know. some two years to get you to draw off my ap to see, if we could not set-the some way, peaceble. But I never could get you to do it, Why— I am at a loss to tell— On account of your connection to my wife. I have done all of this, For I have known for some time you had an ill feeling towards myself, without any cause whatever, And at which, I did not care the snap of my finger. For I ask no favors from you, and if you have got mad, (as you did) without a cause. of course, you can have your own good time, to get pleased again — I have endeavored to live in love, and charity, with all men. But when they see fit to boil over. they can do so, untill they put the fire out, and then cool off — As I am not fully aware, what you are aiming at.
from your acts, at my house the other morning, And to put you all right. on the matter of the accounts between us, I would here say, I pay nothing prior to May 30.th 1867. — Having paid, or hold claims against you. for all claims up to the above named date — Which, at the proper time can produce — I will again for the last time, ask you to draw off my ap from the above named date, to the present, in two or three days, and let me
