NOTICE TO HOLDERS OF BURIAL LOTS IN CHESTER CEMETERY.

The Chester Cemetery Company by recent action of its Board is now prepared to enter into a contract with its lot owners to keep their lots in first-class order perpetually. This guarantees the owner that his lot will be taken care of, not only after his death but even after the death of all the family.

There is no sadder sight in a cemetery than to see the lot of a one time prosperous owner in weeds, briars, overgrown bushes, &c., and for reason that the family have either all died, removed or else forgotten their duty to the remains of their ancestors.

Those who secure a contract as above will have no apprehensions of this fate to their lots. For terms apply to

OBITUARY.

MISS JOSEPHINE E. REDUE.

Miss Josephine E. Redue, one of the most highly respected and prominent women of Chestertown died at her late residence on Front street on Tuedsay afternoon, of pneumonia, in the 78th year of her age. The death of this noble woman removes from our midst the last member of a family that has long been prominent in the social and religious life of the community. The deceased was the daughter of the late Jos. Redue, a former clerk of the court and prominent official in the county in years agone. Throughout almost the entire life of the deceased she conducted a select school, and many of the most prominent citizens in the town and county take pride in the fact that they received their instruction at the hand of such a noble woman. But perhaps the beauty and purity of the character of the deceased was most stickingly portrayed in her devotion to her church. Indeed her entire life seemed to be given up to her religious duties. In season and out of season always responding to the call of her church, and ever ready to sacrifice her time, her talents and her means, if only her church's interest could be advanced. Her entire life in the church and in her relations with her associates and friends was a beautiful illustration of the influence and power of the religion which she professed, and ever and anon exemplyfying in her sweet and pure christian life the noblest teachings of that religion, it may very properly be said of her that "none knew her but to love her, none named her but to praise."

The force of such a character cannot fail to have an abiding influence upon those who are left, and while the clay sleepeth beneath the green sod in the city of the dead, yet, there will remain from the life of the noble woman of God the aroma of a holy and pure influence. There has been gathered from the Church Militant one more golden sheaf, but no one who watched the life of the deceased doubts that she is resting sweetly from her labors today. The deceased is survived by the following distant relatives: The families of Messrs. T. Waters Russell, Lewin S. Fowler, Charles Estes and members of the Wheatley families. She was also related to the families of the late John Redue and John Collins, of Baltimore. Funeral services were held yesterday morning in Sacred Heart Catholic church, Father Curran officiating, assisted by Farther McSweeney, a former priest of the church. Interment was made in Chester cemetery. Father McSweencey delivered a touching eulogy on the many virtues of the deceased. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Chas. Estes, Lewin S. Fowler, W. A. Wheatley, Jas. T. Dixon, Harry L. Boyd and Josiah Massey. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MISS MARY A. S. ELLIOTT

Miss Mary A. S. Elliott, eldest daughter of the late William and Rosannah Elliott, died in Baltimore on Wednesday. Miss Elliott was the sister of Thomas Ireland Elliott, Esq., a prominent attorney and ex-city official of Baltimore. She was also the sister of Miss Rose Elliott, of Baltimore, an intimate friend of the family of Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., of Chestertown. Funeral services were held from the residence of the deceased's brother 2026 Mount Royal Terrace, yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison W. Vickers attended the funeral.

HENRY VICTOR SMITH.

Henry Victor Smith, son of Mr. Wm. Henry Smith, of near Rolph's wharf, Queen Anne's county, died on Wednesday of typhoid fever, in the 7th year of his age. Funeral services were held at the residence of his parents yesterday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, Rev. D. L. Greenfield officiating. Interment was made in Chester cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. George and Finley Thawley, Paul and Joseph Karl. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Rev. John France, aged 69 years, one of the best known ministers of the Wilmington Conference, died last Thursday afternoon at Wilmington, Del. He had filled many important charges in Delaware and on the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

CHURCH NOTES.

There will be no preaching service at the Chestertown M. E. Church tomorrow (Sunday), the pastor, Rev. E. P. Roberts being in attendance at conference.

Dr. James W. Cain, president of the college, delivered a beautiful address in Christ M. P. Church on Sunday evening on the advantages and needs of the college. The music of the evening was a special feature. Miss Cora B. Evans and Miss Blanche Johnson, of the Cecilian Concert Company, rendered two beautiful selections, one a soprano solo, "The Holy City," and the other a trombone solo, "The Great Beyond." These ladies together with Miss Fallas, entertained the M. E. congregation with sweet music also.

