THE REGISTRY LAW.

Messrs. Editors:—In your paper of last week some one who assumes to be a Register of Voters declares that the Registers have the law to govern them, and intimates that they do not want any proffered advice on the subject. We hope and believe that he is singular in this matter, and that he speaks only for himself. Of all things difficult to be understood is law, and hence so many dissertations and treatises on the science; and even with the aid of these, and with study and application, lawyers honestly differ in the construction of law, judges often differ with attorneys, and Superior Courts reverse the decisions of able, but subordinate Judges. We had supposed that the Registers, like all other persons who were disposed to do right, would seek for information and always be glad to receive it, from any and every quarter, and we must still assume the fact to be so, with the single exception of "A Register," whose card appeared in your paper of last week.

How that writer obtained such an insight into the law, whether by intuition, or from some light emitted from the Monumental City, we cannot tell; we only know that the questions published in the Kent News, as those to be propounded to persons seeking registration, are the same that were published in the Baltimore American, with the alteration of one word in one of the questions. Perhaps the writer having so much information from that source is unwilling to receive more, on the ground of the Dutch Justice, who changed his opinions with every speech, and who arrested further debate to prevent confusion of mind.

We had supposed too that a law which, in its import and application, was to effect the vital interests of the people, was a fair subject for comment by those who are interested; but it was left to "A Register" to promulge a doctrine, which is, essentially, to muzzle the press and public sentiment, if it happen to differ with the opinions of "A Register." We can assure the writer that while the freedom of speech and of the press remain unrepressed and unsubdued by military power, we shall exercise our right of publishing our views, whether they suit the taste or the prejudices of "A Register" or not. The elective franchise is of too vast importance and lies too closely at the foundations of our institutions to be trifled with, or be attempted to be destroyed by any loose or erroneous construction of law, or any claim of superior wisdom, which any one, clothed in a little "brief authority," may assume to possess. The mind that can comprehend the great subject of our Government, and the genius and spirit of our people, that wishes to be governed by that spirit and by the principles of constitutional liberty that underlie our institutions, and is resolved to discard party feeling and unworthy prejudice, would desire to be informed upon public matters and public law. A UNION VOTER.

LETTER FROM GENERAL MCCLELLAN.—The Fourth of July was celebrated by the Americans in Geneva, Italy, and among those invited to attend the festival was General McClellan. In response, he wrote a letter, expressing his great satisfaction at the successes of General Grant and Sherman, and the hopes that the Union, now that the war is over, will become more united and prosperous than ever before. He further adds:

"I most sincerely unite with you in the feelings of sorrow and indignation which have been so universally expressed for the cowardly murder which deprived the country of its Chief Magistrate, and in the desire to afford the most loyal support to his successor. I trust, too, that you will unite with me in the hope that, since we have completely vindicated our national strength and military honor by the entire defeat and ruin of our late enemies, our people will pursue a magnanimous and merciful course toward a fallen foe—one that will tend to soften the bitter feelings inevitably caused by a long and earnest war, and to restore the confidence and kind feeling that should exist between those who owe allegiance to the same government and belong to the same people."

A Saratoga letter-writer, in speaking of Gen. Grant's visit, says: "I had the pleasure to spend some time with him, light my cigar by his, and listen while he talked with a young officer of Sheridan's army about the war and the result. Of Sheridan he said, (I remember the exact words): 'He is a good man, and one of the ablest men in this country.' Of Sherman he said: 'There is not a better man in America to lead an army to battle.'—He avowed his belief in the Monroe doctrine, and said: 'Since the setting up of the Monarchy in Mexico was an act which France would not have thought of but for our domestic troubles, it was therefore unfriendly to us, and our Government should at least give all its moral force in aid of the natives against the French."

WHAT THE SOUTH WILL WANT.—North Carolina, the Newbern Times says, will, during the present year, want at least two hundred thousand dollars' worth of plows, and as many more of the various implements necessary for successful farming.—To these add one hundred thousand more for carriages, wagons, &c. Then it will require fifty thousand to supply wooden ware, such as tubs, buckets, pails, barrels, &c., and fifty thousand more to supply candles and soap, while two hundred thousand will hardly be sufficient to furnish shoes for the population. It thinks the people ought to supply these articles for themselves, and not be dependent upon other sources; but to do so requires a still greater expenditure for the machinery and manufactories to make them, to say nothing of the skilled labor required. It will take sometime yet to make North Carolina independent of the North for its manufacturing supplies. In the meantime, our manufacturers can study the present wants of that region and be prepared to supply them.

