SATURDAY, JANUARY 2, 1904.

THE TRANSCRIPT goes to its readers this morning in a new dress. The old one had become tattered and torn in its vigorous service during the last campaign, and it became necessary, in order to make a clear and readable appearance, to don it in a new dress.

The TRANSCRIPT wishes all of its patrons and readers a very happy and prosperous new year.

CONTRACTOR Pennington has notified Chairman Murray Vandiver that the new State House will be ready for occupancy by the time of the assembling of the Legislature on Wednesday next. Gov.-elect Warfield will take the oath of office in the new Senate Chamber.

THOSE IN CHARGE OF Rayner petitions in Queen Anne's county have more than 1500 signers to date. What are Queen Anne's delegates going to do with this powerful public sentiment in favor of the election of Hon. Isidor Rayner to the U. S. Senate?

GOVERNOR-ELECT WARFIELD has made his first appointment in the person of Col. Oswald Tilghman, as Secretary of State to succeed Mr. Wilfred Bateman. Col. Tilghman is a resident of Easton, Talbot county, is a staunch Democrat, and his selection is regarded very favorably. The appointment is purely of a personal nature.

HON. ISIDOR RAYNER gave a dinner on Wednesday night to the city Legislative delegation at the hotel Belvedere. The utmost enthusiasm was displayed by all of the members of the delegation present, and each one of them declared in the strongest terms his determination to do everything in his power to further the cause of Mr. Rayner.

AT A MEETING of some of the leaders of the Democratic party at the home of Senator Gorman in Washington on Wednesday, Dr. George Y. Everhart was practically decided on as Speaker of the House of Delegates. Dr. Everhart is a well-known physician and lives at Dickeyville, in the First District of Baltimore county. He was a member of the last House of Delegates and has always been a strong organization man. State Senator Spencer C. Jones, of Montgomery county, will likely be the President of the Senate.

STATE SENATOR-ELECT Clarence W. Perkins, of the Second Legislative district of Baltimore city, is drawing a bill which he will introduce in the Senate next month, which provides for the establishment of a House of Detention and place of committment for juvenile offenders against the law in the city. Mr. Perkins' bill, which has not yet been completed, contemplates an appropriation of $30,000 and likewise provides for the appointment of two, and no more, probationary officers, who will be paid by the State, and whose dutes will be outlined in the bill.

THE REPUBLICAN PAPERS throughout the State are generally favorable to the election of Gov. Smith to the United States Senate. It's a pretty piece of politics they're playing, too. Those papers know that the people of the State do not want Gov. Smith, and their little game is to "whoop it up" for the Governor, in order to catch the politicians in the same trap in which they were caught is 1895. One of the bitterest pills for the Republicans to swallow would be the election of Isidor Rayner, because they know he is the people's choice, and they know that his election will cement and solidify the Democratic party.

Gorman the Favorite.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Times has gathered the views of the Democratic members of the Senate and House of Representatives on their party nomination for President, and in a lengthy dispatch to his paper gives the preference of each one who consented to commit himself. From the Times' poll it appears that Senator A. P. Gorman is the favorite. The dispatch, which covers a whole page, summarized, is as follows:

	Senators.	Rep.	Total.
Gorman	12	30	42
Parker	2	29	31
Cockrell	1	15	16

WHAT WILL MR. GORMAN DO?

There is no question about the fact that the selection of a United States Senator to succeed Senator Louis E. McComas is now up to Senator Gorman. He is the recognized leader of the Democratic party in the State, and as such holds the power to settle the contest. It has been demonstrated to Mr. Gorman that the people, who gave him his seat in the United States Senate and who have delegated to him the power to lead the Democratic party, are desirous of the election of Hon. Isidor Rayer to the United States Senate. It is not a question of Mr. Gorman's personal preference in the matter, it is enough that the people want Mr. Rayner. The Democratic party is a great corporation whose manager is Senator Gorman. In business, where the corporation wills, the manager generally obeys. In politics the same rule applies. Every Democratic voter in the State of Maryland is a stockholder in this corporation, and his right of franchise can either make or mar the destinies of its manager. The evidence is before Senator Gorman. The people want Mr. Rayner, the politicians want Gov. Smith. What is Mr. Gorman going to do about it?

