STABLER'S
DIARRHŒA CORDIAL

A pleasant Mixture, composed in agreement with the rules of Pharmacy, of the most active agents, long known and celebrated for their peculiar efficacy in curing DIARRHŒA, and similar affections of the system. In its action, it ALLAYS NAUSEA and induces a healthy action of the LIVER, removing the cause at the same time it cures the disease.

Opinion of Dr. JOHN ADDISON, Physician to the Baltimore Southern Dispensary.

Having a trial of your "Diarrhœa Cordial" and being also acquainted with the ingredients of which it is composed, it gives much pleasure in adding my testimony to that of others in favor of its EXTRAORDINARY EFFICACY in the cure of "Diarrhœa and Summer Complaints in children and adults."

With respect, &c.,
JOHN ADDISON, M. D.

Price 50 cts. per Bottle.

STABLER'S ANODYNE CHERRY EXPECTORANT

is confidently recommended to invalids, as UNSURPASSED by any known preparation for the cure of COUGHS, HOARSENESS, and other forms of common colds; BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, CROUP, CONSUMPTION in an early stage, and for the RELIEF of the Patient even in advanced stages of that Fatal Disease.

It combines, in a scientific manner, remedies of long established value, with others of more recent discovery, and besides its healing and tonic qualities, acts, through the skin gently, and with great efficacy, upon the liver of the class of diseases.

A number of the most respectable Physicians, to whom we have communicated a knowledge of the constituents of these medicines, have been pleased to favor us with their opinions, (some of them in writing,) that they are the best remedies they have been acquainted with for the cure of the diseases for which they are recommended.

OPINION OF DR. SAMUEL B. MARTIN,
One of the most experienced of the faculty in this city, and long celebrated for success in practice:

GENTLEMEN—I have carefully examined the components of your Diarrhœa Cordial, as well as your Anodyne Cherry Expectorant, and find them form valuable compounds, the doses are safe and consistent with medical practice, and I do not hesitate to recommend them.
Yours truly, &c. S. B. MARTIN, M. D.
Baltimore, June, 1852.

Certificate from Prof. JOHN ADDISON, Physician to the Baltimore Southern Dispensary.

HAVING been made acquainted with the ingredients and into the composition of your "Anodyne Expectorant," and having also made trial of its virtues, I have no hesitation in recommending it to the notice and patronage of the public, as a most valuable medicine in the treatment of the various diseases for which it is intended. JOHN ADDISON, M. D.

We beg leave, as convincing evidence of the highly valuable properties of the above named medicines, to refer to the annexed complimentary notice from six sen. of the most respectable Apothecaries and Pharmacists in the city of Baltimore, whom we have appointed our agents, and who keep the several articles for sale.

The subscribers, Apothecaries and Pharmaceutists in the city of Baltimore, are satisfied that the preparations of Stabler's Anodyne Cherry Expectorant" and Stabler's Diarrhœa Cordial," are medicines of great value and very efficient in the relief and cure of the diseases for which they are recommended; they bear the evidence of skill and care in their preparation in a style pleasing, and we take pleasure in recommending them to our customers.

STABLER'S
DR. CHAPMAN'S WORM MIXTURE.

Prepared from a Receipt invented by DR. JOHN CHAPMAN, a member of the Royal College of Surgeons of London. A Remedy more efficient than this is not known.

Many (perhaps one-half) of the diseases from which children suffer are occasioned by the presence of Worms in the system; and neglected, give rise to the most uncomfortable and irritating feelings, violent pains, sickness at the stomach, emaciation and frequently to vomiting.

This medicine is an efficient, safe and pleasant remedy for their extermination; it contains all the virtues of the most approved vermifuge, and although it has been used by many thousands, and has been before the public for several years, it has never been known to fail in effecting a complete cure.

Extract from a letter received from S. S. FORTE, M. D., member of the Royal College of Surgeons London

S. H. STABLER & Co. October 20th, 1851.
Gentlemen,—I some time last year, by accident, got hold of a few bottles of your Stabler's Dr. Chapman's Worm Mixture and used it in my practice with much equalled success as induced me to send for 50 dozen. * * * I last month ordered, through the same gentleman, 100 dozen. * * * You can ship me 50 more every three months from date of receipt of this, and draw for the amount, &c., &c.

Numerous certificates of cures of the most aggravated cases of disease could be readily appended hereto, but we feel assured that they would add but little to the strong and respectable evidence here given by persons competent to judge of the merits of these remedial agents.

COME, LET US REASON TOGETHER
ORAL TESTIMONY.