BALTIMORE CUSTOM HOUSE APPOINTMENTS.—The President has finally made the following appointments of Federal officers for Baltimore city: Postmaster, W. H. Purnell, of Worcester county; Collector, Edwin H. Webster, of Harford Co.; Naval Officer, W. S. Reese, of Baltimore city; Surveyor, Edington Fulton, of Baltimore city; U. S. Marshal, Washington Bonifant, of Montgomery county; District Attorney, W. J. Jones, of Cecil county; Chief Appraiser, J. L. Meredith, of Baltimore city; Assistant Appraisers, E. F. Anderson, of Washington co., and Thos. King Carroll, of Dorchester county. The salary of the Collector is $6,000 per year; Naval Officer, $5,000; Surveyor $4,500; appraisers, $2,500 each, the aggregate expense of the customs being about $120,000 annually.

Col. Webster entered upon the duties of his office on Tuesday, the late incumbent courteously introducing him to his new position, and transferring to him the "seals of office," &c. The acceptance of the Collectorship by Mr. Webster, who is the member elect of the next Congress from the Second Congressional District, of course involves his resignation as such, and also the necessity of filling the vacancy thus created at a special election, to be called by the Governor.

POLITICAL.—The appointment of Colonel Webster as Collector vacates his seat in the House of Representatives. Governor Bradford, of Baltimore county; John L. Thomas, Jr., of Balt. city, and Major H. Hancock, of Harford county, are spoken of in connection with the succession on the Union ticket.

Colonel Holland, of Baltimore, who was defeated by Benjamin S. Harris in the Fifth District, it is said will claim that gentleman's seat in Congress should he be ousted at the coming session. Mr. Holland claims that Harris was ineligible, on account of disloyal practices, but as he was admitted by the House we cannot see that his claim will be of any avail.

EBEN W. FRAZIER, who was convicted of murder in the second degree for shooting John A. Eliason, was stood in the pillory last Friday, and also whipped with the number of lashes designated by the court. To escape this degrading punishment he attempted to starve himself to death a few weeks ago, but on this occasion he was not aware of the obligation resting on the sheriff to inflict this punishment until the time arrived to do so, consequently he was in good physical condition to bear the pain as well as the disgrace incident thereto.—Del. Rep.

EXIT BEAUREGARD.—Gen. Beauregard is expected to arrive in New York in the course of a few days, with a view to his departure for Europe. It is understood that the Government has given him permission to leave the country, on condition that he will never again take up arms against it. It is supposed that he will tender his services to the French army.

RELEASED.—Col. Wilmer has been released from confinement, and arrived in Wilmington last week. The story about his being pardoned upon paying a fine of $2000 is contradicted by the Wilmington papers; he was released unconditionally.

VALUABLE FARM FOR SALE.

THE undersigned will sell at Private Sale his FARM, lying in Eastern Neck, Kent county, Md., situated on Chester River, at the mouth of Grey's Inn Creek,

Containing about 450 ACRES, of which over three hundred acres are arable. The balance is WOODLAND, covered with young Chesnut, (a large portion of which is large enough for rails,) Oak and Pine.

The arable land has been heavily limed, and the growing crops are equal to any in the county. It requires, for its size, but little fencing, being nearly surrounded by water; the fencing required is of chesnut rails and in complete order. There is an Orchard of in full bearing, and also a good Apple Orchard.

The land is of fine quality, and very productive. The location is remarkably healthy, there having been no case of Bilious or Chill and Fever on the Farm for seventeen years. The neighborhood is also desirable; Churches, Post Office, Schools, Stores and Mechanic's Shops, are very convenient.

The situation is considered the best and most desirable on Chester River, which is on the South side of the farm, and four miles wide at this point, while Grey's Inn Creek, half a mile wide, is on the East.

Several Steamboats run daily to and from Baltimore to Grey's Inn Creek, where there is a Wharf, which is about a mile and a half from the house. The Boats pass within three hundred yards of the Dwelling.

Fish, Oysters, Terrapin and Wild Fowl are abundant in season, and can be procured from the River and Creek near the Farm.

THE DWELLING

is frame, two stories high, in thorough order, with a KITCHEN and PANTRY attached; also, a School House, Wash House, Dairy House and Quarter. There is a Barn fifty feet long, with Stabling, in good order.—Also, Corn Cribs, Sheds, Colt Stables, &c.

The proprietor will take pleasure in showing the Farm to any one who may wish to examine it. Possession will be given the first day of January next, or immediately if preferred.

THE TERMS OF SALE:

One-tenth of the purchase money on or before the first day of January next, and the balance in ten years from the 1st of January, 1866: one-tenth to be paid each year. The credit payments to bear interest, and to be secured by mortgage on judgment.

A larger cash payment may be made if preferred by the purchaser, and any reasonable change in the above terms will be made. Every facility will be given to the purchaser to sow wheat, &c.
