Health of Cattle.

Mix, occasionally, one part of salt with four, five or six parts of wood ashes, and give the mixture to different kinds of stock summer and winter. It promotes their appetite, and tends to keep them in a healthy condition. It is said to be good against bots in horses, murrain in cattle, and rot in sheep.

Horseradish root is valuable for cattle. It creates an appetitite, and is good for various diseases. Some give it to an animal that is unwell. It is good for oxen troubled with the heat. If animals will not eat it voluntarily, cut it up fine and mix it with potatoes or meal.

Feed all animals regularly. They not only look for their food at the usual time, but the stomach indicates the want at the stated period. Therefore feed morning, noon, and evening, as near the same time as possible.

Guard against the wide and injurious extremes of satiating with excess and starving with want. Food should be of a suitable quality, and proportioned to the growth and fattening of animals to their production in poung and milk, and to their labor or exercise. Animals that labor need far more food, and that which is more nutritious, than those that are idle.

Guard all descriptions of stock again t cold and exposure, especially against cold storms of rain, sleet, and damp snow and against lying out on the cold ground in cold nights, in the spring and fall.

In a dry time, see that animals have a good supply of pure water. When the fountains are low, they drink the drainings of fountains, streams, and passages of water, which are unwholesome.

If barns and stables are very tight and warm, ventilate in mild weather, even in winter.

In feeding animals on apples or roots, begin with a small quantity and gradually increase it. It would be better to have all changes in food made gradually, when there is a material diff rence in the nature of the food; as from hay to grass, and the reverse; from much fodder to much grain, and the reverse

CURE FOR A BELLOWSED HORSE.

Some few weeks since, being overtaken by a severe thunder storm od my way way home, I took refuge under a shelter where were assembled several gentlemen from the same cause. One of the gentlemen thus accosted me: "Why do you not cure your horse or the bellows?"

"For the very reason that I cannot," I replied.

"Well, stranger," said he, "when I am at home, I cure all such cases, and warrant them, at ten dollars a head; but as I am a long way from home, and your horse is a valuable one, I will tell you how you can cure him effectually in a few days. In the first place, says he, "give your horse salt in his water for three mornings in succession; after that, pound up a piece of blue stone about the size of a chinquepin, and mix it with wet meal; give him the same for ten consecutive mornings, feeding him rather lightly for those ten days; and if he is not well at the end of the ten days, I will give you my head.

I have tried the remedy, and it has wrought a perfect cure; and I now give it to the readers of the Enquirer, that they may save their ten dollars too.—Columbus Enquirer.

QUANTITY OF AMONIA IN BONES.

There is about 33 per cent. of animal matter in fresh, dry bones, consisting principally of gelatine with some fatty matter. Gelatine yields nearly 17 per cent. of nitrogen. We shall thus find, after all deductions, from three to four or five pounds of ammonia, slowly evolved by decomposition, for every bushel of bones we put upon the soil. This accounts, in part for the valuable effects from the application of bones.

When bones are first burned, only a minute portion of ammonia will be added to the soil from their application, the nitrogen and hydrogen forming it being exceedingly volatile, and both being driven off in their calcination.—American Agriculturist.

MATERIALS FOR MANURE.

Employ a team and hand during winter in the collection of materials, and in forming compost heaps. Labor thus bestowed this season will bring you back principal, with compound interest, next year. There are material enough on and around your place, to make enough manure to go over your entire spring crops. Then why should you permit them to go to waste?—Say not, that you cannot spare a hand; for such employment would put more money in your purse, than any thing else you could put him to, as it would enable you to make two barrels of corn next season where you make but one now.—Believe us when we tell you that the making of manure heaps should be the first duty, the first object of every farmer.

Am. Farmer.

☞Here is a good receipt for making strong paste for paper: To two large spoonsful of fine flour, put as much pounded rosin as will lie on a shilling; mix with as much strong beer as will make it of fine consistence, and boil half an hour.—Let it be cold before using.

DR. SWAYNE'S
Celebrated Family Medicines

DR. SWAYNE'S
COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY

The Original and Genuine Preparation!