THOUSANDS feel it a duty to talk to their afflicted friends of the benefit derived from HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE.—From day to day we have given the certificates of cures performed on our best known citizens, and still we have a perfect avalanche of letters pouring upon us, all giving a weight of testimony that must convince the most skeptical. All are invited to call and read for themselves. The letter below is from one of the first mercantile firms. To those who know them, it must carry conviction, and induce many sufferers to give this Tincture a trial:

PORT ROYAL, VA. July 27, 1853.

Messrs Mortimer and Mowbray: Gents: We have again to send an order for more of our truly wonderful Hampton's Vegetable Tincture. Since it was first tried it has sold without an effort, and we have not seen the first person who has not been greatly benefitted by its use. A gentleman of our neighborhood was induced to try the "Tincture" for a violent palpitation of the heart. He had suffered so much from it that he said he had prayed for death. He had taken but three doses when he assured us he would not take five hundred dollars for the benefit he had derived, and that he should never cease to remember us with gratitude for calling his attention to so valuable a medicine.

Yours, truly, GRAY & PENDLETON.

The Whole World, Attention!—Hear him, ye sick and do likewise!!

BALTIMORE, Feb. 9, '52.

Messrs Mortimer & Mowbray: Gentlemen; It is with peculiar pleasure that I am able to attest to the general healing and curative powers of Dr. Hampton's Vegetable Tincture. Some time during last November I was taken with a very bad and serious cough. I was advised to take Cod-Liver Oil, and did so; but getting no better, I was induced to try your Tincture. I got one bottle, and before I had used it all my cough left me. Permit me also to state that, for the last fifteen years, I have suffered very much from Acute Rheumatism and Vertigo, confining me at times to my bed.—I am truly convinced that I owe my present good health to the use of the Tincture, and a kind Providence.

You are, my friends, at liberty to use this as you may think proper; and believe me, yours very respectfully,

G. DUNN.

N. B.—I can be seen at any time at the Mayor's office. G. D.

THE ALMOST MIRACULOUS CURES made by Hampton's Vegetable Tincture on our most respectable citizens—men well known and tried—we challenge the world to show anything on record in medicine to equal it. Many hundreds who have felt its healing powers bear the same testimony.

BALTIMORE, July 6, 1852.

Messrs Mortimer & Mowbray: Gents: Last September I was attacked with erysipelas, from which a dreadful ulcer formed on my right leg. Getting better of this, last November I took a deep cold, which led to what my physician told me was bilious pleurisy, which left me with a constant, deeply seated, and painful cough, having up from my lungs a thick matter; I became much emaciated, growing weaker every day, and keeping my bed the greater part of the time.—My friends thought I had the consumption, and at times I was also of the same opinion. At this stage of my disease, after having tried many and various remedies, without success, a friend advised me to try Dr. HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE, and procured me a bottle, which I now pronounce the greatest medicine I ever took. Before I had taken half the contents of one bottle I felt much improved; and now, having taken but two bottles, my cough and pains have entirely left me, and I am enabled to attend to business. I can truly say that, with the blessing of God, I have been restored to the health I now enjoy by the use of this most invaluable medicine.

Yours,
WESLEY ROCK.

Truth stranger than Fiction!—None need despair!—A Lady's Testimony after thirty-eight years of suffering.

Were there not real virtue in this wonderful medicine, could it perform the astonishing cures made by it?

NORTHAMPTON Co., April 13, 1852.

Messrs Tyler & Alcair: I have been afflicted with Rheumatism, at times, from my twelfth year; I will be fifty years of age the 18th of this month; the attacks were at times so severe as to render me helpless; I have tried various remedies to very little effect. Last October I was attacked in my shoulders, sides, back, and hips; I could not rest, day or night; I could not move any part of my body without crying with pain; at this time I also tried many remedies, internal and external, without receiving any relief; I was at last advised to HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE; before I had taken one bottle of which I felt much better, and as I continued taking it I felt strength coming into my back and limbs, and my stomach strengthened and revived every way; I have taken five bottles, and am much better than I ever expected to be. I intend to use it whenever I need it, and would recommend it to the afflicted, believing it unequaled.

Yours,
ELIZABETH BAGWELL.

REV. VERNON ESKRIDGE, U. S. N.

PORTSMOUTH, (Va.) Aug. 18, 1852.

Mr. J. E. Boush—Dear Sir; While I am in general opposed to Patent Medicines, candor compels me to state that I have great confidence in the virtues of Hampton's Vegetable Tincture. For several months past I have used it in my family, and in Dyspepsia, loss of appetite, Dizziness and general debility, with entire success. So far as my experience extends, therefor, I take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted as a safe and efficient remedy.

