THE ST. LOUIS CONVENTION.

(Special Dispatch to the TRANSCRIPT.)

At the hour of going to press the latest dispatches from St. Louis stated that the Convention had adjourned until 8 o'clock, P. M., when platform will be reported. Nomination of Parker to-night probable.

THE FRIENDS OF Mr. Wm. H. Kelley, of the Second District, have announced his candidacy for the nomination for sheriff.

THE JAPS ARE administering so many defeats to the Russians now-a-days that it will be surprising if the Russians do not begin negotiations for peace shortly. It is dangerous to tamper with the affections of the strategic little Jap.

WOULD IT NOT BE A GOOD IDEA if our Town Commissioners would have the town clock repaired and regulated? It is not at all consistent in its striking, and travels a little fast at one time and a litte slow at another. We want to go and come on time. Let's have the clock cleaned and regulated.

MR. GORMAN AND THE PRESIDENCY.

The atitude of Senator Gorman and his recent actions in regard to the nomination for the Presidency have been somewhat discouraging to his friends in Maryland who desired his nomination. For reasons best known to himself he has refused to allow the use of his name before the convention, but we believe that had he come out in the open and announced himself a candidate even on the eve of the convention, he would have developed sufficient strength to have become a most dangerous opponent of Judge Parker, if not the nominee of his party. Our advocacy of Senator Gorman has not been based upon geographical conditions or State pride. We have advocated his nomination because we believed that he is the strongest man the party could nominate and because we believe that without exception he would be most acceptable to all elements of the Democratic party.

But since the refusal of Mr. Gorman to allow his name to be mentioned in connection with the nomination, we are perfectly satisfied with the nomination of Judge Parker or any other conservative man upon a conservative and outspoken platform. We believe the chances for Democratic success in the fall are exceptionally bright, because the people of the country are anxious for the election of a man in whose conservatism and statesmanship they have implicit confidence. We have never doubted the high moral character and mental endowments of Judge Parker, but our fight was for Gorman and we would have been much gratified at his nomination. The ticket nominated at St. Louis will be a strong one, and we are quite confident that, standing upon such a conservative and sensible platform as will be adopted by the Convention, it will receive the hearty endorsement of a reunited Democracy.

EXTRACTS from notable speech delivered at the St. Louis Convention by Hon. John Sharp Williams, temporary Chairman:

"One thing the country can rely upon, the democracy will nominate for President a man trained in the ways of the Constitution, who will not usurp legislative or judical function; who will not recklessly violate international usages even with the weakest nation, no matter how tempting the profit to be reaped by it; who will not keep people guessing about what he is going to do next; it will nominate him upon a platform ignoring dead issues and dealing with every present live issue in tones certain and unmistakable; favoring economy of administration, enforcement of honesty in the public service; a wise and business-like revision and reduction of the tariff by the friends of the masses and of the commonwealth, and not by tariff beneficiaries and their representatives alone; a reduction which shall aim at equality of burdens and equality of opportunities, and whose ultimate object shall be to raise a revenue by taxation to support the Federal government in virility, but in simplicity—an object to be reached in a business-like, conservative and commonsense way, with due regard to existing conditions, and by steps constituting in themselves an object-lesson for their own justification and for the jurisdiction of further reform.

"Above all, a good Democratic administration will ponder and practice the simple precepts of Jefferson's first inaugural address. It is the political "Sermon on the Mount" for Republicans. Gentlemen, it is in the power of no man or party to assure success. It is in the power of the humblest to deserve it. God grant that we may have it. Let us by the character of our platform and the character of our candidate deserve it. Let us erect a standard to which good men may repair with that injunction."

AN UNJUST CRITICISM.

It is extremely unjust to those gentlemen whose names have been mentioned as candidates and those likely to be candidates for office one year hence, to say that the sole end and aim of their living is to enjoy the excitement that may be attached to a legitimate and honorable means to secure a nomination. Everyone of the names that have been mentioned in connection with any office is the name of a gentleman of honorable and honest intention, and if their friends desire to announce them as a candidate thirty months prior to the nomination, it is an evidence that they desire the people to pass upon their qualifications for office, and not a few individuals.

We are aware that this proceedure is somewhat different from the methods employed in years past, when the managers of the party dictated the nominees, but now the representative men in the various districts are accorded the privilege to name the candidates in their respective districts, and we are not surprised that the announcement of the names of several gentlemen by their friends should bring forth such unjust criticism from certain quarters.
