CHAS. SIMON'S SONS CO.

—208 NORTH HOWARD ST.—

We have acquired the building and the entire stock of the Chas. Simon's Sons Co., 208 North Howard Street—next door to us.

This is not news to most of you—the papers told of the acquisition at the time it was made—some weeks ago.

The Simon business is the oldest retail dry goods business in Baltimore. It has an honorable past of 90 years—three generations.

It has always been a high-grade business—never an element of the sensational or the shoddy has entered into it.

By reason of the decision of the members of the firm of The Chas. Simon's Sons Co. to retire from business, there are opportunities to buy the fine goods for which the store is famous at much less than former prices.

Every course of action that has earned for The Chas. Simon's Sons Co. the good-will and respect of the public will be continued for time to come; every tradition that has endeared the store to its patrons will be preserved.

The sale will continue until the entire stock is sold—possibly a month.

MILLINGTON MATTERS.

Mr. Clarence Price died very suddenly at his home here last Thursday night at 11 o'clock of paralysis. He was stricken about 10 o'clock that morning. Several years ago Mr. Price suffered a stroke which caused him to give up all laborious work, and at that time he was engineer at the mills of the Queen Anne Cotton Company, but was compelled to resign that position, and since then has only been able to do such light work as his strength permitted. He had secured the position of weighing tomatoes for the cannery of W. S. Armstrong & Co., and had just weighed a load and superintended storing them in the cannery when he was seen to stagger, but before he fell willing hands caught him and carried him to his home which was near by, in an unconscious condition, from which he never rallied until death came to his relief. Up until he was stricken he was apparently as well as usual. Mr. Price was born near Delaware City, Del., but came to Millington about 25 years ago. His wife, who was Miss Jennie Holiday of this town, with one son and two daughters survive him. His funeral took place from his late residence Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock Rev. Albert Ware officiating. The pall bearers: Messrs. B. M. Hazell, W. C. Rolph, W. F Collins, F. L. Smith, J. Phillips and J. C. Vansant. Interment in Millington cemetery.

The congregation of the P. E. Chapel held a festival on Friday evening, August 25th and will continue it to-night, August 26th. The proceeds are for the benefit of the chapel which was destroyed by fire last year, and as the bids have been granted to Messrs. W. S. & A. Culp, of Chestertown who are to begin work at once, everyone is anxious for a good turnout and hope everyone will come to the front well prepared to assist financially, or anyone wishing to contribute to the fund for the church can do so by sending to Rev. Albert Ware at Massey.

BE WISE.

DR. S. T. EARLE A GREAT SURGEON.

Performed A Wonderful Operation Upon Dr. E. L. Crutchfield, of St. Joseph's Hospital, Baltimore.

Dr. Eugene Lee Crutchfield, a staff physician at St. Josheph's Hospital, is convalescing after what is regarded as one of the most unique operations ever performed in Baltimore city. The operation is called appendicostomy, or Wier's operation.

In many respects the method empioyed is similar to that used in operations for appendicitis, except that instead of the appendix being cut off it is sewed fast to the edges of the incision made in the abdomen and when a union takes place the end of the appendix is snipped off, leaving an opening leading into the abdominal canal by way of the appendix. Through this opening the appendix is always accessible, and any disorder originating in this troublesome little organ can be reached readily with proper remedial fluids and all future dangers of appendicitis are entirely eliminated. By the operation Dr. Crutchfield enjoys the distinction of being the only man in Baltimore city and one of a very few in the country who can at all times look down into his appendix.

The operation on Dr. Crutchfield, while minimizing the dangers of appendicitis, was not performed as a result of an attack of that disease, but was made necessary by a chronic ulceration from which he had been suffering for several years. After several attempts to get at the seat of the affection it was suggested that he try Wier's operation, and on July 31 he was operated on by Dr. Samuel T. Earle, also of St. Joseph's Hospital, in the presence of fifteen other physicians.

The operation has been successful in every way, it is said, and Dr. Crutchfield is on the high road to recovery. Dr. Earle is one of the most prominent surgeons in the country. He is related to the family of Mr. J. K. Aldridge, of Chestertown and to the Earles of Queen Anne's county. He is well-known in Chestertown, where he and his family have frequently visited.

IN HONOR OF MR. HOPPER.

Dinner Given Him in Honor of His Eighty-Seventh Birthday.

In honor of the eighty-seventh birthday of Mr. Wm. J. Hopper, 1504 John street, a dinner was given him by Mr. Alexander Dodd, of Prospect avenue, Roland Park, Baltimore, on Wednesday.

Mr. Hopper is the only surviving son of the late Judge Philemon B. Hopper, of Queen Anne's county. Judge Hopper was one of the founders of the Methodist Protestant Church, and Mr. Hopper is one of the most prominent lay members of the church in this State. He is now an active member of North Baltimore Church, of which Rev. F. C. Klein is pastor.

In spite of the fact that he years ago passed the period of "threescore years and ten," he is robust and hearty. Daily he enjoys a quiet walk. His hair is heavy and his white locks give him a distinguished appearance, but one who does not not know him would not take him to be a day over 65 years.

Among those at the dinner were: Rev. Frank H. Lewis, formerly pastor of North Baltimore Methodist Protestant Church, now pastor of the First Methodist Protestont Church at Pittsburg, and Mrs. Lewis; Mrs. William Stevens, of Rock Hall, Kent county; Misses Lillian and Ella Stevens, of Kent county; Miss Amanda Hopper, daughter of Mr. Hopper; Mr. Harry Staley, of Baltimore, and Mr. Howard Reese, of Kent county.

A Warning to Mothers.

Too much care cannot be used with the small children during the hot weather of the summer months to guard against bowel troubles. As a rule it is only necessary to give the child a dose of castor oil to correct any disorder of the bowels. Do not use any substitute, but give the old fashioned castor oil, and see that it is fresh, as rancid oil nauseates and has a tendency to gripe. If this does not check the bowels give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and then a dose of castor oil, and the disease may be checked in its incipiency and all danger avoided. The castor oil and this remedy should be procured at once and kept ready for instant use as soon as the first indication of any bowel trouble appears. This is the most successful treatment known and may be relied upon with implicit confidence even in cases of cholera infantum. For sale by M. A. Toulson, Druggest.