I am, respectfully, yours,
VERNON ESKRIDGE,
Chaplain in the U. S. Navy.

HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE, by its mild action on the Stomach, Liver, and the Kidneys, will cure Dyspepsia, Cough, asthma, Bronchial and Lung affections; Pains in the Back, Side, and Breast, Consumption, Scrofula, Rhumatism Gout, Neuralgia, Fistula, Piles, Bowel Complaints, Worms, Nervous Debilits—with all diseases arising from impure blood, and is the greatest Female Medicine ever known.

For Cholera Morbus, Cholic, Diarrhœa and all diseases incident to the bowels in the summer season, it has no equal.

We ask the afflicted to call on those having this wonderful article for sale and get pamphlets gratis.

James H. Weaks, and others, } In the Circuit Court vs } for Kent county, as
Mary Jackson, & } a Court of Equity.
Alfred E. Weaks. }

THE object of the Bill filed in this Court is to obtain a Deed for the sale of the Real Estate of Matthew Weaks, late of Kent county deceased for the purpose of partition.

The bill states that the said Matthew Weaks hath departed this life intestate seized and possessed of an undivided half part of a house and lot or parcel of land situated in Kent county, leaving James H. Weaks, a brother, James H. Weaks, a nephew, Margaret Holland, a sister, Mary Jackson, a sister, and Alfred E. Weaks, a nephew, his heirs at law. That the said Mary Jackson and Alfred E. Weaks have removed beyond the limits of Maryland, and that the land is incapable of division.

It is therefore ordered and decreed, that the complainants, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted once a week in some newspaper published in Kent county, for one month, before the 10th day of October, 1852, give notice to the said absent defendants of the object and substance of this Bill, and warn them to be and appear in this court, in person or by solicitor, on or before the 10th day of January next, to answer the premises, and shew cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

POETRY.

Written for 'The Kent News.'

IANTHE;

BY "GLENALLAN," OF KENT.

In childhood's hours I loved but thee
With fond Devotion's flame,
Childhood hath pass'd and still with me
Its freshness glows the same:
Yet O! what grievous woe is mine
To see Ianthe sweetly shine
And light with love a stranger's way,
While not an errant Love-Beam falls
To chase the gloom from mem'ry's walls,
Or cheer the Heart Decay.

Childhood was passed in dazzling dreams
With thee too fatal prize—
Hopes fled like trembling lights from steams
Like Summer's parting sighs;—
For thus it was,—a stanger came
With noble men, with noble name
Stood proudly with thee side by side—
And I—alas!—I only heard,
But 'twas enough—the simple words,
The handsome stranger's bride.

How often 'tis our lot to gaze
In eyes too sweetly deep—
Upon some fair and spotless face
Where purest thoughts should sleep;
While all the pure seraphic smiles
Are sunlight gildings secret guiles,
To captivate the feeding eye,
While deep within the heaving breast,
Dark thoughts like vipers coiled in rest
In tangled union lie.

That thou hast been my curse—my hell—
I dare not now relate,
Else might this maddening bosom swell
And break with Love and Hate:
But no—I cannot, I could not curse,
E'en tho' thou didst deceive me worse
—And that, indeed, could never be—
For o'er my Soul there hangs a spell
Which makes me still too fondly dwell
On Lore, the Past, ann Thee.

I ask not now if thou art blest
And yet I hope thou art,
That grief may never shade thy breast,
Or veil with care thy heart,
And yet there oft will be an hour
When thou by strange and mystic power
Near memory's mouldering Tomb shall kneel
And think of him, who loved so well—
That thought will be a withering Hell
—Then, woman, thou shall feel.

AIR—'Old Lang Syne'

The Locofocos thought to blow
The Whigs sky-high with gas,
Brought out their giant.* Won't he glow?
And sent for General Cass.
Chorus—Locos awake, prepare to make
Salt river your sweet home,
Bring out your floats, cork up your boats,
November soon will come.

Cass told the Loco's on the spot,
If they had come to hear
Him slander brave old Winfield Scott,
They might just homeward steer.
Chorus—Loco's awake, prepare to make, &c.

Scott is a patriot, brave and true,
Then what a burning shame,
That Locofocos such as you
Should slander his good name.
Chorus—Loco's awake, prepare to make &c.

