Last Sunday was the 50th anniversary of the First Methodist Protestant Church, Newark, N. J. Rev. C. M. Compher, of Wesley Chapel, this county, preached the morning sermon, and Rev. Dr. J. M. Sheridan, president of the conference, preached at night. The exercises have been continued during the week. Among the ministers who have taken part were Rev. Dr. J. L Mills, Rev. F. C. This is regular harvest weather and the whir of the reaper is abroad in the land. The report from the farmers is that the crop is fairly good.

Mr. W. L. Meredith is going out of the farming business. His plans are not generally known, but it is hoped that he will remain in the vicinity.

Miss Mary Spry is spending a month in Wilmington with friends.

Mrs. Crittenden is spending sometime in Washington and other places.

Miss Lula Benton, who was spending last week at the parsonage, went home sick, and when last heard from was no better.

The subject at the M. E. Church South next Sunday will be: "The Influence of a Good Woman."

This seems to be the season for dropping dogs and cats around at the different homes by those who have been careless enough to allow the crop to get beyond home consumption. To say the least of it, is it not bad neighboring? Who wants anybody's cast off dogs and cats? What about applying the law for cruelty to animals?
