THE LADIES STORE. CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Talk Here is Backed by Deeds

TWICE A YEAR almost every retail establishment has a grand clearance sale in which all odds and ends of a six months' accumulation of business must be swept away by the mighty brooms of little prices for dependable goods.

If you reflect you will recall how the wise buyers feasted on the bargains in our January sale of winter wearables, and now, as the morn of August dawns upon us we offer you the remains of our Summer goods.

The advance guard of Fall Stocks will soon be trooping in—they need the shelf and counter room taken up by the fag ends of Spring and Summer stocks—the latter must be rid of—there is one way to do it and that is by placing upon them prices so small as to induce every bargain-loving man, woman and child, within a reasonable radius of our store to visit us. The wee small figures are on 'em—they will move. Get in line.

Ladies White Shirt Waist Suits During the month of July we had a special sale of these garments at ¼ off selling price and the majority of them were closed out—there is just a few of each left—say two dozen in all—the $3.00 ones on up to $6.50 are in one bunch—well, just two dozen lucky ladies will wear these suits. First come, first served.

All you need to do is to call, look them over, try them, pick out one according to your liking, one that you look pretty in, then notice the ticket on inside, the figures are plain, cut in (½) half, and the hat is yours. Remember, we carry nothing over from one season to another, and they must go. "To grow rich means to embrace opportunities." This is your opportunity.

How to Make MONEY.

DON'T READ ONLY THE BEGINNING OR A PART OF THIS ADVERTISEMENT. READ EVERY WORD. EVERY LINE.

If you want to sell your farm it is more important for you to read this than it is for me to write it. If you sell at public sale and get less by $500 than I can sell it for, you loose. I am talking to sensible people, people who think and people who have not dollars to throw away.

REMEMBER if your property is mortgaged and will likely be sold under the hammer; or if you and your brothers and sisters hold the property, that is, if it was left to you, in any case you owe it to yourself to sell most advantageously. Public sales are generally sacrifice sales. History proves this. I will explain why this is. It limits the time in which the property can be bought to 20 minutes; and bad weather may keep away the best bidders. When once up at public auction, a price is tacked to the property by which it is afterwards valued.

I have a list of people who want to buy. A list that is worth thousands of dollars. People north, east, south and west. Real estate in my agency is not confined only to a small local demand. Then I treat people fairly.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., JULY 13, 06.

MR. J. WATERS RUSSELL, Chestertown, Md., —Dear Sir—Accept my sincere thanks for the straight and correct way you purchased for me the 140 acre farm in the Second District, Kent Co. The farm is just what I wanted.

Yours truly,
PHILIP D. SPAETH.

CHESTERTOWN, MD., JULY 13, 1906.

J. WATERS RUSSELL, Real Estate Broker, Dear Sir—The farm one mile from Chestertown which I purchased of you has come up to my every expectation and I take this method to assure you I am more than glad I bought from you.

Yours truly,
W. F. WINK,
(Formerly of Somerset county.)

If you can sell your property better than I, go ahead and do it. But don't put it in my hands and then get selfish and try to beat me out of my commissions. I want to deal with honest people.

I yesterday sold a farm to a Baltimore man. I effect RESULTS. Am not using vain words.

When people write to Postmaster Thomas (Chestertown) asking him to hand their letter to a Real Estate Broker, he gives it to me---there is no one else to give it to.

Write me to-day. I may have an inquiry from a buyer who wants a place just like yours.

I am running advertisements in Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, Chicago, Pittsburg, St. Louis and other localities.