Rev. Warren Burr, pastor of Rock Hall M. E. Church, notified his congregation sometime before leaving for confirence this week, that he would ask for another appointment. This is much to be regretted, as he was not only popular with his people, but has done fine work as a pastor of the church.

Rev. E. P. Roberts left for Conference Tuesday. Dr. Roberts will be transferred to Easton for the next conference year. Dr. Roberts departure from Chestertown is much to be regretted. He is a fine preacher and an earnest worker for the church. He enjoys in no small measure the esteem and respect not only of his own congregation, but of the entire community. During his pastorate in the M. E. Church here he has labored arduously for the best interest of the church, and he will leave here with the esteem of his people. He will make a most acceptable supply for any charge.

GAME LAW.

The following game law for Kent county has been sent to Annapolis from this county, for passage by the Legislature:

Sec. 1—Be it enacted by the General Assemby of Maryland, that Sections 35, 37 and 47 of the Code of Public Local Laws title, "Kent county" subtitle "Birds and Game" be and the same are hereby repealed and the following be and they are hereby enacted in lieu thereof, to be Sections 35, 37 and 47 and the additional Sections, 37A and 48 of said Article 15 of the Code of Public Local Laws title "Kent county" subtitle, "Birds and Game."

Sec. 35—It shall be unlawful for any person to shoot, trap, kill, injure, pursue or hunt any bird, rabbit or squirrel within the limits of Kent county or to unnecessarily disturb or destroy the nests and eggs of any birds within the limits of said county; provided, that partridges, quail, bob-whites, woodcocks and robins may be hunted and killed between the 15th day of November and the 24th day of December in each year; rabbits may be hunted, killed and trapped between the 15th day of November and the 24th day of December in each year; that doves, plovers and wild pigeons may be hunted and killed between the first day of August and the 24th day of December in each year; that squirrels may be hunted, killed and trapped between the first day of October and the 24th day of December in each year; that snipe may be hunted and killed between the 15th day of March and the first day of June in each year; that reed birds, rail birds and ortolans may be hunted and killed between the first day of September and the first day of November in each year; that wild ducks and water fowl may be shot at and killed between the first day of November and the first day of May in each year. Any person who shall shoot, trap, kill, injure, pursue or hunt any bird, duck, rabbit or squirrel, or who shall unnecessarily disturb or destroy any birds' nest and eggs in violation of this section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof by any justice of the Peace for Kent county, shall forfeit and pay such justice of the peace trying the case, a fine of $10 for each bird, duck, rabbit or squirrel by him shot, trapped, killed, injured, pursued or hunted, and for each bird's nest and eggs unnecessarily disturbed or destroyed by him, with cost of prosecution.

Sec. 37:—It shall not be lawful for any person to shoot, trap, kill, injure, pursue or hunt any bird, duck, rabbit or squirrel, at any time within the limits of said county, without first having obtained from the Clerk of the Circuit Court of said county, a license allowing the person named therein to hunt and shoot in said county. Before issuing any such license to any person the clerk of said court shall require him if a resident of said county, to pay for said license the sum of one dollar, for the use of the Game Wardens of Kent county, and the sum of twenty-five cents as a fee to said clerk for the issuing of said license, and if the applicant be a non-resident of Kent county the clerk of said court shall require him to pay for said license the sum of five dollars for the use of the said Game Wardens of Kent county, and the sum of fifty cents as a fee to the said clerk for issuing said license, and shall require the applicant to make oath that he will not violate any provision of this act, if such license be granted to him; such license shall be for one year from its date, shall not be transferable and shall name the birds and other game which may be hunted under it, and the times at which the same may be hunted in accordance with the provisions of Section 35 of this Act. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof by any justice of the peace for Kent county, shall forfeit and pay to the Justice of the Peace trying the case a fine of not less than five dollars and not more than fifty dollars for each offense and cost of prosecution. And the gun of any person arrested for violating this section shall be taken by the officer making such arrest and retained by him until the determination of his trial and until the fines and costs are paid in the event of his being convicted.

