Republican Primaries—Meet and Lose Your Head.

The Republicans of St. Mary's are hereby notified and requested to hold their Primary Meetings at the usual places of holding elections in each district on and elect by ballot ten Delegates from each Election District of said county, to a County Convention to be held at LEONARDTOWN, MONDAY, July 17th, 1899, at 2 o'clock, p. m.

SATURDAY, JULY 15th, 1899,

To send three Delegates and three Alternates to the State Convention which will assemble in Baltimore on a date to be hereafter designated by the State Central Committee, to nominate candidates for Governor, Comptroller of the Treasury and Attorney General of the State.

The said County Convention will also elect a County Central Committee.

The polls will be opened at 2 o'clk p. m., and close at 6 o'clock, p. m.

by order,
STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.
For St. Mary's County.

County Politics.

There is no use trying to hide the fact; the local political fight is on. At every lane or cross road, at every store, or other public place, the topic of conversation invariably turns on politics. The purpose of the Republican primaries to be held today is the election of ten delegates and ten alternates to a county convention to be held at Leonardtown, on Monday, July 17th, whose duty it will be to select three delegates and three alternates to represent St. Mary's county in a State convention which convenes at Baltimore on a day to be hereafter designated by the State Central Committee, the duty of which convention will be to nominate a Republican State ticket. The county convention will also elect a County Central Committee. The present members of that committee are: Enoch B. Abell, Chairman; Jos. H. Ching, Treasurer; Garner B. Mahoney, Secretary.

The fight seems to be for local control of the county convention between Hon. Joseph H. Ching, representing the party organization, and Senator Washington Wilkinson opposing the same; in other words; Mr. Ching represents the friends of Congressman Sydney E. Mudd, and Senator Wilkinson, the friends of ex-Postmaster Genl., Hon. James A. Gary. The name of the Clerk of the Circuit Court, Enoch B. Abell, is incidentally connected with the fight as being a member of the present party organization. Both sides are openly declared friends of the State administration and the delegates to the State convention, in the event of the success of either Ching or Wilkinson, will be for Hon. Lloyd Lowndes, for Gorvernor; so that the fight may be narrowed down to this point, who shall control the local patronage;—the friends of Mr. Mudd, or the friends of Mr. Gary. As to the fight on the question of the formation of the Central Committee, it seems to be a contest on the side of the committee to sustain itself and on the other, to displace the present Central Committee and substitute therefore one that will do Mr. Wilkinson's bidding. The Senator is and has been an active worker in the Republican ranks, and has done as much, if not more than any one man to fight the common enemy, but there seems to be a remarkably strange and unholy alliance at work in the present Republican primaries to effect his success. In nearly every district the Democrats are advocating his cause, and in some districts they are actually hard at work in his behalf. The question naturally arises, and, like Bonco's ghost will not down at the bidding, "Cui' Bono?" It is a general principle of ethics that people do not do something for nothing.

State Finances.

Under a Republican administration, with Hon. Lloyd Lowndes as Governor, and Hon. Phillipps Lee Goldsboro', as Comptroller of the Treasury, the debt of Maryland decreased during the year ending September 30, 1898, $466,000. The amount due the State by collectors and other receivers of public money has shown a decrease of $206,000 A comfortable cash ballance of $680,000 is likely to be on hand by September 30, 1899. The ordinary treasury receipts show an increase over 1897 of $222,000. The stock account of the sinking fund reveals the remarkable gain of $436,000, despite the large expense of the legislature of 1898. The amount distributed to the public schools increased from $600,000 in 1894 to $827,000 in 1898, which does not include the sums paid out for free books.

Consistently Inconsistent.

Some of the present and most bitter critics of the President for hesitating to force a larger army on Gen'l Otis, in the Philippines, against his own judgement, were only a few short weeks ago condemning the administration for "murdering the innocent Filipinos." And, now, when he yields, in part at least, to these public clamorers, they are still dissatisfied. He is doing it unlawfully.

Would it be possible for anything not dishonorable, eminating from the present administration to satisfy these self-proven hypocritical critics? Certainly not.

"Best Ever."

Mr. Gary Not a Candidate.

"Now am not a candidate for the Governorship and am entirely in accord with the popular belief in the party ranks that Governor Lowndes should be renominated. That he will be, there can't a doubt at this time, and for him as the standard-bearer we will win I am sure. As for my part in the campaign, I do not say I shall take none, but it must necessarily be very limited and strictly within what my physician will sanction. As I am very desirous to husband the strength I have now regained I must of necessity refrain from anything likely to deplete it. There are other and younger men for the active work required, and I cheerfully resign it into their hands. I am earnestly desirous, however, that the supremacy of the Republican party in Maryland should be maintained, and that the electoral vote of the State be found in the Republican column in 1900. This is assured, I think, beyond peradventure if all show themselves as desirous of harmony in the party counsels as myself."

A Democratic Squeal.

