tragedy."
Saturday, November 8—"Maryolatry, or the Worship of the Virgin."
Sunday, November 9, A. M.—"Christian Marriage, or Christ's View of Matrimony."
Sunday, November 9, P. M.—"Union, the Battle Cry of Freedom."
There will also be a question box.

LITTLE LOCALS.

*†*Mr. Jacob T. Shallcross' horse ran away on Friday last and fortunately neither he nor the horse were hurt, but the carriage was completely demolished.

*†*Walnut wood is being purchased from the pine tracks of Kent county for shipment to Germany. One agent is said to have purched 15,000 feet already, paying as high as $20 for a single tree.

*†*Dr. J. W. Urie, the popular Still Pond physician, will leave his old field of practice at the beginning of the new year. Dr. Messick, of Dover, Del., will succeed Dr. Urie.

*†*The first meeting of the Rock Hall Chautauqua Circle was held last week. Rev. Mr. Tally was elected president and Miss Reese secretary.

† Mr. C. H. B. Massey on Wednesday lost a valuable Pole-Augus bull. The animal won first prize at the Hagerstown fair last year.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. M. R. Ireland and daughters, Misses May and Hallie, returned on Thursday from a pleasant visit to friends and relatives in Philadelphia.

Dr. W. Franklin Taylor, of Laurel, Md., and Miss Breme, were married last week. Dr. Taylor was at one time in Kent, moved to Earleville and later to Laurel.

Miss Anna B. Smith entertained the Card Club on Wednesday evening. Prizes were won by Miss Sallye Beck and Nesbitt Trenchard; consolation prize by Miss Jennie Hines. Those present were Misses Lucy Hines, Bertha Hynson, Hallye Westcott, Sallye and Isabelle Beck, Cora Massey, Jennie Hines, Irma Eliason, Anna Smith, Minnie Massey, Maude Ringgold, Louise Stam; Messrs. Henry Deaver, Arthur Bradley, John Toulson, Ambrose Carroll, Nesbitt Trenchard, Reginald Beauchamp, Wilbur Eliason, Thomas Massey, Snowden Thomas, Louis Stam, and S. H. Green wood. The Club will be entertained on Wednesday evening next by Miss Louise Stam.

Miss Anne Rothwell Stewart, Kent's widely-known and successful worker in the temperance field, left this week to spend the winter in active work in Kansas and the middle west.

Clarence W. Perkins, Esqr., of the Baltimore bar, spent several days of this week in Chestertown.

James P. Gorter, Esqr., of the Baltimore bar, has been in attendance at the Kent county bar this week.

Mr. Louis K. Stam has been on a visit to Chestertown friends during the past week. Mr. Stam will sail for the Philippine Islands in a few days to join his regiment. He has already seen several years service in Uncle Sam's "New Possessions."

Miss Cnarlotte Rose left yesterday to assume her duties at a Child's hospital in Baltimore. Miss Florence Burgess, a young lady well-known in Kent, is at the head of the institution which Miss Rose has entered.

Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Twilley have recently heard from their son, Dr. William Twilley, who is circling the globe with a party of friends. The young Kent countion was, when heard from, at New South Wales, was in splendid health and buoyant spirits. He has visited the Holy Land, the Philippines, China and many other interesting points. Just when he will reach the "old home" is not certain.

Miss Alice Lee Healy, of Baltimore, has returned home after spending several days with her friend, Miss Mary M. Knight.

Mrs. Charles Billingslea, a daughter of Rev. W. R. Graham, left Easton yesterday for San Francisco, where she will sail next week for the Philippine Islands, on a United States Government transport, where she will join her husband, Captain Billingslea. This transport will carry out a large party of ladies who are wives of army officers, and the date of sailing as telegraphed from Washington allowed Mrs. Billingslea only one day in which to prepare for her long journey.—Easton Gazette. Mrs. Billingslea, nee Mabel Graham, is a niece of Mrs. John N. Dodd, and spent the years of her young girlhood in Chestertown, her father then being the pastor of Christ Methodist Protestant Church.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pearre Blackiston have been guests of Miss M. J. Blackiston, at Rose Cottage, Washington avenue. Mr. Blackiston on October 16, married Miss Florence Means Day, a charming young lady of Pittsburg, Pa., and they are now enjoying their honeymoon.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Stewart, who have just completed a pleasant trip through the Maryland peninsula, surprised their friends at Easton by spending Saturday and Sunday with them. They have returned to their pleasant home in Birmingham, Alabama.

Dr. C. A. Grise, for several years the popular pastor of the Chestertown M. E. Church, but at present stationed at Easton, has returned from Cleveland, Ohio, where he spent a week attending the sessions of the general Missionary Convention of the M. E. Church.

Miss Indiana Comegys, a lady widely and most pleasantly remembered in Kent, is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Chris. T. Denroche, at the rectory in Fairlee. Miss Comegys was for years a teacher in the public schools of Kent, and during a long and faithful service was conspicuous for culture, intellectual vigor and the far-reaching effects of an important work faithfully performed.

Ran a Ten Penny Nail Through his Hand.

While opening a box, J. C. Mount, of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. "I thought at once of all the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts soon healed." For Sale by M. A. Toulson.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

The Wilmington Business School, under the management of Messrs. Beacom & Dutton, is an institution of its kind that proves that thorough conscientious instruction is sure to win. This school is in its third year. The enrollment the first year was 208, the second year 333, while the enrollment to date, is 100 ahead of the corresponding period of last year.

