A Certain Cure for Croup.

When a child shows symptoms of croup there is no time to experiment with new remedies, no matter how highly they may be recommended. There is one preparation that can always be depended upon. It has been in use for many years and has never been known to fail, viz: Chamberlain's Cough remedy. Mr. M. F. Compton of Market, Texas, says of it, "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in severe cases of croup with my children, and can truthfully say it always gives prompt relief." For sale by M. A. Toulson, Druggist.

For Thin Babies

Fat is of great account to a baby; that is why babies are fat. If your baby is scrawny, Scott's Emulsion is what he wants. The healthy baby stores as fat what it does not need immediately for bone and muscle. Fat babies are happy; they do not cry; they are rich; their fat is laid up for time of need. They are happy because they are comfortable. The fat surrounds their little nerves and cushions them. When they are scrawny those nerves are hurt at every ungentle touch. They delight in Scott's Emulsion. It is as sweet as wholesome to them.

Descriptive of Kent County.

We have received from the Maryland Bureau of Statistics and Information an economic map of Maryland which gives the following statistical information of Kent county:

Kent county is on the Eastern Shore, and one of the oldest counties in the State, having been settled in 1628.

Population, about 19,000.

County seat, Chestertown, and there are about 18 other towns in the county. It is a farming county, being one of the best agricultural counties in the State. It is well watered by the Chesapeake bay, Sassafras and Chester rivers.

Staple products—Wheat and corn, peaches and pears, and farm truck generally.

The land responds promptly to every effort, and the waters of Kent county teem with oysters, fish, crabs, terrapin and turtle.

There are about 1,000 farms in the county.

Principal industries—Oyster taking, crabbing and fishing.

There are five or six steamboat lines, and one or two railroad lines touching the county, which furnish easy means of transportation.

The manufactures of Kent are many, but not very large, including canned goods, boots and shoes, fertilizers, baskets and crates, and flour mills.

Samuel Hurlock, vs.
William T. Wood, Louisa Wood his wife, Hannah E. Gorman, John Gorman, her husband, Nerma D. Nickerson, Clarence O. Wood, ——— Wood, his wife, John W. Wood, Wilhelmina Wood his wife, Herman C. Wood, Katharine Wood his wife, Walter Truitt, Edith Truitt his wife.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County in Equity.

No. 1573.

The object of this suit is to procure a decree declaring that your orator is entitled to a deed in fee simple for the one-half of the tract of land belonging to Hannah Wood and for which through an error your orator took a deed for an undivided one-half part from John W. Wood in his lifetime, and also for a decree declaring that your orator is also entitled to a deed for the tract of land purchased by your orator from the said Araminta Myers, and also that a trustee may be appointed to convey the fee in certain real estate as is provided under the will of John Whittington, deceased.

The bill states that John Whittington, late of Kent county, deceased, was seized and possessed of a certain farm known by the name of "The Beck Farm," and that the said John Whittington left a last will and testament dated January 15th, 1840, which was duly admitted to probate and recorded among the Will Records for Kent county, in Wills Liber J. F. B. No. 1, folios 74, etc.

And the said John Whittington by his last will and testament devised his said farm to his son, John Whittington and his heirs and assigns upon certain trusts and uses, in trust to collect the rent, and pay the rents and profits to his daughter, Hannah Wood, wife of Wm. Wood, subject to certain provisions, and in case she should leave a child or children living at her death in trust to convey the said land to her child or children in fee simple by a good and sufficient deed, and in case she left no children then in trust for the use and benefit of the said John Whittington's sons, viz: John and William Whittington as tenants in common and their heirs and assigns forever; and your orator shows that the said John Whittington never deeded said farm as divided in said will, and that the said Hannah Wood after coming into possession of the said farm under the said devise, died and left surviving her two children, viz: a son, John W. Wood, and a daughter, Araminta Wood, who under the terms of said will were entitled to the said form as tenants in common in fee simple.

And your orator further shows that the said John W. Wood and Araminta Myers in their lifetime divided the said farm into two equal parts, and although they executed no deeds for the division of the said farm yet each of them, up to the time of their death, held their seperate shares of the said farm, so as aforesaid divided by mutual consent in severalty, and not in common, each of them holding a moiety thereof, which said division was a public matter and was well-hnown in their respective families.

