FOR PRESIDENT:

HON. ARTHUR P. GORMAN,

OF MARYLAND.

THE TAX RATE.

The Board of County Commissioners on Tuesday declared a tax rate for the year 1904 of $1.30 on the $100, which is 5 cents less than the rate of last year. In declaring this rate the Commissioners have provided for all of the expenses for the fiscal year, up to June 1st, (at which date they closed the levy), including the appropriation of $20-000 for public schools, as well as a contingent fund for the same of $2,000. The State tax as fixed by law is 22½ cents on the $100. This added to $1.30 will make a total tax of $1.52½ on the $100 as the total tax for 1904, ½ of a cent higher than the rate for 1903. This is due to the increase in the State tax. The taxable basis of the county is as follows:—$7,590,653 real estate and personal; $251,356 corporations—a total of $7,842,009.

IN THE TERRIBLE DISASTER of the New York excursion steamer, Gen. Slocum, last week, several Marylanders made miraculous escapes from a horrible death. Among them were Mrs. Bushong and one of her children. Mrs. Bushong is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. T. Pitts, of Princess Anne, Md.

IF YOU SHOULD ASK the teachers and pupils in our schools now what is the happiest time in the year to them, they would say, we are quite sure, that now—vacation time—is the most joyous season of the year. Two months of rest and relaxation from the cares and toils of school life is a fitting reward to the noble army of America's educators.

THE FACT that neither Congressman Jackson, nor his alternate, former State Senator James H. Baker, of Kent County, put in an appearance at the Republican National Convention in Chicago this week, has set some of the politicians of that and the Democratic parties to thinking. It would appear from the turn politics have taken on the Eastern Shore, that there is not a surplus of harmony in the Republican ranks, and the Republican nomination for Congress in the First District may go begging.

IT IS SAID THAT LESS enthusiasm has been displayed at the Republican National Convention in Chicago during the week than has been manifested at any similar gathering for many years. This is due of course to the fact that the whole programme was arranged at the White House and that President Roosevelt has deposed from power the former great leaders of the Republican party. This is but another way of saying that the nomination of Roosevelt made contrary to the wishes of some of the shrewdest and oldest leaders in his party, means his overwhelming defeat next fall, provided the Democrats nominate a conservative candidate at St. Louis on July 6th, which most likely they will do. The Republican party is deafeated from the "jump," because Roosevelt is not acceptable to those interests political and financial, which have been so conspicuous in recent Republican victories.

THERE ARE JUST THREE PHASES of the Republican National Convention, its candidates and the platform that will encompass the defeat of the Republican party just as sure as that there will be an election in the fall. They are:

1. The institution by President Roosevelt of a political machine that will bend every effort to give Roosevelt a third term.

2. The insolent intention, by the insertion of a plank in their platform to throttle the people of the South by foisting upon them an iniquitous Force Bill, and thus decreasing southern representation in Congsess and the electorial college.

3. The straddle on the tariff question, the painful silence of the platform upon the wanton extravagance of the present administration, and the overthrow of the present great leaders of the party.

This is the Republican National Convention in a nutshell—the nomination of a candidate for the presidency whom the people of the country and the great leaders of the Republican party distrust, and a platform that means nothing except what the people have had to contend with for the past four years. It means Roosevelt and a third term.

THE PRESENT POLITICAL SITUATION.

Dr. J. H. Hessey's candidacy for the County Treasurership and Mr. William T. Nicholson's candidacy for County Commissioner for 1905 have been announced by their friends. Dr. Hessey lives in the Third and Mr. Nicholson in the Sixth District. Mr. Joseph R. Usilton or Mr. T. Romie Skirven, it is said, will likely be a candidate from the Third district for County Commissioner. Mr. Wm. E. Keyser, of Fairlee, we learn is being spoken of as a candidate for County Treasurer, and Mr. William H. Cooper or Mr. Robert C. Morgan, of the Sixth district, are also spoken of as probable candidates for County Commissioner, while Messrs. Charles D. Wood, Lewis C. Ayres, (the present incumbent), R. Sterling Jones, and T. Romie Strong, it is understood, have been urged by their respective friends to become candidates for County Commissioner.

While the political fix-up for the coming year is being agitated at rather an early date it is thought by many to be wise, as it will give to the voting public an excellent opportunity to become well posted as to the candidates best fitted for the respective offices.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

☞The columns of the TRANSCRIPT are open to the proper discussion of all topics of public interest or importance. Whether the editors agree with the sentiments expressed or not, the people should and may be heard through the TRANSCRIPT's columns—the paper will be the People's Forum from which they may be heard on all subjects—purely personal matter excepted. The Editors are not responsible in any manner for articles that appear in this column.

