The last will and testament of Henry Kent being sick and weake but perfect in memory

Imprimis I give to Dyana Kent one Cow called Daffey with her increase

Item I give to Ann Kent one Cow called broade horned with her increase

Item I give to Mary Kent one Cow called Stamell with her increase and as for the Child that my Brothers wife is now greate with if it be a man Child it is to have two young heifers the one called battle named the other called Inalan but if it be a female Child it is to have but one of the aforesaid heifers and as for all the rest of my goods and Chattells I give unto my Brother William Kent and God make him my full and lawfull executor Witnesse my hand ffebruary 24th 1667

Henry Kent

Witnesses
John Crosser
James Hilsmed
his Mark

April 26th 1668

Upon the foregoing Will of Henry Kent at the request of William the Executor in the said Will named was Administration Granted him Sworne before Commission then issued to George Foake Gent to swear the Appraisers aforesaid John Crosser and James Hilsmed & to Administer Oathes to the said William Kent & the Oath to take to the said Will in all the said William Kent & the Oath to take to the said Will and also to take bond according to the form then sent with James and also to take bond according to the form then sent with James Chattells his property in the summe of forty thousand pounds tobacco and to make returns

Warrant also issued impowering John Crosser and James Hilsmed to appraise the said estate

Another warrant also issued to George Foake Gent to swear the Inventory & return the 26th July next

April 26th 1668

Administration of all and singular the goods and Chattells which were Wm Simpson late of this Citty intestate deceased were to Hannah his relict of the said Wm committed

Commission then issued to George Foake Gent to take the Oath of the said Hannah and bond with two sureties according to the form sent in the summe of twenty thousand pounds tobacco

Warrant then issued impowering John Crosser & Robert Hugh Appraisers

Another warrant issued to Geo: Foake to swear them

Inventory return 26th July next

An Inventory and Appraisement of the goods and Chattells of Thomas Smoot deceased taken by Humphrey Warren and Robert Hughes ffebruary the fourteenth Anno Dom: Sixe hundred sixty and seaven

Imprimis One old feather bed blankitts and Rugs	0 4 5 0
Fiue old leather chairs	0 1 0 0
Foure old low chairs	0 0 5 0
One old feather bed blankitts and Rugs	0 5 0 0
Three paire of old sheets	0 1 4 0
Foure small Remnants of Linnen	0 0 3 0
Two table clothes	0 0 4 0
One Dozen of old Napkins	0 0 8 0
Two old Towells	0 0 0 4
One Truckle bed and pillow	0 0 3 0
One quarter dagger and fflice small Kettlett	0 0 4 0
Ye Crane old Cess Bellows	0 0 2 0
One Chest of Empty quart bottles	0 0 1 0
One Chest	0 0 6 0
Two pounds of powder	0 0 1 2
Foure pounds of shott	0 0 0 8
One Tenner glass	0 0 0 3
One old chest of Boarbord Sissors and Razor	0 0 3 0
One Sack Cuppe and Two Drumm Cuppes	0 0 8 0