PROCLAMATION.

State of Maryland to Wit:

WHEREAS, pursuant to the provisions of an Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the December session thereof, in the year of Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, entitled, "An act to provide for the taking of the sense of the people upon the expediency of calling a Convention to frame a New Constitution and Form of Government for this State; and to provide for the election of Delegates to such Convention," &c, delegates were elected, who assembled in Convention at the city of Annapolis, on the first Monday of November, in the year eighteen hundred and fifty; AND WHEREAS, after much deliberation, the said Convention on the thirteeth day of May, in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-one, did frame a Declaration of Rights and a Constitution and Form of Government, which being properly attested by the proper officers of said Convention, was published, and submitted to the people of Maryland for their consideration; AND WHEREAS, pursuant to the provision of the Act of Assembly aforesaid, an election was held on fourth day of June instant, in the several counties of this State and the city of Baltimore, to ascertain the will of the people as to the adoption or rejection of the said Constitution and Form of Government; AND WHEREAS, the returns of the number of ballots cast at the said election for and against the said New Constitution and Form of Government, and blank ballots have been examined and accurately counted by me, and it appears that a majority of the legal voters of this State are in favor of the adoption of the said Constitution and Form of Government.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ENOCH LOUIS LOWE, Governor of the State of Maryland, in pursuance of the authority vested in me by and in obedience to the requirements of the Act of Assembly aforesaid, do by this, my Proclamation, declare and make known, That the said Constitution and Form of Government so framed as aforesaid by the Convention of Delegates aforesaid, has been adopted by a majority of the legal voters of this State, who voted on the fourth day of June instant, as aforesaid, and that in pursuance and by virtue of the tenth section of the tenth article of the said Constitution, the said Constitution and Form of Government shall go into operation on the fourth day of July next, and on and after said day shall supersede the present Constitution of this State.

Given under my hand and Seal of the State of Maryland, at the City of Annapolis, on this twenty-eight day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one.
