WEDNESDAY,
The SIXTH of DECEMBER, 1865,

at half-past eleven o'clock, A. M., at the Voshell House, in Chestertown, the following REAL ESTATE in Kent county, which belongs to the heirs of the late William S. Constable, deceased.

1.—THE FANCY FARM,

lying on the main road, about four miles from Chestertown, containing about 800 ACRES.

This property is divided into twelve fields of about 40 to 60 acres, well fenced; the cross fencing mostly of Chesnut. There are four Lots of about five acres each, and two small lots. Also an ORCHARD of about 200 to 300 Apple Trees, and about the same quantity of Peach Trees. The land was formerly well limed; the soil is a good loam, adapted to the growth of Wheat, Corn and Oats; also, to clover and other grasses and to fruits. The land is very kind and productive. There are about 600 acres of arable land, and 200 Acres of

WOOD AND TIMBER.

A portion of the Woodland lying nearest to Chestertown might be sold, leaving an abundance for the supply of the Farm. A considerable number of Timber trees, Oak and Hickory may be sold, to the amount of several thousand dollars, without lessening the value of the property—the soil, when cleared, would be of a superior quality for agricultural purposes.

There is a running stream of water on the upper part of the farm, watering several fields. Several other fields are also watered.

The Buildings,

consist of a DWELLING containing nine rooms, two Halls, and two Stairways; also a Kitchen. Also, a good DWELLING occupied by the manager. The Out-Buildings are, two BARNS, with Corn-Sheds attached; one large STABLE, besides SHEDS for Horses and Cattle; also, a Machine House, with Meat and Poultry House. On the upper portion of the Farm there is a comfortable DWELLING new, but not entirely finished, with a Back-Building used as a Kitchen; also, a BARN, with Stabling, &c.

This property will be surveyed, and laid off into two Farms, also into three Farms, and will be offered as a whole or in parts, to suit purchasers—plots will be exhibited at the sale.

Mr. JOHN BRICE, the tenant, will take pleasure in shewing the premises to those may call and desire to examine them.

This is one of the best and most beautiful Farms in the county, and is noted for the salubrity of its location. There is a very fine Lawn with trees from the public road to the main Buildings.

No. 2.—A FARM, usually called

"The Forest Farm,"

lying within a short distance of the "Fancy," and adjoining the lands of the late Samuel E. Baker, Wm. Thomas Baker, Evan Thomas and others, containing 322 ACRES.

It is divided into six fields, well fenced, and well drained. The soil is very fine, and the land remarkably productive. All the grains and grasses grow well.

consist of a comfortable TWO-STORY FRAME DWELLING, about the centre of the Farm, with Kitchen. A good BARN, with Corn Sheds and Stable attached, with other necessary Out-Buildings.

There is a School House very near each of the farms, and both are convenient to Churches, Post Offices, &c.

THE TERMS OF SALE

of each property, are:—One-fifth part of the purchase money to be paid on the day of sale, or in thirty days thereafter, at the option of the Trustee, and the balance in three equal instalments, in one, two and three years from the first day of January next; the interest payable half yearly, and to be secured by the bond or bonds of the purchaser or purchasers, with security to be approved by the Trustee. "GREAT OAK MANOR," or "MOUNT AIRY," late the property of John B. H. Anderson, deceased, containing

300 to 400 ACRES,

and adjoining the Gamble and Handy Farms.

This Farm is divided into six fields, and has a PEACH ORCHARD of 500 trees about four years old, of different varieties. The whole Farm has been limed several times—the soil is naturally kind, has been improved, and grows grain and grasses finely. One field near the Bay has sometimes yielded 850 barrels of Corn. There is a sufficiency of WOOD and TIMBER for the Farm, but Drift Wood can be gathered in quantities sufficient for the uses of the Farm.

This property is naturally divided and may be converted with great facility and little expense into two Farms, requiring about 250 to 300 pannels of fence to make the division about equal. Fencing good post and rail. There are very considerable beds of Oyster Shells in the banks, which are accessable, and may be burned with the drift wood near at hand.

THE DWELLING

is of Brick, and was erected in 1860, and is three stories in height. In the main building are six rooms; the back building is of brick and new, two stories high, with four rooms, pantry and Kitchen. There is a Piazza in front; also one back, covered, and the entire length of the additional building.—The Kitchen is new and of brick. There is a good Cellar under the main building its entire length, divided into three apartments. There is a QUARTER for hands. The OUT-BUILDINGS are an OVERSEER'S HOUSE, two large BARNS, with two long Sheds for Stabling, MEAT HOUSE, POULTRY HOUSE and CARRIAGE HOUSE; also, Corn Cribs. The Dwelling is finished, and one of the best in the County.

The situation of this property is high, commanding and healthy, lying immediately on the Chesapeake Bay, and is one of the most pleasant and desirable residences and Farms in the County. It is distant about thirty miles from Baltimore, and about two from a Steamboat Landing.

Mr. WM. F. ANDERSON, residing on the premises, will shew the premises to any who may call to examine them.
