No wharf to exceed those limits

the Sugar House wharf, or to the east side of Burke street; and within said bounds no wharf or extension shall exceed those limits; expressly reserving, nevertheless, to all persons interested the benefit of any heretofore legally acquired right of extension, either from the old Board of Port Wardens or under the Corporation. Provided, That all extensions or wharves made under the authority of this ordinance, or otherwise within the bounds aforesaid, shall be made, built or constructed in a good and substantial workmanlike manner, to be approved of by the Port Wardens. And provided also, That the several persons who may hereafter extend or wharf out their grounds under this ordinance, or the permission hereby granted, shall at the same time extend and fill up Aliceanna street as far as the same extends through their grounds respectively, and the same leave open as a public highway forever thereafter.

Port Wardens authorized to make alterations in the width of Jones' Falls.

4.—And be it enacted and ordained, That the Wardens of the Port of Baltimore be, and they are hereby, fully authorized and empowered to make such alterations in the width of Jones' Falls, from Pratt street to the City Block, as they they may deem proper, expedient and necessary. Provided, That the assent of persons owning property thereon within said limits be first had and obtained.

5.—And be it enacted and ordained, That all streets, lanes and alleys heretofore laid out within any and all of the ground by this ordinance permitted to be extended shall at the same time be extended with the private property of the several and respective proprietors who may extend their grounds, at the expense of the persons so extending respectively, as far as the same may pass through their property, and be left as public highways forever thereafter.

Approved May 9th, 1816.

No. 27.

A supplement to the ordinance entitled "An ordinance to restrain gaming, and for licensing and regulating theatrical and other public exhibitions within the city and precincts of Baltimore."

Theatrical exhibitions extended to the 5th July, yearly.

1.—Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That all theatrical exhibitions within said City be, and they are hereby, authorized to be continued until the fifth day of July in each and every year, anything in the ordinance to which this is a supplement to the contrary notwithstanding.

Proceeds to be applied to the relief of wounded, &c.

2.—And be it enacted and ordained, That all monies arising from license for theatrical exhibitions within the said City be, and they are hereby, applied to relieve the distresses of such of the citizens of Baltimore as were wounded, or of the families of those who were killed, in the battles of Bladensburg and North Point, and bombardment of Fort McHenry, in the year eighteen hundred and fourteen.

Approved May 11th, 1816.

No. 28.

An ordinance to provide for more effectually lighting the streets, squares, lanes and alleys of the City of Baltimore.

Mayor may contract with gas light company.

Whereas, it is represented to the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore by Rembrandt Peale, on behalf of himself and others, who have associated and formed a company by the name and title of "The Gas Light Company of Baltimore," that they are willing to contract to light the streets, squares, lanes and alleys of this City, in a more effectual manner, and with more safety, convenience and beauty by means of Carburetted hydrogen gas than they
