THE LADIES' STORE, CHESTERTOWN, MD

JEFFERSON.

SEMI-SUMMER REDUCTIONS.

As the summer is fast passing away and finds us with a few odds and ends in the various lines yet on hand which we will close out at a great reduction to rid our shelves in order to make room for the vast array of fall goods which will soon begin to arrive. While the price in these "odds and ends" are exceptionally low, they are in no wise damaged but are genuine first class stock and as represented or money cheerfully refunded.

WE desire to call especial attention to the fact that "Ladies Store" is the only dry goods and notion house in the town that closes at 7 p. m. during the months of July and August and hope that the public will appreciate this and call during the day and secure some of the bargains offered below.

MILLINERY AT HALF PRICE.

Our Millinery parlors must be cleared AT ONCE. We need the money, we need the room. There are some few choice pattern hats, sailors, trimmed and untrimmed hats, flowers, ribbons, etc., here which must go; we say 50c on the dollar takes them; all persons can find real bargains here. Don't wait, come inspect, but meditate not for the price will surely please.

White Goods.

We have just finished our largest season on white goods, and the cause for the amount of business has been the quality of the line. This has been equal to any to be seen in the city. We are now ready to close out the odds and ends at great sacrifice.

" " , 45 inches wide, 30, 35 and 40 cents, at 27c

A GREAT SHOE CLEARANCE.

You know what that means. It's a clearing up of all Spring and summer shoe stock. "Six months and out"—is the rule—and here they go.

SHOOTS HUNTING COMPANION.

J. M. Basset, of Baltimore, Accidentally Kills His Cousin.

Sudler Crossley, 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Crossley, of near Church Hill, was shot and instantly killed by J. M. Bassett, a younger companion and cousin, Friday afternoon about 6 o'clock, while the two were out hunting near the former's home.

Basset, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Basset, of 1648 Pennsylvania avenue, Baltimore, had started out with his cousin early in the afternoon armed with a repeating rifle. Later in the day the two became separated and Basset shot at a bird flying close to the ground, not thinking that the direction was that taken by his companion. The echo of the explosion had not died away, however, before he discovered his mistake. A few steps brought him to the lifeless body of his cousin, the bullet having penetrated his back between his shoulders, passing through his heart and entire body death resulting instantly.

An inquest was held over the body Saturday morning and a verdict of accidental shooting rendered by the jury. Young Basset and his family are prostrated with grief, as are also the parents of the deceased, who was popular in the community. The young man was a student at Washington College last year, and was a general favorite with the students and teachers. He was particulary bright, and his death is a severe blow to his parents. He was a grandnephew of the late Daniel S. Loller, whose funeral was held on Sunday morning at 9.30 o'clock while that of the young man was held on Sunday afternoon. Interment was made in Chester cemetery. Undertaker Wm. T. Hicks had charge of both funerals. The young man's pall-bearers were Lester Spry, Ernest Clark, Albert Rochester, Harry Anderson, Romey Morris and Galen Vansant.