IS GOV. SMITH DEFEATED.

Belief in Washington is That He Cannot Win.

A special dispatch Wednesday to the Sun from its Washington correspondent says:

"The organization of the Maryland Legislature and the general party situation in the State were discussed between Senator Gorman and the State leaders closely associated with him at a lunch given at the Senator's residence this afternoon.

"While it is at present the avowed purpose of Mr. Gorman not to interfere in the Senatoiral contest, it is apparent that pressure will be brought to bear on him to sanction the support by the organization of another canidate against Mr. Rayner on its appearing that Governor Smith cannot win. It is understood that the defeat of Governor Smith is already recognized to be so distinctly foreshadow that those of the Democratic organization most opposed to Mr. Rayner's election to the Senate are apprehensive that if 'horses are not swapped' at once it will be too late for the accomplishment of their purpose."

For Test of Parcels-Post.

"Representative James W. Denny, of Baltimore, have introduced a bill providing for an appropriation of $100,000 for experiments with a view to establishing a parcels -ost.

"The measure authories the Post Office Department to make tests between Washington and Baltimore, Washington and Richmond, or Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia, in the same way that rural free delivery was first experimented with, in order to determine the efficiency and feasibility of such service. There is a strong sentiment in favor of such experiments, and members from other States have signified their intention to make a vigorous fight for some such legislation during this session. Major Denny's bill is similar in general respects to one which was introduced in the Senate last session by Senator Wellington, of Maryland, and offered by him as an amendment to an appropriations bill."—Baltimore Sun.

In England and on the Continent all sorts of parcels are sent by the Parcel post system at trifling cost. The advantage of this system to the rural sections is so great that it would be well for our people to give all assistance possible to accomplish its establishment. We would be glad to have the expressions of our readers on the subject. Chickens, pigs and such things are carried by this system.

THE BALTIMORE SUN of Tuesday contained the following very complimentary reference to Senator-elect Garrett Foxwell:

"State Senator Garrett Foxwell, a native of Delaware, but for many years a resident of Kent county, is about 53 years old and one of the most prominent agriculturalists on the Eastern Shore. For nearly 25 years he has been living on a farm of some 600 acres, near Kennedyville, and the extent of his farming operations can be gathered from the fact that his average crops of wheat and corn are, respectively, from 4,000 to 6,000 and 7,000 to 9,000 bushels. In addition to the careful attention to his own farm, Mr. Foxwell manages a number of other farms in this section of the county. He is a man of ample means, was one of the charter members and largest stock-holders of the Second National Bank of Chestertown, and has been one of its most valuable directors since its organization.

"The name of Garrett Foxwell is a tower of strength in Kent county. He has never held any political position except that of County Treasurer, in 1894. In a bitter primary he was nominated Senator and was elected by the largest majority any candidate for that office has received in the last 25 years. Indeed, with the exception of the year 1891, he is the first Democratic Senator who has been elected from Kent county since the year 1879. His friends know that his rugged honesty and integrity will please and gratify not only the people of Kent county, but of the entire State, and they confidently look forward to an honest and honorable career for Senator Foxwell at Annapolis."

Found a Cure for Indigestion.

I use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for indigestion and find that they suit my case better than any dyspepsia remedy I have ever tried and I have used many different remedies. I am nearly fifty-one years of age and have suffered a great deal from indigestion. I can eat almost anything I want to now.—Geo. W. Emory, Rock Mills, Ala. For sale by M. A. Toulson, Druggist.

IN FAVOR OF RAYNER.

We, the undersigned citizens of Kent county, Maryland, living and residing in said county, do heartily endorse the candidacy of Hon. Isidor Rayner as Senator of the United States, and we respectfully request that this endorsement be published in the County papers.

A VIGOROUS ENDORSEMENT.

HON. ISIDOR RAYNER made a grand speech in Stam's Hall last Monday. His hearers were all pleased and the Democracy throughout the county appreciate his noble effort in behalf of the ticket.