THE MOST COMMON SAYING

Is that I would not give one bottle of Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry for half a dozen of any other preparations. I have tried all the popular ones, but this stands unrivalled for the cure of the following diseases: Influenza, Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Spitting of Blood, Palpitation of the Heart, Whooping Cough, Ticklling or Rising Sensation in the Throat, Asthma, or a Weakness of the Nervous System, or impaired constitution from any cause, and to prevent persons from falling into a decline, this medicine has not its qual. And when too much calomel or cuinine has been used, this medicine will prevent its evil effects on the system, and pepair the billiary functions.

TESTIMONIALS WILL NEVER CEAE

REMARKABLE CURE OF CONSUMPTION.

Abraham Hunsicker, 2 miles from Skippenville, contracted a severe cold, which settled upon his Lungs attended with violent coughing, great difficulty of breathing, an abscess formed in his lungs, and made its way through the side, and discharge large quantities of pus, externally. This mournful state of things continued for a long time, until making use of Dr Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, which performed a perfect cure.

Have you the Asthma, Liver Complaint or Bronchitis? If so give this medicine a trial. It seldom fails to cure.

VERY IMPORTANT CAUTION.

Be very particular to inquire for Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, as some unprincipaled individuals have stolen the name of Wild Cherry, thinking to borrow a reputation from the already established. Remember, the genuine is put in square bottles, covered with a beautiful wrapper, (steel engraving,) with the portrait of DR. SWAPNE thereon, also his signature; a others are positively ficticious and counterfeit

SWAYNE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE.

"A safe and effectual remedy for Worms, Dyspepsia, Cholera Morbus, sickly or Adults, and the most useful Family Medicine ever offered to the public."

EXTRACT OF A LETTER TO DR SWAYNE,

Dated, Andersontown, Indiana.

A man purchased a bottle of your Vermifuge the other day for his child, and by its use discharged sixty-three of the largest worms he had ever seen. It is somewhat difficult to get the people to try it, as they have been so often gulled by nauseous and worthless worm medicines. Yours being so very pleasant to the taste, at the same time effectual, I shall be able to dispose of a large quantity. Respectfully, yours.

TOWNSEND SHARP, P. M.

BEWARE OF MISTAKES! Remember, Dr. Swayne's Vermifuge is now put up in square bottles, (having recently been changed) covered with a beautiful steel engraving wrapper, with the portrait of Dr. Swayne thereon. Bear this in mind, and be not deceived.

See that the name is spelt correctly.—SWAYNE

DR. MARTIN'S
Syrup of Wild Cherry.

The Wild Cherry and Sarsaparilla, which are the basis of this preparation, have been long known and celebrated in Consumption and Scrofula, Coughs, Colds, Spitting of Blood, Asthma, &c. This remedy increases rather than impairs the appetite, and promotes in a remarkable degree "functions of nutrition." This is not surprising, when we consider that its peculiar properties are to rouse the morbid action of the absorbent vessel, and the nervous and muscular system, while at the same time it diminishes the action of the blood vessels. It is surprising what a wonderful effect this remedy will frequently produce even in the most aggravated and advanced stages of Scrofulous and Chronic Pulmonary Diseases. It seems to pervade the whole structure of the Chest, and to soften those concrete tubercular masses formed in the Lungs, and bringing them down to the same state of action with the rest of the system, by which health is promoted and sustained. It also differs from most other remedies in being remarkably pleasant, and in not having any of those heating, stupefying or disgusting properties, which are found in most other preparations of the Wild Cherry and Sarsaparilla.

Read the following from a highly respectable gentleman in Shenandoah county, Va

NEW MARKET, May 9th, 1849.

"Dr. Martin—Dear Sir: For fifteen or twenty years I have been much troubled with a violent cough and difficulty of breathing. I have tried many things, but all with no benefit, till I met with your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, at Messrs. A. Henkle & Son's store. At the instance of your friend, Mr. Noah J. Hensel, I was induced to take a bottle of the Syrup, and finding so much relief I continued to use it, and now think I am entirely relieved.