And your orator further shows that after the farm was so divided by the said John W. Wood and Araminta Myers, your orator, Sam'l Hurlock, purchased of John W. Wood and Hester Wood his wife, one-half of said farm so as aforesaid allotted to John W. Wood and Hester Wood his wife, by a deed duly executed and recorded.

And your orator further shows that by reason of an error in the description in the deed of the said farm, it appears that said deed attempts to convey to your orator all of the said John W. Wood's undivided one-half interest in and to the farm of Hannah Wood, the mother of the said John W. Wood.

While in point of fact it was the interest of the said John W. Wood to convey to your orator, and it was the interest of your orator to purchase that portion of the said farm which had been allotted to the said John W. Wood in the devision made as aforesaid between him and and his sister, Araminta Myers, and the said deed should have recited said division and the fact that it was the said John W. Wood's portion of the said farm which it was intended to convey by the said deed.

And your orator further shows that the said Araminta Myers, held in severalty her one-half portion of the said farm mentioned in the said will of John Whittington, except a tract of nine acres which your orator purchased of the said Araminta Myers in her lifetime, which said tract of nine acres adjoins the farm purchased by your orator of John W. Wood, the brother of the said Araminta Myers, and which said nine acres lies adjoining the remaining lands of Araminta Myers which nine acres of land were purchased by the said Samuel Hurlock of the said Araminta Myers, but no deed was ever given to your orator, although your orator continued in the possession of the same and used the same and occupied it as his own until the death of the said Araminta Myers, and up to the present time.

And your orator is advised that in view of the facts as above set forth it is necessary for him to make all the heirs of John W. Wood parties to this suit and the devisees of Araminta Myers likewise parties to this suit so that a decree may be obtained and a trustee appointed for the purpose of conveying to your orator under the will of John Whittington and as purchaser from John W. Wood the legal title to the said one-half of said farm of the late John Whittington, purchased by your orator of John W. Wood, and intended to be conveyed by the deed hereinbefore refered to, and that also a good and valid deed shall be made by the trustee, so as aforesaid to be appointed for the nine acres of land purchased by your orator of Araminta Myers in her liftime, and your orator is advised in order for this to be done, it is right and proper that all parties who might as heirs at law and devisees of the said John W. Wood or the devisees of Araminta Myers have claim, or claim to have any interest in the said tract of land, should be made parties to this proceeding and should be given notice of the claim of your orator, so that if they have any legal or equitable objections, they may come in and make the same known and show why the relief asked by your orator shall not be granted.

And your orator shows that the following are the heirs at law of John W. Wood and the devisees of Araminta Myers under and by virtue of the terms of her last will and testament, viz.: Wm. T. Wood and Louisa Wood his wife, Hannah E. Gorman, a daughter whose husbands name is John Gorman, Nerma D. Nickerson, a daughter who is a widow, all of Kent county, Maryland; Clarence O. Wood, whose wife's name is unknown, a non-resident, who lives in the state of Conneticut. John W. Wood and Wilhelmina Wood his wife who are non-residents who reside in the state of Delaware, Herman C. Wood and Katherine Wood his wife who reside in Cecil County, Md.

And it appears from her will that the devisees of Araminta Myers ate the said Wm. T. Wood and Walter Truitt whose wife's name is Edith Truitt, all of Kent county, Maryland.

To the end therefore, that a decree may be passed for the purpose of declaring that your orator is entitled to a deed in fee for the one-half of the tract of land belonging to Hannah Wood and directing that your orator is also entitled to a deed for the tract of land purchased by your orator from Araminta Myers, and also that a trustee be appointed to convey the fee under the will of John Whittington and to also convey unto your orator a title in fee simple to the farm purchased by him from John W. Wood and the lot purchased by orator from Arminta Myers.

It is thereupon ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, as a court of Equity, this 1st day of December 1905, that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent county, Maryland, once a week in each of four successive weeks before the 2nd day January next; giving notice to Clarence O. Wood and ——— Wood his wife, John W. Wood and Wilhelmina Wood his wife, who are non-residents of the state of Maryland, of the object and substances of this bill and warning them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor on or before the 20th day of January, 1906, to answer these premises and show cause if any they have why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.
