OPPOSITE STAM'S HALL.

SOME SHOE SENSE.

This Shoe sale which starts to-day is entirely different from the usual shoe sales and from any sale that we have previously held. Shoe sales are generally made up of shoes bought for the occasion, which neither have the store back of them as to the comfort or wearing qualities.

We have put into this sale right from our regular stock, shoes from $3.50 to $4.00 a pair; they have to be moved during the dull season to make room for our mammoth spring business. Now most of these we have in every size and last.

These great values are not of the out-of-style shoes or the undesirable shapes, but brand new fall and winter styles, patent colt skin, kid and gun metal, button and lace.

Call and see the greatest sales ever offered to the public in shoes, and note the saving on each pair.

Shoes That Were $3.50 and $4 Now $2.59.

TAN SHOES FOR LADIES AND MISSES.

We have the largest assortment of tan shoes ever shown in Chestertown for Ladies and Misses. The manufacturer came to us and offered us a lot of Tan Shoes that were made up for a party who failed in busines, at a great sacrifice, these shoes were made to retail at $5.00 a pair. We are going to give our trade tbe advantage of this. They are here for the small sum of $3.50 a pair. Call and see them, they are certainly beautiful.

RUBBER SHOES

FOR LADIES AND MISSES.

MILLINERY MERCILESSLY CUT

The millinery season just closed surpassed by far our most sauguine expectations to say the least, it exceeded all previous occasions—and that is saying much. Greater preparations were made, more varied styles were shown, detail and finish given the most strict attention, hence the large season was the consequence, yet there still remains a few of the choice patterns that must go before the spring season dawns upon us and we, right at the opening of the new year, have mercilessly slaughtered the price on all remaining stock. The price placed upon each hat is far below its actual value, yet they must go, as we need the space, you need the hat, and it has been our purpose in the past, and our intentions now to to have a general clean-up at the close of each season. We start to-day, the sale is on and on in earnest, and we suggest to them who have not as yet bought their winter head-gear to call early and get the pick. The price will please and hat must suit, or no sale.

Kennedyville Items.

We are having moonlight nights this week and we always enjoy them, and we surmise that the old folks look back to the time when they and their sweethearts went on a moonlight sleigh ride or to the skating party with much pleasure. The young folks in Kent are not having that opportunity very often so far this winter, and while some would enjoy much colder weather, there are the thousands of poor people who can struggle through the mild winter that could not battle with zero weather. So there is only one conclusion—our Ruler and Maker knows what is best.

Harper Webb, E. R. Walls, E. B. Pennington and Chas. Nickerson enjoyed a short trip to Baltimore the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Comegys spent last week with relatives in Wilmington.

D. T. Nickerson spent several days in Wilmington and Philadelphia last week.

Mrs. Ben Dill, who has been quite sick, we are glad to hear is much improved.

The Farmers' Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Shafer on Thursday of last week. Several farm topics were discussed, among them being the growing of tomatoes this year, and the prospect is not bright for fancy prices per ton. At the present price of corn, it gives the farmer a question to decide which he should grow. The ladies asked a question whether it would be the best thing or not to have street cars running on Light street, Baltimore. This question brought out quite a diversity of opinion. Mr. Jas. S. Harris was a strong advocate for the cars. Mr. T. Shafer thought it would bo safer for the traveling public to not have the cars run on the street, and some spoke of having an elevated road which would solve the problem; but this was thought to be too expensive for the railroad people. The Parcel Post question was interestingly discussed by the members, and after having a profitable and very pleasant meeting they adjourned to meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bonwill the last Thursday in February. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. T. Shafer, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Pennington, Mr. and Mrs. James S. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Pennington, Mr. and Mrs. Capt. Daniel Hill, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jarrell, Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Rasin, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Price, Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Redmile, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Redmile, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Hague; Mesdames Rachel Hill, Ida Scotten, Lavinia Harper and Charles Walters; Misses Emma Meeks, Blanche Redmile, Louise Pennington, Lizzie Pennington, Emma Shafer, Palma Redmile, Mr. Abe Crawford.

Still Pond Items.

Mr. Wm. Krusen visited Vineland last week.

Miss Mary Steele, of Galena, spent a few days at the home of Mrs. Charles Severson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jarvis spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Jarvis.

Mr. Wm. Thompson returned to his work at Rock Hall after spending a week at his home in Still Pond.

Miss Anna Bowers spent Monday and Tuesday at her home in our town.

Miss Mary Capps has returned home after a pleasant visit with her aunt, Mrs. Sutton, Betterton.

The apron and necktie social, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Price Tuesday night, was quite a success. The amount cleared was $21.30.

Mrs. Wm. Medders is enjoying an extended visit to Wilmington, Philadelphia and New York.

Rev. Wilson Buxom, of Marydel, visited our pastor, Rev. E. H. Collins, this week, and has been helping him with his revival services at Betterton, and they have been very successful the past week.

Our pastor, Rev. E. H. Collins, will begin revival meetings here on Sunday night, Feb. 6. Rev. Sunfield, of Felton, Del., will be with him the first week, and he will have others to help him. Try and come out to enjoy these services.

The Epworth League will be led Sunday evening by Mrs. Leonard Price. Welcome to all these services.

Lynch Items.

We are glad to state that Miss May Craner, who has been real sick, is much improved.

Mrs. Nicholas George is visiting freinds in Wilmington.

Mrs. Walverton and friend, of Camden, New Jersey, are visiting the former's parents near here.

Mr. Al Parsons was given a surprise by the people of this place on Tuesday evening.

Mr. George Rasin expects to go to Rock Hall to attend the High School.

Some of our townsmen and boys have been busy catching turtles from Still Pond mill pond this week.

Mr. Fred Cornelius visited Wilmington last week.

Mrs. Craner is among the sick.
