THE LADIES' STORE, CHESTERTOWN, MD.

JEFFERSON.

PRACTICAL CHRISTMAS GIFTS

ARE APPRECIATED MOST.

IT'S TIME to get the Christmas Gift, and we are ready to supply them. The store is filled with an almost endless variety of beautiful, suitable, practical and dependable gifts.

If it is your custom to prepare a list of things you're going to give—bring the list here and we will quietly and satisfactorily meet your requirements; if you haven't decided on what to give, write the names, so you wont miss anybody, and let us help you select the gifts.

This store has helped many with their Christmas perplexities during our business career, and it is better prepared now than ever.

EVERYTHING HERE IS DEPENDABLE.

We are proud of the fact that everything in the store, no matter how low its price is if satisfactory quality IS DEPENDABLE. This means a great deal to the purchaser at all times, but particularly in connection with goods intended for gifts, there can always be the comfortable feeling that, whatever is given will certainly reflect credit on the giver's good taste and good judgment.

$15 for Women's Tailored Suits, Regular $17 Value

Think of the saving of two dollars on a suit. Every dollar saved is one made.

Fancy Suitings in Herring Bone Serge, black, blue and brown. Every suit is smart, finely tailored and up to the top notch of good style.

We have lots of other good values in higher price suits. We have them here to please everybody's purse.

Coats for Ladies and Children at a Saving of about one-third

Having sold out of nearly everything in our Coat department, we made a search of the city's and the result is that we are here with the goods at a saving to our patrons from one-third to one-half.

Just think of a long semi-fitted coat either in black or brown, lined with satin at $5.00.

These values to be appreciated you have to see the goods.

In our Children's Department we have the largest and best assortment to be found on the Shore.

"Best Shoes You Ever Bought for the Money"

We say this withont the slightest hesitation. Come in and we will prove that the Children, Men and Ladies can get here positively unmatchable elsewhere for the price. Here's what:

For the Baby, from 25c to $1.00 a pair.
For the Children, from 75c to 2.25.
For the Misses, from 1.00 to 3.00.
For the Ladies, from 1.00 to 3.50.

RUBBERS RUBBERS

Christmas Sale of Handkerchiefs.

This store has stood the test for several years as headquarters for pure Irish Linen Handkerchiefs. For a Xmas shopping it is far in advance of any previous years.

The Full Holiday Stock Comprises

Women's Plain Linen Handkerchiefs Hemstitched; at 5, 10, 15 and 25c.

Women's hemstitched and embroidered handkerchiefs at 15c, two for 25c.

Womenis fancy pla'ds and embroidered Pure Irish Linen from 25c to 75c each.

Table LINEN Bedroom

"A housewife never existed who had too much table linen in her linen chest," said a lady tenderly fingering a pile of the delicately trimmed articles fresh from the works. A good doily, mat, napkin, cloth, etc., works well, uses well, and is good as long as a particle of it remains.

The same is equally true of the bureau scarf, centerpieces, stand covers, etc., and our line is, to say the least, the cream of perfection. The assortment is equalled by few and surpassed by none.

RELIGIOUS MATTERS.

Rev. E. C. Makosky, of Buckeystown charge, formerly of St. James and Lynch's, is in the midst of a great revival. There have been 51 conversions to date, and the interest is great.

Chesterville Methodist Episcopal Church South.—Sunday School at 10 A. M. Preaching at 11 A. M. and at 7 P. M. Service on Wednesday night at 7.30.

Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church South, Millington.—Sunday School at 2 P. M. Preaching at 3 P. M. League service at 7 P. M. Preaching Thursday night at 7.30.

The ladies of the Home Mission Society of Trinity Church, Millington, gave a supper and festival in Catt's store, Friday and Saturday nights of last week, and notwithstanding the severe storm of Friday night a good number took supper, but on Saturday night the place was crowded and a clean sweep made of all kinds of refreshments and of the fancy articles in the bazar department. It was one of the most pleasant occasions in the history of church social work in Millington. The good things on the supper tables and on the fancy tables came from within and without church lines, and the ladies of the church worked in superb harmony, which is indeed indicative of all their work for their church.

As a result of the meetings held in Trinity, Millington, and Emmanul, Chesterville, about 55 persons have become church members and others yet to join. About 70 persons professed conversion. It is said that this was the best meeting held here in 27 years. The conversions were in the old fashioned manner; strong men and women went to the altar under great conviction and settled the matter between their own souls and God.

Still Pond Items.

Mrs. E. H. Collins is spending sometime with her friend, Mrs. Mattie Newlin, in Wilmington.

Mrs. Charles Walter and daughter, Anna, visited Baltimore last week.

Miss Helena Woodall, of near Galena, spent a few days of last week with Mrs. John Jarvis.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Caldwell and children, of Galena, spent Wednesday in our town.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jewell and Mrs. Jack Hackett spent Monday in Baltimore.

Mrs. Lizzie Adams and little Miss Mildred Jones spent Sunday at her home in Cecil.

Mrs. Wm. Thompson spent Wednesday at Worton Station.

In the absence of District Superintendent W. G. Koons, who, as a delegate was attending the Federal Council of Churches in Philadelphia, our pastor, Rev. E. H. Collins, held the third quarterly conference. Excellent reports were made from both Still Pond and Betterton churches.

The pastor, Rev. E. H. Collins, was by unanimous vote invited to return to this charge for another year. Pastor Collins thanked the people for their kind and wholehearted invitation, yet stated that he desired a change at the next conference which meets in Milford March 17, 1909.

Our Sunday services were excellent, and you miss a rare treat when you fail to be present.

Our pastor will speak next Sunday morning from the following subject: "The Beauties of a Christian Life," and in the evening, "Lot in Contrast with Daniel," of whom he spoke last Sunday evening. A cordial welcome awaits you.

The Sunday following Christmas day, Dec. 27, a Christmas offering will be made, and all indebtedness up to January, 1909, is desired by the pastor to be met. If you cannot come, send your Xmas offering for that Sunday.

We will have our Xmas entertainment Tuesday night, Dec. 29. Try, everybody, to be present.

The Epworth League will be led by Mrs. Angie Rasin. We hear Mrs. Rasin is making great preparation, and we hope to see a good crowd present.

Betterton Briefs.

The rain, hail, snow and wind on Thursday morning made one think that winter was surely upon us.

The ladies are preparing for the Christmas entertainment which will be held some evening during Christmas week.

Miss Hettie Crew has returned home after a few days visit in Baltimore.

Mrs. William Pennington and children, of Philadelphia, are the guests of Mrs. Frank Clark.

Mr. Alexander Mair is digging an ice house, when completed will be the largest in town, holding about four hundred wagon loads of ice.

Mr. A. H. Supplee is home from a business trip to Philadelphia

Mr. Chas. Smith and family have moved into the house vacated by Mr. Thomas Brice, recently bought by Mr. Smith.

Mrs. Gertrude Ramert is spending sometime with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Emerson.

Mrs. Hahn and children are home after a pleasant trip to Baltimore friends.

All of our stores have an unusually fine display of Christmas novelties. We need not go away from home to choose our Christmas gifts.

This town is experiencing a building boom, there being five or six houses nearing completion.