Sec. 37 A—The license fees collected by the clerk of the court, except that portion of the license to which he is entitled by the preceeding sections, shall be by him paid to the treasurer of the Game Wardens of Kent county on the thirty-first day of December in each year.

Sec 47—It shall not be lawful for any person to shoot at or shoot any ducks or water fowl within the limits of Kent county from any vessel, boat or carft of any kind except from a tender of a licensed sink-box; any owner of boat permitting the violation of the provisions of sthi section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof by any Justice of the Peace of Kent county shall forfeit and pay to the justice of peace trying the case a fine of not less than five dollars and not more than fifty dollars for each offence and the costs of prosecution.

Sec. 48—It shall not be lawful for any person to shoot at or shoot any bird, duck, waterfowl, of squirrel between one hour after sun-down and one hour before sun rise at any time in the year; and any person violating the provision of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof by any Justice of the Peace of Kent county shall forfeit and pay to the Justice of the Peace trying the case a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars for each offence and the costs of prosecution.

Sec. 48—The provisions of this act, shall not apply to English sparrows, bull bats, black birds, crows and hawks.

*†*The Sassafras River line will begin their Spring schedule March 22nd., as will be seen by add. in this paper. Leaving Kent shore Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, returning next day.

SENATOR-ELECT RAYNER NOTIFIED.

Committee Waits on him at the Hotel Belvedere.

Hon. Isidor Rayner was on Monday night officially notified of his election as United States Senator. The notification took place in the private parlors of the Hotel Belvedere, where Mr. Rayner has apartments this winter.

The committee, which had been appointed by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Delegates, was composed of Senators John Gill, Jr., of Baltimore city; Thomas Robinson, of Harford county; William F. Applegarth, of Dorchester county; David J. Lewis, of Allegany county; Robert B. Dixon, of Talbott county, and Delegates Edmund L. Amiss, of Montgomery county; J. Charles Linthicum, of Baltimore city; Richard S. Hill, of Prince George's county, H. A. Bosse, of Baltimore city; William Collins, of Talbot county; John Green, of Baltimore county; Edward E. Goslin, of Caroline county; Samuel K. Dennis, of Worcester county, and Benjamin Mitchell, Jr., of Washington county. In addition, those present included Messrs. William B. Rayner, son of the Senator-elect; Harry Welles Rusk, chairman of the City Democratic Committee, and John J. Mahon. During the evening a few of Mr. Rayner's friends dropped in to congratulate him and wish him success.

Senator John Gill, of Baltimore city, delivered the speech of notification, on behalf of the Senate and Delegate Bosse on behalf of the House. The Senator-elect entertained the delegation and friends at an informal dinner in the private dining parlors of the Belvedere, and to the speeches of notification Mr. Rayner made the following eloquent response:

"I suppose, my friends, it is proper for me to inform you that I accept the office to which you have notified me that I have been elected. Senator Gill, who was my parlimentary leader in the contest, will testify that I told him upon several occasions that I would accept the honor if the election resulted in my favor. He never entertained any serious doubt upon the subject himself, and I do not think anyone else did who participated with us in the battle that raged for three successive weeks at Annapolis. Now that it is over we can congratulate ourselves that it has left no heartburnings around the camp-fires of the party.

"I shall never forget, so long as there is a spark of gratitude in my bosom, the loyalty and the heroism of the men who clung to me with unselfish sacrifice through the weary days of this arduous struggle, and at the same time I have no hesitation in expressing my sincere admiration and respect for the men who were arrayed against me, and with equal loyalty supported the cause of my opponents. It is all over now, we are all friends just in the same way as if nothing had ever happened between us, and I assure you that I do not harbor the slightest feeling of unkindness or resentment against a single follower of the fortunes of my adversaries.

"I want to represent in the Senate the whole Democratic party of Maryland and not throw the firebrands of discord into the citadel of Democracy. My contest was among the people, and, recognizing no master except the people, I feel that as their public servant I am under contract with them to execute their wishes and I hope not to be recreant to this trust and to see to it that not a line or word of that contract shall be violated.

"Whenever it comes within my province it shall become my ambition in the Senate to uphold and vindicate the principles of constitutional Democracy, and all that I hope for is that whatever services I may render will receive the commendation of a State that I shall take pride in representing and of a people to whom I am tied by every bond of loyalty and affection that a man can feel."
