COLLECTOR'S NOTICE.

THE Public are notified that my Books as Collector are now in sufficient readiness to enable me to receive Taxes for the present year. It is as important to those having claims against the county, as it is desirable to me, as a public officer, that public dues should be promptly paid. It is also the the interest of all debtors, that speedy paymet be made, as they not only avoid the tax of interest on their accounts butactually secure a deduction or discount on the State Tax. If paid by the 1st of September, the discount is five per centum—by the first of October, four per centum, and by the first of November, three per centum. No discount after the last period named

The Law is very strict and onerous on the Collector He is subjected to a Tax of 6 per cent. after a certain period and to a larger one afterwards. He is required to make quarterly payments, and is subjected to penalties on all sides for the non performance of duty. Under these circumstances, indulgencies cannot be given or expected. To facilitate the collections, I have procured the services of three gentlemen who will attend to the collections in the several election districts, viz:—John N. McDaniel, Esq., of the first or Lower District—Charles T. Lusby, Esq., for the second or Middle District, and John T. Hurtt, Esq., for the third or Upper District. These gentlemen are invested with full authority to make collections, and to enforce the same by all the power the Law vests in the Collector, without reference to me. I cannot in any any case interfere with their lawful proceedings. They are bound to me for a strict performance of duty, and as I shall hold them to the punctual and faithful discharge that duty. I have armed them with all the power I possess to aid in their fulfillment.

It will be a source of pleasure to me, to find that in no case will coercive measures be necessary, but that full and prompt payments will characterize the collections of the present year.

JAMES MANSFIELD,
Collector Kent Co.

A Valuable Farm

IN MARYLAND AT

PRIVATE SALE.

THE undersigned being remotely situated from his Farm in Kent county, Maryland, offers the same for sale. It lies at the head waters of Still Pond Creek, within 7 miles of Chester Town, the County seat—within 3 miles of Still Pond X Roads, a thriving village—and within one mile and a half of a large public Granary and Wharf, located on the banks of the said creek.

The Farm contains about

nearly—220 acres of which are arable—and the balance well set in wood and timber, such as Hickory, Oak, Pine and Poplar, with a large supply of Cedar and Chesnut Timber, more than sufficient for the use of the farm.

The soil is of red clay and of fair quality, and is susceptible of the highest improvement; the farm also possesses great resources for enriching the land, from two large meadow branches which run parallel to each other on its Eastern and Western boarders, and which furnish water during the entire year to each field. There is also near the house a large Apple Orchard, which yields an abundant supply of fine fruit; and also a sufficient number of choice Peach, Plum and Cherry Trees, standing near the door.

The buildings consist of a large HIP-ROOFED LOG HOUSE, the interior of which is in bad repair, but the exterior has recently been roofed and weather-boarded. It has three rooms above, and two rooms and a very dry cellar below stairs. There is also attached to the house a new frame Kitchen of convenient size—and on the premises, are two corn houses, a smoke house and a stable, with several negroe dwellings on remote parts of the farm.

A delightful spring of water stands near the house, the situation is high, airy and level, and remarkable for its healthiness. Within one-fourth of a mile is a good Grist Mill, the pond of which washes the northern borders of the farm. A Saw Mill also is in operation within two mile of the place. Near the outer gate of the farm there is also a flourishing District School under excellent management; also a Quaker and Methodist Church; and at Still Pond X Roads, about three miles distant, there is a wealthy Methodist Congretion which commands the services of the most talented Miniaters belonging to that denomination of Christians.

The Shrewsbury (Protestant Episcopal) Church may be also reached by a five-mile drive, and the neighborhood is in all respects a good one.

The land has been rented out for nearly twenty years, and has accordingly been much neglected but in the hands of an energetic, practical farmer may be made in a short time the most desirable place in its vicinity.

The Terms of sale will be made easy. Possession will be given on the 1st of January next; and all applications concerning the same can be made to E. E. Miller, Esqr., Georgetown X Roads, Kent Co., Md., to John B. Armstrong, Esq., Chester Town, to Arthur J. Wallis, Urieville, Kent Co., Md., or to the owner,

G. W. P. SMITH,
Snow Hill, Worcester Co., Md.

P. S.—Persons wishing to examine the premises may apply to either of the gentlemen named above, who will take pleasure in showing the same, and in giving the particulars in reference to the terms. G. W. P. S.