MARTIN and WHITELEY'S National Tonic

There are no diseases so generally prevalent in this county as Ague, Fever and Dyspepsia, in the summer and fall months. The effect of the Ague and Fever on the system is such as to leave the Stomach, Liver and Spleen much deranged from which Dyspepsia generally arises, though Dyspepsia is more generally the result of overloading the stomach, or indulging in high seasoned food. To find out a cure for those distressing diseases has been our special study for many years, and now think, by the aid of Chemical science, we have effected that object. Read the following:—

MILLINGTON, Kent co.,

Dr. Martin—Dear Sir: I have tried your N Tonic for the cure of Ague and Fever, and so far heard of its failing in any one instance. Three actually cured my own Child, and the like quantity cured the Child of Mr. James H. Fennington, Woodford, whom you know as carrying Clocks the Peninsula, was cured by the use of a small Bottle only cost 50 cents.

Yours respectfully,
R. S. ROLP, M. D.

DR. MARTIN'S UNIVERSAL PURGING PILLS.

A remedy for all seasons, and safe at all times.—The most superficial observer is aware that one great cause of disease is Costiveness, and that by the timely taking of a Purgative, the system is often restored to its accustomed energy. By such a course the lives of hundreds are saved who otherwise have fallen victims to disease. These Pills speedily remove all matters contained in the bowels, and excite the Biliney functions to a healthy action. We think we are doing a public good in offering these pills to the Public, especially as the press is teeming with the recommendation of Purgative pills, which have been gotten up by men who know nothing of the effects of medicines on the human system, thereby endangering the live thousands who are daily using them—See the Pamphlets and the certificates, among them those from medical men of standing.

ALSO, DR. SWAYNE'S VERMIFUGE.

This is a most valuable medicine in all cases of Worms of children, or grown persons. All we ask is give it a trial. It is the prescription of a regular Physician who has had a large experience.

DR. HOOFLAND'S
CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS

PREPARED BY
DR. C. M. JACKSON,
At the German Medicine Store, No. 120. Arch St., Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is unexcelled if equalled, by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skilful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and smaller glands, existing the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organ, they are withal, safe, certain and pleasant.

READ and be CONVINCED.

From the Boston Bee.

The editor said, Dec 22d—"Dr. Hoofalands Celebrated German Bitters for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, is deservedly one of the most popular medicines of the day. These bitters have been used by thousands, and a friend at our elbow says he has himself received an effectual and permanent cure of Liver Complaint from the use of these Bitters, the patient constantly gains strength and vigor—a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in taste and smell, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stomachs with safety, under any circumstances. We are speaking from experience and to the afflicted we advise their use."

Scott's Weekly, one of the best Literary papers published, said Aug. 25:

"Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the faculty as an article of much efficacy in cases of female weakness. As such is the case, we would advise all mothers to obtain a bottle and thus save themselves much sickness. Persons of debilitated constitutions will find these Bitters advantageous to their health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon the weak system."

MORE EVIDENCE.

The Philadelphia Saturday Sazette, the best family newspaper published in the United States, the editor says of

DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

"It is seldom we recommend what are termed patent medicines to the confidence and patronage of our readers; and, therefore, when we recommend Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, we wish it to be distinctly understood that we are not speaking of the nostrums of the day, that are noised about for a brief period and then forgotten after they have done their guilty race of mischief, but of a medicine long established, universally prized, and which has met the hearty approval of the faculty itself."

Evidence upon evidence has been received (like the foregoing) from all sections of the Union, the last three years, and the strangest testimony in its favor is that there is more of it used in the practice of the regular physicians of Philadelphia than all other nostrums combined, a fact that can easily be established, and fully proving that a scientific preparation will meet with their quiet approval when presented even in this form.

That this medicine will cure Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, and no one can doubt, after using it as directed. It acts specifically upon the stomach and liver—it is perferable to calomel in all bilious diseases—the effect is immediate. They can be administered to female or infant with safety and reliable benefit, at any time
