DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT:

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN,
OF NEBRASKA.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT:

JOHN WORTH KERN,
OF INDIANA.

FOR CONGRESS:

J. HARRY COVINGTON,
OF TALBOT COUNTY.

The Republican National Headquarters have been transferred from Oyster Bay to the White House, and Teddy is the whole push.

We were in error last week in stating that the amount of money spent on the roads this year was $39,301.74. It should have been $30,855.76, exclusive of the amount spent by Kent and Queen Annes.

It is absolutely necessary that all secretaries of the Bryan, Kern and Covington Clubs in Kent, report the list of their officers to the chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, Eutaw House, Baltimore. Please give postoffice and express address to the chairman.

In order to divert the attention of the people from their wrong doings and bad issues, the Republican campaigners are attacking the private character of Mr. Bryan, and those associated with him. This is the best evidence of defeat for the Republicans, and desperation over their lost cause.

Gov. Haskell, of Oklahoma, has instituted suit against President Roosevelt for willful slander. Don't blame you in the least, Governor. The American presidency has been dragged in the mire of peanut politics by a man perfectly frantic to save his personal nominee from certain defeat.

The Baltimore Sun is a great stickler for antithesis. It says that because Taft is the antithesis of Roosevelt, he should be elected president. Has not Taft sworn to carry out the policies of the man who nominated him? How can Taft then be the antithesis of Roosevelt? The Baltimore Sun is like Roosevelt—it is in a hole, and does not know how to pull itself out.

Hasn't Mr. Bryan got Teddy on the run? Just give him a little more rope, Mr. Bryan, and he'll hang not only himself, but his party up a sour apple tree on Nov. 3rd. Teddy is horrified at Haskell, but he is not saying a word about Du Pont, Foraker and other members of his party. They are all good but Haskell, according to Roosevelt, but the people will decide which is which on Nov. 3rd.

It is difficult to show the extent of corporation and trust fund contributions to Republican campaign funds, but in the insurance investigation in New York beginning in September, 1905, nearly half a million dollars of misappropriated trust funds were traced to the Republican party's treasury. In this investigation (which was by no means thorough so far as the Republican party was concerned) it was shown that in the Presidential campaigns of 1896, 1900 and 1904 money belonging to insurance policy holders was paid into the Republican party's treasury by companies and in sums as follows: Aetna Life, $15,000; Equitable Life, $50,000; Metropolitan Life, $7,500; Mutual Life, $90,000; New York Life, $150,000; Prudential Life, $25,000. Later before the Legislative Committee at Albany, Andrew Hamilton, the lobbyist, testified that he had given $75,000 to Mr. Bliss, treasurer of the Republican National Committee. Bliss denied that he had received the money, but Hamilton produced the voucher for it. In this connection this is interesting: "President John A. McCall of the New York Life testified last week that his company had paid over $1,000,000 in the last five years for 'law expenses,' of which nearly half a million went to Andrew Hamilton, who had 'entire control of all legislation introduced in the United States and Canada.'"—Literary Digest, Oct. 19, 1905, page 524. Not a penny of this amount, traced to the treasury of the Republican Notional Committee, has been returned.

BRYAN CLUB MEETING.

The Bryan, Kern and Covington Club of the Fourth District held an enthusiastic meeting in Stam's Hall on Tuesday evening. Mr. Charles L. Dodd, president of the club, presided, and in a few well chosen remarks introduced the speakers, S. Scott Beck, Esq., of the Chestertown bar, and Wm. Mason Sheehan, Esq., of the Easton bar. Mr. Beck made a very favorable impressive in his first speech before a Chestertown audience, and handled the issues of the campaign in such a manner as to stamp him an effective campaign speaker. Mr. Sheehan created a splendid impression by the very excellent speech which he delivered. Earnest, forceful, and to the point, Mr. Sheehan discussed the issue of the campaign with telling effect, and predicted a triumphant victory for the Democratic ticket, and for J. Harry Covington for Congress. Mr. Sheehan is an eloquent speaker and has his facts so well arranged and so nicely blended as to be able to present them to his audience in an effective manner. A good crowd was present to hear the speakers, each of whom left the voters some serious thoughts, and was a hospitable meeting, and each club in the county should hold a similar one. The Chestertown band furnished excellent music for the occasion.

Democrats, don't fail to Register next Tuesday, October 6th. If you are not Registered you cannot vote for Bryan, Kern and Covington.

VIOLATION OF LAW.

We call the attention of the United States government to the violation of the law in this county against the sale of liquor without a government license. We are informed by the authorities of the law here that every man now under arrest for the violation of the Local Option Law is equally guilty of the violation of the government license law, and they can be prosecuted by the United States Government. We are told that many of these violators of the law send to the cities for whiskey by the jug full, and then take it to various places and either sell it by the drink or by the flask. This is a direct violation of the government license law, and we would urge the United States Government officials to investigate the cases and to send detectives into the county to run down the violators and punish them for the violation of the law. The matter is becoming extremely serious in this county, and unless the United States Government protects its law here, our local authorities will have their hands full in finding the violators and in arresting them. If the government liscense law is being violated we call upon its officials to assist our authorities in stamping out the evil. If the prisoners now in jail awaiting trial for violation of the Local Option law are also guilty of a violation of the government license law, the government should punish them also. Let the matter be investigated.

President Roosevelt professes to be horrified at the doings of Haskell in Standard Oil Matters, and is raving frantically in the newspapers in order to direct the attention of the voters from the real issues in the campaign, which he nor his nominee can answer. Note the president's insincerity and unfairness. He knows the infamous Dingley tariff law has been in existence throughout his entire administration. Never once has he raised his voice against this, the offspiring of the Republican party and the greatest robber in this country. He has not only failed to stand for the people's rights in tariff revision, but his convention, that nominated his pet, Mr. Taft, and did his bidding, refused absolutely to take a stand for tariff revision. The crimes of Haskell, and we doubt very much the Governor's guilt, are not to be compared to the thefts made possible by the enactment of the Dingley tariff law, or the filching of enormous sums from the policy holders of large Insurance Companies for Roosevelt's election, and which he knew all about, and yet when Judge Parker accused him of it, he denied absolutely any knowledge of such campaign contributors and made the very man who secured these contributions his secretary of the treasury as a payment to the trusts and insurance companies for their contributions. See what Gov. Cummins, of Iowa, and one of the most prominent republicans in the country says of the Dingley tariff: In a recent speech he said: "All the robberies and thefts committed by all the insurance officers since life insurance was first originated do not amount to as much extortion as the Dingley bill for one year," and yet what has Roosevelt or Taft done to secure the repeal of this infamous law, or to relieve the people from its baneful effects? If the President continues to parade his insincerity before the public, we all will come to look upon him in pretty much the same light as Gov. Haskell does, as a "Four-flusher" and will apply to him the same epithets as does Senator Foraker.