"It will be remembered that, when President Cleveland gave his retiring order to extend the Civil Service rules so as to include thousands of offices into which incompetent but earnest Democrats were thrust, there was general adverse criticism of the act, and a prediction was made that these Cleveland officials would be ousted at the first opportunity. Mr. Cleveland perpetrated one of those political jokes that appears grim enough to be startling, and it is known that he did not expect to laugh very long at the forcing process of making Democrats take the places that Republicans would have had an opportunity to compete for if the regular routine had been carried out. But who expected that Democratic papers would make a fuss and show the yellow streak when the Civil Service order, forced upon him by the very sharp Democrats, was issued by President McKinley? It was a silly piece of business for Mr. Cleveland to enter upon, and President McKinley has only partially corrected a glaring wrong. That is the way the country looks at it."

SNAPPS.

Now that "Fighting Joe" Wheeler is on his way to the Philippines, we may look for some quick work among the "Insurgents" toward the more friendly mountains when the "fighting season" opens.

If "Col." Bryan, who resigned his commission as soon as his regiment was ordered to Cuba, could be persuaded to "go to the Philipines" as a part of the new regular army "annex," 16 to 1, he could induce Aguinaldo, the "second Washington," to lay down his arms and declare himself for "Bryan and free silver" on a peace at-any-price platform, "without waiting the action of any other nation."

Admiral Dewey thinks that politics would kill him. But see how Col. Bryan thrives and grows fat on politics. Like Croker, he has no other employment.

Alger does not resign, and he probably will not resign at the invitation of scheming Democrats, now so plentiful.

A certain class of Democratic papers are inclined to feel sad over the formation of a huge coffin trust. It creates sad forebodings for their party.

Richard Croker is altogether too sanguine. There is nothing in the present condition of affairs to cause him to waste money in sending a cable congratulation to Tammany, closing with the words: "Let us rejoice over the coming triumph of Democracy." It would take a more powerful telescope than that on Mount Hamilton to see anything that looks like a "coming triumph of Democracy" in the outlook just now.

Col. Watterson has made the head of his editorial column symbolic by the addition of a rooster. And that rooster crows for the Geobel ticket. There is life and energy in this. It would seem, however, that Col. Watterson is only playing a "blind bluff" for the disconsolate Democracy of the blue grass.

Yes, the Democracy is the "reform" party. It needs more reforming than any other party that ever existed. From one election to another it does not know what its faith is. It "resolves and resolves, then dies the same." For further particulars of its fatal weakness read Young's "Night Thoughts."

Col. Wm. Jennings Bryan is telling the people just what the platform of the next national Democratic convention will say. Mr. Bryan seems to be busily engaged in the tail wagging the dog business, but we fear that he will discover some time early next year that the dog will go on wagging the tail as in the past.

Having nominated the Maryland Democratic State ticket four weeks before the primaries, Mr. Gorman has sufficiently recovered in health to assist Mr. Van Wyck, of New York, in attempting to relieve the national convention of the trouble of selecting a candidate for President.

"There is no longer any Gorman issue in this State. The people have retired Gorman to private life. Mr. Gorman was the issue two years ago and the people settled it."—Salisbury Advertiser."

Dear, dear, how very nice! We thought our friend of the Advertiser enjoyed an acquaintance with the Hon. John Walter Smith which enabled him to keep better informed. Gorman no longer an issue! Listen and heed—so long as ex-Senator Gorman is the leader of the Democratic party in Maryland just so long is he an issue. The people know that he is in politics for the gratification of his own personal aims and that he will use his power purely and simply for that end. That he is still the real head of the party, we have the word of the chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, the Hon. Murray Vandiver, who calls him "our friend and leader." That he will name the nominee of the State Convention, unless the most heroic efforts are put forth to block his game, is generally admitted by well-posted politicians and exultingly proclaimed by the friends of the ex-Senator. It is unfortunate for the Hon. John Walter Smith that he seems destined to make his debut in the role of gubernatorial candidate under the auspices of the man from Howard. The same good people who placed the public welfare above party in 1895 will again be compelled to demonstrate that there is a Gorman issue so long as there is a Gorman controlling or seeking to control the politics of this State.—Worcester Advocate.

[COMMUNICATED.

MORGANZA, JULY 13TH, 1899.

Editor Enterprise:—I saw in your last issue a card signed Thos. Mack, requesting that Mr. Dan'l C. Hammett, the present State's Attorney become a candidate for the renomination on the Republican ticket. I have this to say that the Republican party of this county has served Mr. Hammett faithfully for the last twenty years and he has told the people that he would not become a candidate this time. It has been conceded for some time that Mr. A. Kingsley Love would be the nominee of the Republicans and he is justly entitled to the honor. Mr. Love has worked faithfully for the party and would make a strong candidate. He has no political sins to answer for. Mr. Love is fully qualified to fill this office and with a little experience and study would do credit to the people of this county in the prosecution of violations of the law.

I believe in rotation in office and hope Mr. Hammett will decline to serve as we do not want, if possible, any political dissention this time. Let Republicans nominate a ticket that will suit the masses and victory will be certain this Fall.

"ROTATION IN OFFICE."
