SATURDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1904.

TRED SOFTLY and speak low, for the old year lies a dying.

MR. FRANK I. DUNCAN, editor of the Baltimore County Democrat, is likely to succeed Mr. Lloyd Wilkinson as Insurance Commissioner. The Board of Public Works will probably make the appointment next Wednesday.

IF FOR NO OTHER REASON, two recent events in the political world will cause the defeat of the Republican party in the state at the next election, namely the determination of Congressman Jackson to contest the election of Hon. Thomas A. Smith in the First Congressional District, and the appointment of B. Hall Harris as postmaster of Baltimore city. The one a disgrace to the intelligent electorate of the First Congressional District, the other a war to the death between Senator McComas and the Stone-Wachter machine in Baltimore city and elsewhere. Democrats, let's saw wood while all this is going on.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT took the bull by the horns in the Baltimore city postmastership fight on Monday and sent to the Senate the name of B. Hall Harris, Esq., a prominent lawyer of Baltimore, as postmaster. The announcement of Mr. Harris' appointment by the President, created far more excitement than a bull in a china shop in Republican organization circles, whose candidate was known to be Gen. J. S. MacDonald. The appointment of Mr. Harris is regarded as a distinct recognition of Senator Louis E. McComas and Hon. Chas. J. Bonaparte, and a slam at the regular organization. It made Mr. Wachter very sarcastic, and made Mr. Stone feel like a brick. But Mr. Mudd didn't care the snap of his finger for the Baltimore postmaster ship, so long as he could get the darkies in Southern Maryland to vote for his retention in Congress.

THE TRANSCRIPT WISHES all of its readers and patrons a very happy and prosperous new year. We extend our thanks to all those who have contributed in making this a prosperous year for the TRANSCRIPT, and we hope that our friends will assist us to make the paper even better during the new year than it has been in the past, in interesting reading matter as well as in advertising space. We shall add another column to our pages if our advertisers and news gathers make it necessary for us so to do. We want to be accommodating and we want business. We are in a position to make advertisements in our columns pay because we are backed by a company composed of some of the most influential business men and agriculturists in every section of Kent county who are interested in the success of the TRANSCRIPT and who patronize its advertisers. This is one of the reasons advertisements in the TRANSCRIPT meet such ready responses as may be cited of quick sales or rentals that have been made after one insertion in the paper. As an illustration we point to the leasing of Mr. Wm. Wright's pretty home in Queen Anne's county by a gentleman in Baltimore. The deal was begun after one insertion in the TRANSCRIPT by a prominent real estate dealer in Baltimore; the sale of Wilbur W. Hubbard's farm to a gentleman in Queen Anne's after the first insertion, an application to rent Jas. T. Ireland's residence and store at Coleman's after one insertion, and many others too numerous to mention. The Transcript is the best advertising medium in Kent County, because it is the newsiest and most readable paper in Kent county.

We make this statement on the testimony of those who are in a position to judge, and without any desire whatever to cast any reflection upon the character of any other paper. We are out for business in the coming year, 1905, and we are going to make the TRANSCRIPT just as newsy and just as bright as we can, in order that it may be all the more to the advantage of our advertisers and patrons. Give us your business and we shall endeavor to do the rest for you. If you are not a subscriber become one with the beginning of the new year. It will only cost you a dollar.

CONGRESSMAN WM. H. JACKSON, through his counsel, John C. Rose, Esq., of Baltimore, on Wednesday filed a notice of contest with Hon. Thomas A. Smith, who was returned elected to Congress from the First Congressional District at the last general election. Congressman Jackson's charges are voluminous, but all of them are not to be compared to the wholesale purchase and debauchery of the electorate of the First District for which "Uncle Bill's" bar'l is directly responsible. It was hoped by men of conservatism in the Republican party that Mr. Jackson would accept his defeat philosophically, and that no contest would be made. But with the overwhelming advantage of a Republican Congress before which the contest will likely be made, regardless of any sufficient and just reasons for a contest, Mr. Jackson is determined to wrest from the people of the Eastern Shore the right to declare who shall represent them in the national congress. Mr. Smith has declared his intention to fight for his rights to the last ditch. He was elected by the vote of the intelligent and representative citizens of the Eastern Shore, and we commend him heartily for his just and courageous stand. The contest will undoubtedly result disastrously to the future hopes of the Republican party in the entire State, and it is to be hoped that the Democrats will leave no stone unturned to expose the corrupt practices employed to secure the election of Mr. Jackson in the recent election. Among the charges is one that in Kent county 202 votes were thrown out that should have been counted for the Republicans, when it is a known fact that the election returns from every precinct in every district in the county were signed by the election officials, and that several of the prominent Republican leaders in the county stated that the ballot was uniform and perfectly legal, and that the election was fairly conducted. Thomas A. Smith is too valuable a man to be defrauded out of an honest election.

Thomas J. Elburn
vs.
William Beck, Samuel Beck, Isiah Beck, Frank Beck, George Beck, Mamie Beck Hopkins, wife of Levi Hopkins, Levi Hopkins, Charlotte Beck Cotton, wife of Samuel Cotton, Samuel Cotton, Mansolus Beck, Nancy Beck and Arlinda Beck.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland, in Equity.

THE object of this bill is to procure a decree for the sale of the real estate of William Beck, colored, deceased, and to distribute the proceeds therein after the payment of his debts, to the respective heirs at law.

The bill states that a certain William Beck, colored, late of Kent county, deceased, was, in his lifetime indebted unto your orator, Thomas J. Elburn, upon a certain account for twenty-six and five one-hundredth dollars, and at the time of his death the said William Beck was indebted unto divers, other persons and he departed this life intestate, and left no personal property out of which your orator and the other creditors of said William Beck could be paid, and that no letters of administration were ever granted upon the estate of said Wm. Beck, colored, and that he left certain real estate lying in Kent County, Maryland.

And the said William Beck, colored, at th time of his death left the following heirs at law: William Beck, a son, who lives in Norfolk, Va., Samuel Beck, who lives in the State of Pennsylvania, Isiah Beck, whose wife is Nancy Beck, who resides in Edesville, Kent county, Frank Beck, who lives in Queen Anne's county, Md., George Beck, who resides in the State of Delaware, Mamie Beck Hopkins, who intermarried with Levi Hopkins, both of whom reside in Kent county, Md., Charlotte Beck Cotton, whose husband's name is Sam'l Cotton, who is now said to live in Queen Anne's county, Md., and Samuel Cotton is said to reside cin Kent county, Md., Mansolus Beck and Arlinda Beck, his wife, reside in Kent county, Md., and these are the only heirs-at-law and persons entitled to interests in the real estate of the said William Beck. And the bill further states that the said William Beck left no personal estate sufficient to pay his just debts.

To the end therefore that the real estate of William Beck, colored, or so much thereof as may be necessary may be sold for the payment of the claims of your orator and those of the other unsatisfied creditors of the said William Beck, deceased,

It is therefore ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, as a Court of Equity, this 16th day of Decemaer, 1904, that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent county once in each of four successive weeks before the 16th day of January, giving notice to William Beck, Samuel Beck, Isaiah Beck, Frank Beck, George Beck, Mamie Beck Hopkins, wife of Levi Hopkins, Levi Hopkins, Charlotte Beck Cotton, wife of Samuel Cotton, Sam'l Cotton, Mansolus Beck, Nancy Beck and Arlinda Beck, some of whom are non-residents of the State of Maryland, of the objects and subjects of this bill and warning them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor on or before the 4th day of February next, to answer the premises and show cause if any they have why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.