GENTLEMAN:—There is an item in the Levy List of Queen Anne County upon a subject which should be borne in mind carefully by the people of Kent County.

The County Commissioners for Queen Anne County have levied for the use of their Public Schools for the coming year $29,500. Kent County was delighted when $22,000 was given. There is not so much expended on the roads in Queen Anne County as there is in Kent, but Kent County has fewer roads than Queen Anne county. Which has cost Kent county more, our schools or our political roads, which are almost impassable in winter and in many places are hardly passable at the present time? Many roads have been plowed and randle harrowed and are now in this condition with long unharrowed masses in their middle. If this be doubted ask Mr. Lewis F. Newsome. It has been the daily talk of our people all over the county that so many road-workers are lined up along some of the roads from Eastern Neck Island to Sassafras, that the passing traveller involuntarily thinks of the fact, as he sees the highways so well guarded, that he may be in Russia or some other Empire. He may be justified in thinking that he should cautiously look ahead for some Royal Personage, mistaking our road-workers for the "Soldiers of the Empire," stationed along the roadways to protect the Royal Cavalcade as it comes passing (bumping) along. Perhaps they are there awaiting the passage of our Imperial Board of County Commissoners! Let us have fewer road-menders. Let us haveless money for patehed roads. Let us have more road makers. Let the slogan be less money spent for political purposes for our roads, more money for our schools, better school houses, better paid teachers and everything more comfortable for our school children.

In some parts of the county the schools for years have been unfit for our children to be taught in. Many are so now. The Republicans left them so Let us do the work they should have done. Yours very respectfully,

HOPE H. BARROLL.

OBITUARY.

FRANCIS ADOLPHUS WALLIS.

Francis Adolphus Wallis, formerly of Lankford, this county, died at the home of his daughter Mrs. E. H. Perry, Queentown, Tuesday 21st, at 5.21 P. M., of cerebral hemorrhage, brought on by paralysis. Mr. Wallis was 76 years 3 months and 3 days of age, leaves a widow who was formerly Miss Georgie Wilson, daughter of the late Capt. Geo. Wilson, of lower Kent; 11 children, 4 sons and 7 daughters, most of whom are married, and a sister, Mrs. Frank Schutte, of Washington, D. C., and two brothers, Mr. Robert Wallis, of Winfield, Kansas, and Mr. William Wallis, of Prince George's, also large number of relatives and friends.

A widow, who was Miss Annie Meekins, of Taylor's Island, Md., survives him. Capt. John T. Kirwan, of the steamer Susquehanna, of the Tolchester company, is a brother of the deceased. Capt. Kirwan was a native of Dorchester county, and was the son of Ex-Judge Solomon F. Kirwan, who has reached the patriarchal age of 91 years.

Sued by His Doctor.

"A doctor here has sued me for $12, 50, which I claimed was excessive for a case of cholera morbus," says R. White, of Coachella, Cal. "At the trial he praised his medical skill and medicine. I asked him if it was not Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy he used as I had good reason to believe it was, and he would not say under oath that it was not." No doctor could use a better remedy than this in a case of cholera morbus, it never fails. Sold by M. A. Toulson, druggist, Chestertown, Md.

ELOPED WITH SCHOOL GIRL.

George W. Powell Principal in an Escapade at New Haven.

The daily papers Tuesday published the following account of an elopement which doubtless refers to Mr. George W. Powell, a graduate of Washington College of the class of 1902 and well-known here:

"New Heaven, Ct., June 20.—The climax of the elopement of George Washington Powell, of Princess Anne, Md., a junior at Yale University, with Miss Edith Gunning, daughter of a hotel proprietor of this city, came today when Mr. Gunning announced that he had asked the prosecuting attorney of Westchester county, New York, for a warrant for Powell's arrest on a charge of abduction.

"The pair eloped and went to Port Chester, N. Y., where they were married. Gunning claims his daughter is 15 years old. She is a very pretty girl and a student at the Boardman School here.

"Powell has fled, according to the police, who had been keeping an eye out for him in expectance of a warrant from the Port Chester police.

"Dean Wright, of Yale, said today that Powell left college, telling him he was short of funds and was going to his home, but would return in the fall. Mrs. Powell has returned to her father's home. Owing to her youth, Mr. Gunning says he will take steps to have the marriage annulled."
