MAYOR HAYES, of Baltimore, says that "poles" in the city must come down The mayor has for a long time been making predictions which have failed of fulfilment.

MESSRS. R. D. HYNSON, Lewin W. Wickes and W.W.Beck,came home from Easton on Wednesday evening to partake of Thanksgiving dinners with thier families. Several of the witnesses in the Shaw-Greves case also come home.

NOT IN YEARS has the Thanksgiving spirit been more manifest throughout the country than this year. While there were many things to awaken feelings of profound regret; while sorrows and great shadows overcast the lives and homes of many, yet there were few, indeed none, who had not reasons for sincere thankfulness and praise. There is truly nothing so bad that it might not be worse, and it is well that the Thanksgiving habit is on the increase rather than on the wane. Thankfulness and praise to the Dispenser of all good are necessities of the human heart and should be cultivated as necessary to every well-rounded christian life.

"Sorrow may bide an evening guest,
But joy comes with morning light."

THERE IS A far-reaching demand for a reorganization of the Maryland Democracy. A call that new men and new measures come to the front as potent factors in the rehabilitation of the State organization. The people give an unqualified endorsement to these demands, but their greatest embarrassment is as to who are to make the selections of new men and new measures. Could the people be made to fully realize their responsibility and potency in solving this problem, the embarrassments would be overcome; our policies would be fashioned along the line of higher ideals, political methods would be purified, and a general betterment of conditions would result. The overshadowing trouble in matters of political reorganization is the timidity or lack of interest among the great voting masses in whose hands the remedy for these conditions lies. If the professional politician is to be left in absolute control of the proposed reorganization of the Maryland Democracy, then the difference before and after will simply be the difference between tweedledee and tweedledum.

Will the people not rise to their responsibility in this matter and take a hand in the work of reinstating Democratic principles as the dominant political factor in Maryland? It is Lord Fountleroy politics pure and simple, to sit supinely by and carp and find fault with the men who make their living from the political crib, and do absolutely nothing to curb their mad career in debauching the people's rights.

A DISPATCH from Washington says:

"The hope for trust legislation by Congress in the near future seems to be getting dimmer and dimmer.

"This conclusion is drawn from the repeatedly expressed sentiment of Republican Senators and Representatives now arriving to the effect that legislation 'ought to be enacted bearing upon trusts, but the tariff must not be touched."

"From 10 or 12 leading Republican Senators who have reached here the word has gone forth in effect in this way: 'It is not practicable to touch the tariff. The tariff ought not to be revised, but we must take some action on the trust question."

"The question naturally arises as a result of that statement, how can the trusts be reached unless by way of the tariff? It is conceded by Republicans generally that the Sherman Anti-Trust law is ineffective, and a constitutional amendment is regarded, so far as being a reasonably immediate remedy is concerned, as out of the question. The only avenue by which the trusts can be reached, therefore is the tariff."

It is unfortunate that President Roosevelt appropriates so great a portion of his time to hunting and speech-making rather than to cultivating strenuosity is bearing with direct force upon these great national issues of such vital importance to the great masses of the American people. Did he say half as much in his advocacy of suppressing notional evils of the trust kind as he is delivering himself of along far less important lines,the whole people would be benefitted. Could not the Southern people, for instance, spare the President for a sufficient length of time from their banquets to allow him to commune for a season (be it ever so short) with the great evils which oppress the entire people? At least they should try.

For a Bad Cold.

If you have a bad cold you need a good reliable medicine like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to loosen and relieve it, and to allay the irritation and inflamation of the throat and lungs. The soothing and healing properties of this remedy and the quick cures which it effects make it a favorite everywhere. For sale by M. A. Toulson.

THE PEOPLE of Chestertown are to be congratulated upon having a public school building commensurate with the demands of one of the most cultured and intelligent towns of the State. The question now presents itself—what will be done with the old barracks in which teachers and children have for so many tedious years been educated to death or to physical wrecks? It is suggested that the old buildings be given to the colored children. If the sanitary conditions are such as to render them unfit for occupancy by white children, then they are not fit for colored children. There should be a public school building for these children, but it should be a suitable structure in a portion of the town most convenient to those who will use it. Available locations are to be easily found in Lynchburg, and that section would be a suitable place for such a building.

