I am not at all surprized my Dear Anne to hear that you were not pleased at being at the Ball however I hear that they intend to have another very soon, and if you will go I think you will be more pleased. I suppose that you have heard Miss Trent intends to marry Capt Handkerchief I think that is the best name for. God help her I say but if I was in her place if I did marry I would marry a White Man not a Yellow one

my Brother set off for Philada last Wednesday week, we heard from him the Day before yesterday he got to the City on Friday to dinner, its impossible for me to say the Time he will be home but from some circumstances I suppose the last of this week. his House goes on very fast and I think will soon be done, as soon as its fit for them to go into they will be married what has put it into Brothers head to be so anxious for me to go up to the marriage I cant tell but he said before he left home that as for my not being willing to go up, I need not be for I should go and that I need not say a word, all I have to say is that I shall not injoy the visit for I do not wish to go

I expect C Ferris will go up, that is if her Mother recovers as we expect

I must not forget to tell you that Doctr Williams servant came here the Day before yesterday with a letter from Mrs Williams to Mama well says I Nancy I suppose we are
