Read what Mr. Wm. D. Carter says about

The New Superior Drill

Worton, Md., Dec. 1, 1907.
Davis & Satterfield,
Chestertown, Md.:

Gentlemen:—It gives me great pleasure to say that the new "Y" spouts you put on the Superior Fertilizer Finger Grain Drill this fall gave me perfect satisfaction. I consider the Superior Drill one of the best on the market. It is light running and is so easy and simple in the change of quantities in both grain and fertilizer, that it makes me believe the drill has its right name—"Superior."

Yours truly,
W. D. CARTER.

We warrant this machine to do satisfactory work or no pay. Light draft, simple to operate, a regular distributer of both grain and fertilizer.

All we ask is a fair inspection and an honest judgment.

We solicit your patronage,

Amatite Roofing.

Not an imitation, or a counterfeit.
A genuine natural protection from the elements.

Owing to inquires from our customers for a thoroughly reliable, reasonable-priced roofing, we have made arrangements to supply an article that has no superior. A rigid investigation was made as we felt our word could not be given to the trade until thoroughly satisfied the roofing would support the confidence in every way. This roofing is suitable for any climate, steep or flat roofs.

GET A SAMPLE OF THIS ROOFING.

All kinds of building paper, tar felt and Abestesos in stock. Give us an opportunity to estimate on your work. We furnish everything in the building line from the smallest article to a completed building as we are practical builders and have a large force of men.

Yours very truly,

SIGN OF SATISFACTION.

A CARD OF APPRECIATION.

In retiring from business, which my failing sight compels, I wish to return my grateful thanks to the many friends and patrons who have stood by me so faithfully and some of them by my father before me. It is with much feeling and great regret that I have faced the inevitable and given up the business I have been engaged in so long, and in which I have achieved a reputation that any one may well envy.

Again thanking all my friends, I desire to recommend my successor, MR. CHARLES L. DODD, to their liberal patronage, feeling sure of his ability to coduct the business in the most acceptable manner.

Respectfully,
JOHN N. DODD,

Wedding Bells.

PEACOCK—ELBURN.

Mr. George T. Peacock, manager for Mr. W. W. Hubbard, and Miss Nettie Elburn were married on Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's grandfather adjoining the Topping mill property. The ceremony was performed by Dr. F. T. Little in the presence of the family and a few friends. Because of recent bereavement in the bride's home the wedding was private. The bride was simply and beautifully costumed in white and carried a handsome bunch of bride's roses and ferns. The groome wore canventional black. Many beautiful presents were received by the happy couple, among which was an ornamental dinner set of over a hundred pieces from Mr. W. W. Hubbard. The young couple will reside in town to the delight of their many friends. Mrs. Peacock is the daughter of Mr. Elburn, of Rock Hall, and granddaughter of Mr. William Elburn, residing on the Whaland farm at the mill near Chestertown. Mr. Peacock has been a resident of our town for several years and has made many friends among us.

BOWERS—MCGAW.

Mr. Daniel Bowers, eldest son of Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Bowers, of Baltimore, was married on Wednesday to Miss Nellie Marian McGaw, of Pittsburg. The ceremony was performed by the father of the groom, in the presence of only the immediate families of the contracting parties. Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Bowers left for a wedding tour to western and northern points of interest. Upon their return they will reside in Baltimore, where the groom holds a lucrative position in the Custom House. They were the recipients of many handsome and useful presents, among them a check for $200 from the bride's aunt.

NEAL—CANNON.

Mrs. Mary E. Cannon, a well-known resident of Quaker Neck, and Mr. T. Eugene L. Neal, equally as wellknown, were married at Centreville M. P. parsonage on Thursday, Aug. 6th, by Rev. E. D. Stone. They will reside in Quaker Neck.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Rachel E. Copper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Copper, of Lynch's, to Mr. Edward F. Crowding, of Still Pond, Md.

ANOTHER SHOOTING IN KENT.

One Negro Shoots Another at a Chesterville Picnic on Account of a Five Dollar Bill.

During a colored people's picnic in Chesterville Grove last Saturday night John Chambers, colored, shot and dangerously wounded William Davis, also colored. Davis is in a hospital and Chambers is lodged in jail awaiting the action of the grand jury, having been arrested on Sunday by Deputy Sheriffs Startt and Lockerman. The trouble grew out of the loan of a $5 bill by Chambers to Davis, though it is stated that bad whiskey was really at the bottom of the fracas. Chambers asked Davis for the return of his money and Davis gave Chambers $1 instead of $5. A dispute arose, whereupon Chambers ripped out a revolver and shot Davis through the chest, the ball passing through the body and lodging in the back just under the skin. Chambers was given a hearing on Wednesday before Justice Townsend, of Millington, who held the accused for the action of the grand jury without bail. Reports from the hospital state that Davis will recover unless pneumonia develops.

Sale of Price Property.

The Price property, situated in and near Millington, and advertised in the TRANSCRIPT by Marion deK. Smith, Esq., trustee, was sold at public sale in Millington on Wednesday as follows:

The home farm will not be sold. The total amount of sales was $6900.

To Play Indians.

The team that will play the Indians in Chestertown on Sept. 11 is as follows:—Cross, Horsey, Johns, Moore, Massey, White, Orrell, sub.; Crew, Wallen, sub.; Lit Crew, Tom Kibler, capt. This is a corking team, and you will see a rattling game.

Change in Boats and Trains.

The fall schedule on the Chester River Line of the Md. Del. & Va. Company began on Monday. The regular tri-weekly trips have been resumed, the steamer leaving Chestertown at 7 A. M.

The steamer Louise will be withdrawn from the Tolchester route after Monday next, and the steamer Susquehanna will then leave Tolchester at 10 A. M. and leave Baltimore at 2.45 P. M.

As announced in the TRANSCRIPT two weeks ago the time of the Kent train is as follows: Leave Chestertown mornings at 7.48 arriving here at 11.06. Leave Chestertown afternoons at 2 30 arrives here at 6.05. No change in Sunday train.

Contest at Bowling.

The second contest between Chestertown and Centreville bowling teams took place on Wednesday night on the local alley. The number of games agreed upon was three games each of duck pins and tenpins. Chestertown won both games, the tenpins by 50 points and the duck pins by 10 points. The contestants were:

Ten pins—Centreville: Jutte, Parr, Perry. Chestertown: Carson, Hughes, Kibler.

Duck Pins—Centreville: Jutte, Walls, Perry, Golt, Kirt. Chestertown: Hughes, Noland, Pennington, Connelly, Matthews.