Mr. Rayner's terrific denunciation of the activity of President Roosevelt in the Maryland Campaign, and the sarcasm and ridicule which he heaped upon the Republican Legislatures of 1895 and 1898 aroused vociferous applause, but it was his discussion of the pending change in political affairs in Maryland, when the managers would always have to bow to the will of the people, as they had done, he said, in the nomination of Mr. Warfield, that really stirred the audience. The old campaigners present who heard him speak said Mr. Rayner had warmed up to his work and had regained all his old-time fire and force. His speech abounded with apt stories that drove home his points and caught the crowd.—Kent News, Oct. 24.

OTHER ENDORSEMETS.

The following letter appeared in the Baltimore Sun of Saturday last:

MESSRS. EDITORS:—A letter signed "A Regular Democrat" appeared in the Ellicott City Times, in which the writer accuses The SUN of attempting to force its candidate for the United States Senatorship upon the Legislature by threats and intimidation. It is a certainty that in supporting Mr. Rayner in his present contest the SUN is doing no more than presenting the demand of the majority of the Democratic voters of the State. Thoughtful men who have the best interests of the party at heart look upon the utterances of the Sun as warnings—not threats.

Men who have devoted their best talent to the Democratic party have spoken the same warnings with an unmistakable emphasis—men who, like myself, were born Democrats, who love the party for its principles and its leaders when they exemplify those principles; men who will support the party and vote the ticket regardless of any prospect of reward save as a good conscience will give.

No man who knows the service and loyalty of such men as John S. Tracy, Thos. H. Hunt, John G. Rogers and others will accuse them of threats; these men will be loyal to the last, yet they have uttered warnings as strong as those of the SUN that "the defeat of Mr. Rayner will be the downfall of the party."

Threats have been uttered, but by a different class of men. Among the laboring classes Isidor Rayner is esteemed for his able, generous and noble defense of Admiral Schley, and whether this act is sufficient justification for sending him to the United States Senate or not, the fact remains that by his generous deed he has endeared himself to this class, and many of them have said to me, "If they turn Rayner down I will never vote the Democratic ticket again."

Those who know the stubborn determination of this class of voters will best understand the meaning and force of the expression.

Warnings come from the SUN and representative men; threats from the rank and file.

THE PEOPLE'S CANDIDATE.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Allow me space in your valuable paper to express my views on the Senatorial question. I cannot see for the life of me how any fair-minded Democrat in this State can oppose the election of Hon. Isidor Rayner to the Senate of the United States. He is not only eminently fitted for the place, but where will you find a man as well qualified? And aside from a few politicians, the whole Democratic party prefers him to anyone else. If my views are worth anything you are at liberty to publish this letter. I have been a lifelong Democrat and hope to see my party control my State the balance of my life, but I very much fear should the wishes of the people be ignored by the Legislature this winter we will cease to control it after the next election. THOS. J. WILLIS.
Hanesville, Kent county, Maryland.

MORE PAPERS IN RAYNER COLUMN.

The follwing letter was recieved on Wednesday by the Sun:

"Messrs. Editors: Please add to your list of papers of this date in favor of Hon. Isidor Rayner for Senator, New Farm, Preston, Caroline county, and the Hurlock Advance, Hurlock, Dorchester county.

H. R. WALWORTH, Editor.
Hurlock, Dorchester county, Md., Dec. 29.

AGAINST SECRET CAUCUS.

It is a significant fact that Messrs. Rayner, Jackson and Miles, three avowed candidates for the U. S. Senate, are openly opposed to a secret caucus. Twelve of the twenty-one legislative delegates, of Baltimore city, are pronounced in favor of an open caucus. Nine are non-committal, but not one of them is in favor of a secret ballot in any kind of caucus. The general demand throughout the State is for an open caucus. Note the statements of some of the delegates:

AGAINST SECRECY—FOR RAYNER.

"Mr. John W. Williams, member-elect of the House of Delegates from Montgomery county, is heartily in favor of an open ballot for United States Senator and also for any other purpose, and is opposed to a secret caucus, as proposed. He says:

"'The sentiment in Montgomery county is opposed to any secret ballot being taken, and it is being upheld by the county delegation not only at this time, but has been opposed to such procedure for years. The sentiment in the county is yet growing stronger for Rayner for United States Senator, and the response to the petitions sent out in the county for signers in Mr. Rayner's behalf has exceeded expectations.'"

Senator-elect Clarence W. Perkins:

"While I believe that a caucus for the members of the Legislature only should be held behind closed doors, I favor an open vote in the caucus. I want it known how I vote on the Senatorship question and see no reason for concealment."

