OBITUARY.

MISS MARY N. ELLIOTT.

Miss Mary N. Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Elliott, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. S. A. Ivens, on High street, on Tuesday morning at 11.40 o'clock, after a long though patient illness of a complication of diseases, aged 37 years. The deceased had been in poor health for years, but possessed with a strong will and a sunny disposition, she battled against her ailments until they became so burdensome that she was compelled to submit her body a prey to disease. To those who knew the deceased intimately, she was a most lovable and faithful friend. Her implicit faith in God, and her absolute resignation to His will enabled her to bear her ills with patience, and never did she allow her physical condition to influence her regard and sympathy for those she loved so well and with whom she delighted to associate. Miss Mary was a friend in the truest sense of the term. Never an unkind word or a harsh rebuke escaped her lips concerning any one with whom she associated, and her chief delight in life was to make some one else happy and bright. Had she been possessed of an abundance of means, her large heart and her great sympathetic nature would have led her to do great deeds of charity, but with the little she possessed she did what she could to smooth life's pathway for her aged and beloved parents, and to add some ray of sunshine to every life with which she came in contact. Always faithful to every church duty, always loyal to parents and friends and every ready to do what she could for those she loved, she exemplified the teachings of her Master in the quiet and beautiful life she led, and as a consequence, she will be sorely missed in the church, in the home and in that social relm in which she was a bright sunbeam. It was our pleasure to claim her as one of our Sunday school scholars, and it is a joy to testify to her beautiful christian life, her absolute faith in the promises of her Saviour and to her loyalty to friends and associates. It may be said of her in absolute truth that she did what she could to further the kingdom of God upon earth, and she has laid aside the cross to take up the crown.

Funeral services were held from the residence at five o'clock on Thursday evening, conducted by Rev. Dr. F. T. Little, her pastor. Interment was made in Chester cemetery. A quartette from Christ Church choir, composed of Mrs. James H. Shuster, Miss Addie S. Hurlock, Mr. James H. Shuster and Mr. Thomas D. Bowers, sang favorite selections. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Harry and Preston Ivens, Clifton and Harry Coleman, Arlington L. Sparks and George R. Rasin. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful and included pieces from her Sunday School class, Christian Endeavor and from many friends. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

LIZZIE BELLE GREENWOOD.

Lizzie Belle, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Greenwood, died at the home of her parents near town last Friday night of double pneumonia aged 14 months. Funeral services were held at the residence on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock conducted by Rev. Dr. F. T. Little. Interment was made in Still Pond Cemetery. The pall bearers were Carrie V. and Lula Greenwood, Helen Silcox and May Moore. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements..

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. George Chairs died at the home of its parents on High street on Wednesday, of cholera infantum, aged 1 year and 14 days. Funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon at one o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett. Interment was made in Chester cemetery. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Town Election.

A town election will be held in Galena to-day and the contest promises to be quite exciting. An election was held some weeks ago but resulted in a tie vote, and the election to-day is held by law to decide the tie. One faction has Messrs. Holt Woodall and Thos. Stradly for its candidates, while the opposing faction has Mr. Theodore Dempsey and Rev. A. P. Prettyman as its candidates. The result will be watched with interest.
