The Leading Periodical in America.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK,
For 1849.

DEDICATED TO THE LADIES OF THE UNITED STAES.

Edited by SARAH J HALE.
GRACE GREENWOOD,
and L. A. GODEY.

A Novelette by MISS E. LESLIE, who contributes to every No.

N. P. WILEIS' Original Scriptural Poetry.

T. S. ARTHUR, who contributes to every No., illustrative of Croome's Sketches of American Character.

We intend merely to give a notice of our intentions for next year, leaving to others long advertisements—"full of sound and fury, signifying nothing"

Agreeably to the practice of last year the publisher will issue as good a number each month as he does in January. This is a novel feature in Magazine publishing. During the whole of last year he gave more engravings and more reading matter than any of his contemporaries, and will continue to do so next year. Those who subscribe to GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK, may do so under the assurance that they will receive more for their money in the Magizine alone, than by subscribing to any other work. To this is added and included in the same $3, the LADY'S DOLLAR NEWSPAPER, which contains in one month nearly, if not quite as much reading matter as the other monthlies, making for $3, the amount of reading of two magazines a month. There are peculiarities about Godey's Lady's Book for the ladies that no other Magazine possesses. There is a Mezzotint and Line Engraving in each number—both by the best artists. In addition to these there are given monthly which no other magazine gives—a Colored Fashion Plate, with a full description. This feature is peculiar to Godey, as no other work has them every month and colored. Then there are Caps, Bonnets, Chemisettes Equestrism for Ladies, with Engravings. The Ladies' Work Table, with designs for knitting netting, crochets, and all other kinds of work. Patterns for Smoking Caps, Chair Covers, Window Curtains, D'Oyley's Purses, Bags, &c., &c. Health and Beauty with Engravings. Model Cottages, with ground plants, and other engravings, always illustrative of something useful. Music, beautifully printed on tinted paper which may be taken out and bound Colored Modern Cottages, and Colored Flower Pieces occasionally.—These are all extra in Godey, and to be found in no other Magazine. These were all given last year, and will be continued, in addition, we shall have in every No. one of

"CROOME'S SKETCHES OF AMERICAN CHARACTERISTICS."

A most amusing series, now first given to the American public These will be illustrated in every No by a Story from the powerful pen of T. S. Arthur Esq

"THE CHANGES OF FASHION,"

Illustrated by Fay Ridgeson, Esq. This series will be very interesting to the Ladies

"THE APPLICABILITY OF THE FINE ARTS TO DOMESTIC USES."

Is another series of Engravings now in preparation, and will be published during the year.

COTTAGE FURNITURE.

Having given so many Model Cottages, we intend now to commence the publication of Cottage Furniture—a very necessary appendage to a Cottage.

RELIGION AND HISTORY.

Our Superior Artists, Walters, Tucker, Pease and Welch, are now engaged upon a set of plates illustrative of these two subjects.

OUR MUSIC.

Prepared expressly for us—music original, and beautifully printed, has always received a decided preference over any other Magazine. It is a feature in the Book.

THE LITERARY CHARACTER OF GODEYS' LADY BOOK

With such writers as Miss Leslie, Grace Greenwood, W. G Simms, Mrs. Ellet, T. Arthur, Mrs. E Oakes Smith, Mrs. J. C Neal, H. T. Tuckerman, H. W. Herbert &c., the author of the Widow Benott, Professor Frost, Bryant, Longfellow, Hunt—and a host of others—must always take the lead in literary merits

TERMS:

For Three Dollars we will send the lady's Book, containing more reading than any other monthly, and the lady's Dollar Newspaper published twice a month, which contains as much reading as any of the $3 periodicals of the day—making three publications in one month, or if the subscriber prefers the following splendid engravings to the Lady's Dollar Newspaper, (although we would not advise it, as engravings cannot be sent through the mail without being crushed or creased,) we will send the beautiful plate containing the portraits of Harriet Newell, Fanny Forrester, Mrs Stewart, Mrs Ann H. Judson and Mrs. E. B Dwight, and the plates of Christ Weeping over Jerusalem, The Opening of the Sepulchre, Deliverance of St. Peter and The Rebuke. If preferred to the Newspaper or plates, we will send Miss Leslie's Novel of Amelia, and any three of Mrs. Grey's or Miss Pickering's popular novels.

For Five Dollars we will send two copies of the Lady's Book, and a set of the plates to each subscriber.

For Ten Dollars we will send five copies of the Lady's Book, and a copy to the person sending the Club, and a set of plates to each.

For Twenty Dollars, eleven copies of the Book and a set of Plates to each subscriber, and a copy of the Book to the person sending the Club.

For One Dollar we will send the Lady's Book 4 months, and for 25 cents any one No. Postage to be prepaid on all orders.

Address, L. A. GODEY.

ANOTHER PHYSICIAN'S TESTIMONY.

Mr. Fowle—Dear Sir: I could send you a dozen certificates, strong and decisive, of the really sanative effects of your valuable Balsam of Wild Cherry, within the past twelve months, under my own supervision and direction. Indeed, I know of few persons who have used it, comparatively, but commend it in the strongest terms. A case of Asthma, the severest I ever saw, to which I was called a month ago, evinced the superiority of the Balsam. The disease had lasted six weeks, and the dyspnœa and suffering were dreadful; he sat up every night. The gentleman told me to give him something to last him home, (21 miles,) so that he might see his wife and child, and die in peace! I gave him one bottle of the Balsam and four ounces syrup squills, directing him to take tea spoonful doses of the best Bordeaux olive oil, when the difficulty of breathing was greatest. Next day I forced his despondent will, and made him take six bottles of the Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry home with him as a present, he having alleged that he had used so much expensive medicine to no purpose. Last week Mr. A. called and expressed his gratitude to me in the warmest manner, said the medicine had saved his life, paid his whole bill, and took six bottles more, and left my office for home, rejoicing.