Their rockets fly right at the sky,
But fall as far below,
As did brave (?) Pierce when he did lie
Ditch stuck in Mexico.
Chorus—Loco's awake, prepare to make, &c.

Now comes brave Douglas to the scratch,
A jolly quarter nag;
His bottom fails at the long stretch,
But then he's good at peg.
Chorus—Loco's awake, prepare to make, &c.

Their giant has great action, too,
First brushing back his hair;
He shakes his threatening fist at you—
Perhaps he saws the air.
Chorus—Loco's awake, prepare to make, &c

He said their Pierce was brave and fierce,
Enough to scare a witch,
And would have licked the Mexicans,
But got caught in their ditch.
Chorus—Loco's awake, prepare to make, &c.

‡ 'Tis passing strange that General Shields,
A hero so renowned,
Should leave his friend in hostile fields,
Swamp'd in their marshy ground.
Chorus—Loco's awake, prepare to make, &c.

If some guerilla, wind and fierce,
With lasso and with lance,
In that same ditch had found brave Pierce,
Slim would have been his chance!
Chorus—Loco's awake, prepare to make, &c.

MISCELLANEOUS.

A Dashing Young Widow.

Of all known things there is nothing so captivating as a blooming young widow—nothing so inviting, nothing so lovable. The following from the Lawrenceburg Register is a case in point. While in Arkansas, December last, we saw and conversed with a young and beautiful widow, only 27 years old, who had followed to the grave the bodies of her four husbands. It was at a country party, in that wild region we first saw her. We liked her appearance and obtained an introduction. She was all life and animation. The pleasure of the dance was her delight, and she appeared the "gayest of the gay." We spent half an hour in conversation with this Arkansas belle. We talked of the country, wild game, different kinds of life, single and matrimonial &c., about which she spoke well and very correctly. In a soothing tone of voice, (for we felt interested in this dazzling beauty) we inquired "Madam, how long has your last husband been dead?" 'Ten days, yesterday,' replied the afflicted widow. 'Good heavens!' thought we, 'a husband dead only ten days and his widow one of the gayest dancers at a ball. We were so much astonished that we left her without ceremony. On inquiry, next morning, we found out what she had told us was true. Her husband No. 4 for several years, had represented his county in the Legislature, and was highly esteemed, not as a talented legislator, but as a clever, jolly kind of a man. The man this wild woods belle entraps for No. 5, may the gods foreend.

A Gal as is a Gal.

A correspondent of the Boston Journal, traveling in New Hampshire, thus describes a miss:—

"Rosina Delight Richardson, of East Alstead, Cheshire county, N. H., is 19 years of age, 5 feet 3¼ inches in height, measures 5 feet 4½ inches around the waist, 6 feet 2 inches around the hips, 22 inches around the arm above the elbow, 14 inches around the arm below the elbow, and two feet 10 inches in a straight line across the shoulders. At birth she weighed 6 pounds, at 5 years, 118 lbs; at 10 years, 268 lbs; at 15 years, 365 lbs; and now, at 19 years of age, she weighs 478 lbs. On estimating the quantity of cloth in her clothing when dressed for a ride on a winter's day, we found it to contain 98½ yards of ¾ wide cloth. She can knit, sew, weave, make a shirt, or a batch of bread as a good singer, and plays the piano with taste and skill—is considered one of the best scholars in the town where she resides—is courteous and affable, and lively in conversation."

THE OPERATIONS OF LYNCH LAW IN CALIFORNIA.—A correspondent from Mariposa furnishes the Sacramento Journal with the following melancholy and hasty action of Judge Lynch. The lives of all the rogues in the land would not compensate for the wrongs done the unfortunate person mentioned in the communication:

Carrico, a young man from some of the western States, was found guilty of robbing the house of Moore & Co., of the sum of $900. The robbery committed on Sherlock's creek, seven or eight miles from this port, and suspicion at the time being directed to an old man, named Johnson, he was arrested by the mob and hanged by the neck until he became insensible, and whipped upon the bare back in the most cruel manner; but all this failing to extort from him a confession of the theft, Mr. Carrico, who was the leader of the mob, proposed to place his bleeding and lacerated body upon hot embers, and to extract the nails of his fingers and toes with a pair of bullet-moulds; but this diabolical proposition meeting with no support, the poor old man, more dead than alive, was set at liberty. A few days thereafter, Carrico left the neighborhood, under rather suspicious circumstances, and being followed by an officer and arrested a part of the gold dust, the identity of which he had endeavored to destroy by beating it up, was found upon him; which circumstance, connected with others, led to his conviction and sentence to five years in the State prison.