FINE BUSINESS STAND
—AND—
STOCK of GOODS FOR SALE.

Wishing to discontinue merchandising in order that he may devote his entire time to other business, a gentlenan will sell his entire stock of MERCHANDISE and FIXTURES, with good will. Will also lease store-room to the purchaser.

The right man will find here a $12,000 to $15,000 business. The present stock is something over $4,000, nearly all new goods. This is a rare opportunity to a hustling up-to-date man. The present proprietor is doing a business which pays nicely, but other duties render it desirable for him to relieve himself of the responsibility of the business.

Mr. Ellegood Answered.

Congressman Jackson Says he Has no Confidence in Democratic Leaders.

Congressman William H. Jackson, Republican, has sent his reply to the proposal of Hon. James E. Ellegood for the suppression of bribery in elections. He says he has confidence in the personal sincerity of Mr. Ellegood in this matter. He also says he is in sympathy with him and with all others who desire such a reform. But he distrusts the Democratic party managers, and in conclusion suggests that if the leaders of the party would unite upon an agreement to do all in their power to prevent bribery in the future he feels assured the Republican party will be found uniting with Mr. Ellegood earnestly and sincerely. The reply is as follows:

"Hon. James E. Ellegood, Democratic Candidate for Congress, Salisbury, Md.;

"Dear Sir—I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your communication and desire to express myself as being in hearty sympathy with you and all others who are interested in the supression of bribery at elections in this State.

"But while I may have faith in your personal sincerity in this matter, I know that I am rather dealing with a party whose record for the last 35 years in this State has been one of bribery and corruption. Whatever of evil there is in this State along these lines is due to the Democratic party, whose every legislative act up to the present time has been against every effort to purify the ballot.

"When the Anti-Bribery law was passed by your party it provided for the punishment of both buyer and seller, which you, as a lawyer know, practically makes the law a nullity. An effort in 1896 to amend this law so as to be effective was passed by a Republican House, but was smothered by a Democratic Senate.

"Those leaders of your party in this district upon whom you will depend for election results are the same who have been leaders not only in violating the Anti-Bribery law, but still further preventing our efforts for pure elections by aiding and abetting the use of fraudulent and trick ballots, the foundation for the use of which was deliberately planned by your leaders in the calling of a special session of the Legislature and the passing of an election law which made these infamous frauds possible.

"During last winter's session of the Legislature your party leaders defeated the 'Corrupt Practices' bill, which had for its purpose the suppression of bribery and all other offenses against the purity of the ballot.

"The Democratic convention of Ocean City, which made you its candidate for Congress, indorsed through its platform the present State administration, and by so doing placed its seal of approval upon all its acts; and does this not mean that your party approved of the trick ballots and the other nefarious schemes engineered by Democratic officials in the year 1901?

"If your party in the district is sincere in its efforts to prevent bribery in a Congressional election, it should be equally sincere in its efforts to prevent bribery in all elections in years to come.

"Let there be a gathering of your party leaders from all the counties of the district large enough in numbers to be thoroughly representative in its character, and unite upon an agreement to do all in their power to prevent bribery in the future.

"I feel assured my party will be found uniting with you as honestly and sincerely as your representatives could possibly be.

"If your party will not do this I cannot be expected to have confidence in the statements of those who would pose as anti-briber today and at the same time planning bribery for tomorrow." Oct. 11 4t

Mr. Ellegood's Reply to Mr. Jackson.

Mr. Ellegood made the follywing reply to Mr. Jackson's bluff:

"First—That as a matter of personal honor, we agree in an open letter what amount each has given and will give, for legitimate purposes only, in this campaign, conceding to you the privilege of contributing three or even four times as much as I have or will give; or in lieu of this

"Second—That we make a 'corrupt practice act' of our own, by making a sworn itemized statement of the expenses during the campaign and for election purposes; this report to be made to the joint campaign committees of our respective parties. This is based on your criticism of the Democratic party's failure to pass such an act.

"Third You say you are in 'hearty sympathy with you [me] and all others who are interested in the suppression of bribery.' Now, since you decline a 'bi-partisan' organization, let us unite in a joint letter to the citizens of each of the counties, requesting all who are 'interested' in this suppression to assemble in their respective county towns on some day not later than the 15th inst. and take steps for this purpose This, you see, is a direct appeal to the people (and you will surely trust them) and acquits us of blame."

In connection with this proposition Mr. Ellegood wrote a somewhat lengthy letter to Mr. Jackson. Concerning the above proposition Mr. Ellegood adds:

"This proposition may excite the ridicule of all the 'lewd fellows of the baser sort' in your party, who sneer at the 'Sunlayschool politics,' but it is much better for the people than corrupt politics and safer for the fellow that may be caught. At any rate, a strong man can 'bear the spurns that patient merit of the unworthy takes.'

"You admit in your letter that there is a very corrupt condition in this district, and we both must admit that this is no time for apologists or promoters of further corruption. Indeed, I think the 'suppression of bribery' is the controlling issue in this district and superior to trusts, tariff or any other of the party issues, and that an honorable defeat is preferable to an election by corrupt methods."