CHURCH NOTES.

Services at Chesterville M. E. Church, South, Sunday morning, at 11 o'clock. Sunday school at 10 o'clock, superintendent, Wesley Davis.

Preaching at the Millington M. E Church, South, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Sunday school at 2 P. M., R. Wesley Moffett, superintendent. All are cordially invited to attend.

Messrs M. A. Toulson, C. H. Jefferson, and Joseph Mallalieu, attended the district stewards meeting in Smyrna, on Wednesday. Interesting resolutions were passed which will be published in a later issue.

The congregation of St. Paul's Centreville Church has presented to its rector, Rev. James. A. Mitchell, who has been its pastor for 29 years, with a handsome silver bowl. It was made by Samuel Kirk & Son, of Baltimore. Engraved on it is the following: "From the congregation of St. Paul's Church,to their rector, James A. Mitchell, in loving appreciation of his faithful service. 1873 1902"

W. Hopper Gibson made the presentation speech, and was responded to by Mr. Mitchell.

CHURCH ANNIVERSARY.

Rev. J. W. Talley, pastor of Rock Hall M. E. Church, will celebrate the first anniversary of the building of the handsome new church, to-morrow. Presiding Elder Corkran, Rev. C. T. Wyatt and Rev. George L Hardesty will preach during the day. Mr. Talley has raised $1,000 on the church debt and feels confident that the entire indebtedness will be wiped out. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend the interesting services

The church was dedicated January 6th, 1901, and at the time $1400 was raised leaving a balance of about $2500. Rev Talley came to this charge December 1st, 1901, and since that time all obligations of the church have been raised and met at the end of each month, and the church today is in a splendid and healthy condition. With the building debt liquidated it will be able to pay a better salary to the pastor, and that means that the church must prosper.

Rev. J. W. Talley preached a most excellent sermon to the Jr. O. U. A. M. of Rock Rall on Sunday morning. His text was the 137 Psalm, 6 and 7 verses—"If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth; if I prefer not Jerusalem above my chief joy." "Remember, O Lord, the children of Edom in the day of Jerusalem; who said, Raise it, raise it, even to the foundation thereof." Quite a goodly number of the order were out. The sermon was a plain practical talk, and if the advice of the preacher is heeded there is no doubt it will be beneficial to the order as a patriotic organization, and good results will follow.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THE SHOE MAN'S WONDERFUL OFFER.

Thomas G. Wroth, the Shoe Man, under Stam's Hall, comes out with one of the most attractive, up-to-date advertising novelties ever put before the purchasing public in Kent. The Shoe Man actually gives away shoes—a remarkable offer and a novelty in the advertising line. Referring to it he says:

"Commencing with December 2, 1902, and ending April 1, 1903, I will distribute among my many patrons,absolutely free, every hundredth pair of shoes. A careful and accurate record will be kept of each sale made for the cash, and after the ninety-ninth pair has been sold, the person desiring to purchase each hundredth pair of shoes, boots or arctics will be presented with the article which he or she desired to purchase, free. It matters not whether it be a pair of twenty-five-cent shoes or a five-dollar pair of boots, shoes or rubber goods, if it be the hundredth customer it goes free This is a perfectly fair, legitimate offer, with none of the 5 cent prize-package blanks and numbers about it."

ENLARGING THEIR BUSINESS.

Messrs Crane, Hynson & Valliant have enlarged the field of their business operations by taking up the sale of wire fencing on a large scale.

Mr. Valliant last week visited Pittsburg to buy a comparatively small order of the Perfect Field Fence, but so much pleased was he with the admirable qualities of this particular fence that he ordered several carloads on the spot. The strong point claimed for this fence over other wire fences is that there is no warping or slipping of the strands. It is welded by electricity instead of being woven, and is practically instructable. Look out for their special Fence Add next week.

BERGEN'S ADD.

R. Bergen in this issue calls special attention to his fall and approaching-holiday goods. Beautiful and seasonable goods are conspicuous in his line.
