Genuine INDIAN MEDICINE

Russetsville, Putnam co; Ind. July 1. 1847.

Dr. Wright: Some time since your agent left me a supply of your Indian Vegetable Pills. I have found said Pills to be in great demand lately for the cure of Fever and Ague. Mr. James Boyd has a son who has been laid up with Fever and Ague, and had tried other remedies, all of which proved of no avail. He determined to buy your Indian Vegetable Pills, and by using one box is now sound and well. Mr. T. Spencer had a daughter, Mr. Hugh Groves a son, and Mr. Charles Nicolas and three of his family, were all down at the same time with fever and ague, and had also tried the various other remedies without effect. Your Indian Vegetable Pills soon restored them to perfect health. I can assure you, from what I have seen, your Indian Vegetable Pills may be relied on for perfect cure of Fever and Ague. Yours respectfully,

JACOB DURHAM, P. M.

Also an acting Justice of the Peace.

This is to certify, that I was entirely cured of the chills and Fevers of several months' standing, by the use of four doses, of four pills each, of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, after taking medicine from a regular physician for some time, and have had no symptoms of them since, which has been about one year ago.

The Leading Periodical in America.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK,

For 1849.

DEDICATED TO THE LADIES OF THE UNITED STAES.

Edited by SARAH J HALE,
GRACE GREENWOOD,
and L. A. GODEY.

A Novelette by MISS E. LESLIE, who contributes to every No.

N. P. WILEIS' Original Scriptural Poetry.

T. S. ARTHUR, who contributes to every No., illustrative of Croome's Sketches of American Character.

We intend merely to give a notice of our intentions for next year, leaving to others long advertisements—"full of sound and fury, signifying nothing"

Agreeably to the practice of last year the publisher will issue as good a number each month as he does in January. This is a novel feature in Magazine published. During the whole of last year he gave more engravings and more reading matter than any of his contemporaries, and will continue to do so next year. Those who subscribe to GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK, may do so under the assurance that they will receive more for their money in the Magazine alone, than by subscribing to any other work. To this is added and included in the same $3, the LADY'S DOLLAR NEWSPAPER, which contains in one month nearly, if not quite as much reading matter as the other monthlies, making for $3, the amount of reading of two magazines a month. There are peculiarities about Godey's Lady's Book for the ladies that no other Magazine possesses. There is a Mezzotint and Line Engraving in each number—both by the best artists. In adpition to these there are given monthly whdt no other magazine gives—a Coloured Fashion Plate, with a full description. This feature is peculiar to Godey, as no other work has them every month and colored. Then there are Caps, Bonnets, Chemisettes Equestrism for Ladies, with Engravings. The Ladies' Work Table, with designs for knitting netting, crochet, and all other kinds of work. Patterns for Smoking Caps, Chair Covers, Window Curtains, D'Oyley's Purses, Bags, &c., &c. Health and Beauty with Engravings. Model Cottages, with ground plants, and other engravings, always illustrative of something useful. Music, beautifully printed on tinted paper which may be taken out and bound Collored Modern Cottages, and Collored Flower Pieces occasionally.—These are all extra in Godey, and to be found in no other Magazine. These were all given last year, and will be continued, in addition, we shall have in every No., one of

"CROOME'S SKETCHES OF AMERICAN CHARACTERISTICS."

A most amusing series, now first given to the American public These will be illustrated in every No. by a Story from the powerful pen of T. S. Arthur Esq.

"THE CHANGES OF FASHION,"

Illustrated by Fay Robinson, Esq. This series will be very interesting to the ladies.

"THE APPLICABILITY OF THE FINE ARTS TO DOMESTIC USES."

Is another series of Engravings now in preparation, and will be published during the year.

COTTAGE FURNITURE.

Having given so many Model Cottages, we intend now to commence the publication of Cottage Furniture—a very necessry appendage to a Cottage.

RELIGION AND HISTORY.

Our Superior Artists, Walters, Tucker, Pease and Welch, are now engaged upon a set of plates illustrative of these two subjects.

OUR MUSIC.

Prepared expressly for us—mostly original, and beautifully printed, has long commanded a decided preference over that of any other Magazine. It is a feature in The Book.

THE LITERARY CHARACTER OF GODEYS' LADY BOOK.

With such writers as Miss Leslie, Grace Greenwood, W. G. Simms, Mrs. Ellet, T. Arthur, Mrs. E Oakes Smith, Mrs. J. C Neal, H. T. Tuckerman, H. W. Herbert &c., the author of the Widow Bedott, Professor Frost, Bryant, Longfellow, Holmes—and a host of others—must always take the lead in literary merits

TERMS:

For Three Dollars we will send the lady's Book, containing more reading than any other monthly, and the lady's Dollar Newspaper published twice a month, which contains as much reading as any of the $3 periodicals of the day—making three publications in one month, or if the subscriber ptefers the following splendid engrevings to the Lady's Dollar Newspaper, (although we would not advise it, as engravings cannot be sent through the mail without being crushed ar creased,) we will send the beautiful plate containing the portraits of Harriet Newell, Fanny Forrester, Mrs Stewart, Mrs Ann H. Judson and Mrs. E. B. Dwight, and the plates of Christ Weeping over Jerusalum, The Opening of the Sepulchre, Deliverance of St Peter and The Rebuke. If preferred to the Newspaper or plates, we will send Miss Leslie's Novel of Amelia, and any three of Mrs. Grey's or Miss Pickering's popular norvel.

For Five Dollars we will send two copies of the Lady's Book, and a set of the plates to eabh subscriber.

For Ten Dollars we will send five copies of the Lady's Book, and a copy to the person sending the Club, and a set of plates to each.