Senator-elect John Gill, of Baltimore City:

"I am strongly in favor of an open vote for Senator, and believe that a secret caucus will be unsatisfactory to the people at large, as well as to the members of the Democratic party. There is no reason why there should be any secrecy about the matter. The reason why no secret caucus was held in 1884 was because the secret ballot in the caucus two years previously had resulted in a fight and in all sorts of dissatisfaction."

From the Perryville Record.

The proposition to select the United States Senator to succeed Mr. McComas by a secret caucus of the Democratic members of the Legislature should be dropped. It is undemocratic and unfair to the people and the candidates in the field. What is done, should be done in the open and in the confidence of the people. The rights and will of the public must be respected. This is why we advocate the election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people. The Democratic party is a party of majority rule. What the majority wants is what it should give.

The sentiment in Kent county is strongly in favor of an open caucus and an open vote for the U. S. Senator. Why should Gov. Smith and the politicians want a secret vote? No man should be ashamed of his vote or his strength.

CHURCH NOTES.

The Methodist Sunday Schools held their annual Christmas treats in the lecture rooms of the respective churches on Wednesday evening. The P. E. Sunday School enjoyed the occasion in Stam's Hall. The representatives of "Old Kris" distributed boxes of confections, oranges and presents to the scholars, and a pleasant social time was held.

Watch night services were held at St. James M. P. and Chestertown M. E. Church on Thursday evening.

Dr. Thomas H. Lewis, president of Western Maryland College, preached a masterly Christmas sermon in Christ M. P. Church on Sunday morning last, and delivered a very pleasing impromptu speech at the service Sunday evening.

Rev. Thos. Jones, pastor of Piney Neck M. E. Church will fill the pulpit in Rock Hall M. E. Church on Sunday Jan. 10th, in the absence of Rev. Warren Burr, who, with his wife, is spending two weeks with his children in North Carolina. Rev. R. H. K. Gill, of the Peninsula Methodist, will fill the pulpit tomorrow (Sunday) morning and evening.

Bond M. E. Sabbath School rendered a very elaborate and interesting programme in connection with their annual Christmas treat on Monday evening.

Christ M. P. Sunday School rendered a very interesting Christmas exercise entitled "Christmas in all Lands," on Sunday evening last. This school sustained its high reputation for fine singing and splendid recitations on this occasion. The music was under the direction of Mr. Alyn M. Culp, director of the church choir, and the choruses were accompanied by an orchestra composed of Messrs. L. B. Russell, violin; Hydie Thompson, Clarionet; Wm. L. Fowler, piccolo; Jack Cannon, cornet, and Foster Cannon trombone. Miss Clara Usilton presided at the organ with her usual skill.

The Asbury M. E. Church, Millington, never looked prettier than on Tuesday Evening, Dec. 29, at the instance of the Christmas tree entertainment. The young people had tastily decorated the church with holly, crows foot, and evergreen. The entertainment was all that could be desired, every number was well rendered, and well recieved. Miss Pearl Ahern sang a beautiful Chistmas solo, and she sang beautifully. The Christmas treat was generous, and the scholars, teachers and friends were remembered. The attendance was large and appreciative. The pastor was presented with a beautiful Post fountain pen, best quality. It was a complete surprise and a great joy. Mr. Joseph Mallaleiu made the presentation speech, and the pastor happily responded to the same.

Rev. K. Bull is away from home, so that there will be no preaching in Kent's Presbyterian Churches to-morrow, Sunday, January 3, 1904.

Preaching service and Holy Communion in the Kennedyville M. P. Church, Rev. Robert S. Rowe, pastor, at 10.30 A. M., and preaching at 7. P. M. Morning subject: "Give an account of thy stewardship." Evening subject: "The dead past and the living present."

CHRIST METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH.

9.30 A. M. New Year's Consecration and Testimony Meeting.

10 30 A. M. Communion Service and Reception of Members.

2.30 P. M. Sunday School.

6.45 P. M. Christian Workers' Meeting.

7.30 P. M. Sermon Theme, "Shall the Brevity of Life Gladden or Sadden?"

Christmas Music will be repeated at the evening service.
