JEFFERSON.

"THE THINGS AT JEFFERSON'S ARE SO DIFFERENT."

The above was the remark a lady made to a friend the other day. "That's what I've always said." replied the other. "I never like many days to pass without visiting Jefferson's because I should miss so much."

Jefferson's Must be Different, or it Would Cease to be Jefferson's.

Rock Hall Items.

The fishing industry is good and several report good catches. Rock brings 20 cents per pound, and one fisherman reports catching one weighing 50 pounds. Oysters find steady market at 25 cents, and buyers are plentiful. A few crabs are being caught but there is little demand for them.

Politics is the most flourishing commodity in our midst, every one is busily engaged in promoting its interest and are looking forward to a big harvest on November 3rd. Bryan and Taft clubs are being organized and local speakers are nightly addressing them.

From the arrests made sometime ago, it was thought that perhaps the walking-bars and speak-easies would dispose less "spirits" than formerly, but its affects were plainly visible on Saturday night.

Several autos were in our town this week, and the cautious manner in which they passed and repassed through the town was evinced by all. We are accustomed to Mr. Leary's car and often wonder at the patience he manifests in driving through the town. If all autoists exercised the same judgment which he does, there would be fewer accidents and less fatal results.

The guards are learning the tactics and will soon be able to give the public an exhibition of their progress. The guns are ready for them as soon as they become prepared to use them.

Mr. John Lewis while cutting beef one day this week, his knife slipped and severed and artery in his right limb. Dr. Selby soon had the blood checked and artery united. Mr. Lewis is now attending his shop.

Mr. B. F. Legg, the milk-man, feeling tired of dispensing milk took a vacation, and hied himself away to Shepherdstown, W. Va., to recuperate what he lost in beating Coburn and Anderson in getting to town before them.

$65 net was added to the Mite's treasury from the festival on Saturday night. Politicians of both parties were out in force and made their presence known by their generosity.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ashley entertained their sister, Miss Bessie Copper, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Russell, of Chestertown, spent Saturday and Sunday with Rev. J. T. Richardson.

C. C. Kendall, of Baltimore, visited his Rock Hall friends last week. Clarence has just passed the examination for a higher position on the police force. We congratulate him.

Miss Florence Jones is still visiting her sister, Mrs. Carrie Littlepage, of Baltimore, and some one longs for her return.

Mrs. John Hersch and daughter, Mary, are taking in the sights in Baltimore, on Lexington street.

Mr. Charlie Baker, of Havre de Grace, is here on a visit and may be found at his old stand, dealing out patience of which he possesses an abundance.

But little sickness, and now is the time for our physicians to take their yearly vacation.

Dr. Schwatka and Mr. John Downey P. M., exchanged properties this week, the Dr. giving his cottage in Gratitude for the dwelling now used as P. O.

Mrs. William Taylor is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Med. Taylor. Uncle Med says the children are like chickens, "they always come home."

The H. S. Lyceum decided by argument, that carriages were of more benefit than autos. The discussion was very animating at times and many droll comparisons were made, but finally it was agreed that the question contained but one side.

Capt. Kerr paid a flying visit to his family this week, so did Capt. Satterfield, both of these Capts. have the control of yachts belonging to Baltimore capitalists.

Still Pond Items.

Miss Mae Nickerson has returned to Mrs. Severson's to stay during the fall season.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schofield and son, Leslie, have returned to their home after spending the summer at Betterton.

Mrs. Jack Hackett spent Wednesday at Worton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Ford spent Sunday at Crumpton.

The girls and boys can be seen going to hunt chestnuts. There are lots of chestnuts this year and we know what that means.

The Epworth League will be led Sunday evening by Miss Marion Hackett. Topic, "The Christian's Two Sufficient Guides."

Mr. William Thompson has gone to Rock Hall, where he and his son will engage in business.

Don't forget the festival Friday and Saturday night. Come out everybody.

Sunday was a beautiful autumn day, and a large number of people took advantage of it by attending our church services both morning and evening, and they were well paid for coming, for the services were never more interesting or helpful. Some men's faces were seen among the evening congregation. Glad to see you boys, come again.

Mrs. John Boulden led the Epworth League Sunday evening. To the delight of all present, several of our young Epworthians assisted her in this service. Mrs. Ida Schofield is now home and presided at the organ Sunday evening. We trust the league choir will rally to her support, and that the singing will be a great feature to these meetings.

Our pastor's subject Sunday morning, "Law and Grace" continued, and in the evening he will speak on "Repentence." Evangelistic services each Sunday evening. Come and bring a friend with you. A cordial welcome awaits you at all the services.

The Epworth League will hold their business and social meeting on Thursday evening, October 15th, at the home of Mrs. Dr. Lewis Atwell. This is a very important meeting. Besides the regular business meeting, delegates are to be elected to attend the District Epworth League Convention, which meets at Kent Island, October 26-29. Don't fail to be present.

*†*The following experiment is being tried for two weeks at the Chestertown High school following the agitation for one session. All pupils in lower grades are being dismissed in the morning at 11.30 o'clock. They return at one o'clock and are dismissed for the day at three o'clock. We believe the experiment will prove successful.
