LOCAL MATTERS.

A Painful Fall.—Mr. John N. Dodd fell from his front porch to the pavement on Wednesday evening sustaining a fracture of the shoulder, cutting his face close to the eye and bruising his limbs. Mr. Dodd was painfully if not seriously hurt and has since been under the care of Dr. Frank B. Hines.

Rev. Sutton Head Master.—At a meeting of the trustees of St. Paul's School for boys, in Baltimore, on Tuesday, Rev. J. Wilson Sutton, who has been assistant rector of Old St. Paul's Church for the past two years, was elected head master to succeed Mr. Miles Farrow, who has accepted a responsible position in New York. Rev. Mr. Sutton is well-known in this county.

NEWSY BRIEFS.

*†*Mr. William Steel is installing water service in the yard of Mr. T. E. W. Crew's farm, near Lankford.

*†*Prof. W. J. Boyer, of Queen Annes, has been elected principal of the Millington school to succeed Prof. Charles Wheatley who recently resigned.

*†*Prof. A. S. Hall has mounted for Mrs. William Medders, of Still Pond, a beautiful barn owl. It was on exhibition in the TRANSCRIPT office this week.

*†*Every day last week, from Sunday to Sunday, the thermometer registered above 90° in Chestertown. It was the hottest week for many years in the month of June.

*†*Mr. Andrew Woodall has rented Rev. A. P. Prettyman's farm, near Galena, now tenanted by Mr. Thomas Stradley. Mr. Stradley will remove to another farm next year.

*†*Mr. L. H. P. Vansant has moved into his cozy new home on Mt. Vernon Place. Mr. Wm. H. Lambert has purchased a desirable lot on the Place, and will erect a new home there.

*†*Mr. Samuel Sparks has rented one of Mr. Owen B. Crow's new houses on High street for 1910. The residence on High street now occupied by Mr. Sparks and owned by Mrs. A. M. Bowers, is for rent for next year.

*†*This is the last night of the moving picture show during the summer months. Special great big program for to-night—the best show yet to be given. Go to-night. It's your last chance.

*†*Anybody who buys one dollar's worth of goods from Mr. Barclay Kilbourn at Fairlee to-day, will be treated free to ice cream. That's where you can get cooled off and get your money's worth besides.

*†*The first ripe peaches of the season were brought to Chestertown on Sunday evening by Deputy Treasurer Edgar P. Beck from the orchard of Mr. Joseph R. Usilton. They are of the Arp variety, and were grown from trees furnished by Mr. Harry L. Boyd. The peaches were about the size of Troths, and were of good color.

RELIGIOUS MATTERS.

Wedding Bells.

BARNES—HALEY.

Mr. Harrison Whitehill Barnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Barnes, of Chestertown, and Miss Willie Isabelle Abbott Haley, a prominent young lady of Wilmington, Del., were married in Immanuel P. E. Church, Wilmington, Del., on Saturday evening last, the ceremony being performed by Rev. K. L. Hammond, the rector. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. William H. Haley. After the marriage the happy couple left on a wedding trip to Atlantic City, to be gone two weeks. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Barnes will reside at 1004 West Eighth street, Wilmington, where the groom is manager of a large printing establishment.

MAHER—STEVENS.

"Cedar Lone," the pretty home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clay Stevens, of Crumpton, was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Wednesday at noon, when their daughter, Ada Cormelia, became the bride of Mr. James Edward Maher, a prominent architect of Baltimore. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Promptly at the appointed hour to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played skillfully by Miss Lucille Godwin, organ, and Prof. Godwing, violin, the bridal party entered the parlor, where the ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Wilson. The bride entered the parlor on the arm of her brother, Mr. Samuel Stevens, of South River, N. J., by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a beautiful gown of white lace over white satin and carried bride roses. The groom and his best man, Mr. Mathias Usinger, of Philadelphia, wore the conventional black. Immediately following the ceremony, which was performed in the presence of only the immediate families, dinner and refreshments were served by Caterer Stevenson, of Smyrna, Del., after which Mr. and Mrs. Maher left for a wedding trip to Boston. The going-away gown was of braided pongee. They will reside at Cheswolde, Baltimore, after Aug. 1st. The bride was the recipient of numerous handsome and valuable presents.

WARD—JONES.

A pretty wedding took place Thursday afternoon at the Methodist Protestant Church at Brooklyn, Anne Arundel county, when Miss Aladelva Bibb Jones, daughter of Rev. John B. Jones, pastor of the church, was married to Mr. Harry Irvin Ward. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with greens, carnations, honeysuckle and field daisies. Rev. Dr. Jones, the bride's father, performed the ceremony, assisted by her uncle, Rev. S. A. Hoblitzell, of Belair, Md. The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother, Mr. F. Robertson Jones, of New York, by whom she was given away. The groom entered the church with Mr. F. Carlyle Jones, of New York, also a brother of the bride, who acted as best man. The bride wore a gown of Irish point lace over white silk and carried bride roses. Miss Elizabeth Lewis, of Harve de Grace, Md., niece of the bride, was flower girl, and wore white messaline and carried a basket of pink carnations.

The ushers were Dr. J. B. Jones, of Philadelphia, and Alfred L. Jones, of Brooklyn, brothers of the bride; Rev. R. K. Lewis, of Harford County, Md., and S. A. Hoblitzell, Jr., of Belair, Md., the latter a cousin of the bride. Miss Bessie Gunkel, of Warwick, Cecil county, Md., played the Lohengrin wedding march as the couple entered the church, and Mendelssohn's march as they passed out. During the ceremony Rubinstein's melody in F was softly played. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Ward left for a trip to Old Point Comfort, where they will spend their honeymoon, and on their return will reside at the Royalton Apartments, North and Maryland avenues.

Among the out-of-town guests present were Rev. and Mrs. S. A. Hoblitzell, Belair, Md.; Miss Nannie Ward, Laurel, Del.; Miss Katherine Mathews, Glenwood, Howard county, Md.; Dr. and Mrs. John B. Jones, Philadelphia; Miss Bessie Gunkel, Warwick, Cecil county, Md.; Mrs. Clara Earnshaw, Washington, D. C.; Rev. R. K. Lewis and Miss Elizabeth Lewis, Harford county, Md.; and Mrs. Estelle Briney, Havre de Grace, Md.

A Severe Storm.

The heaviest electrical storm of the summer visited Chestertown and surrounding country on Sunday night, refreshing temporarily a sweltering community, but doing considerable damage. The rainfall was probably the heaviest of the year, it beginning to rain about 7.30 o'clock and continuing at intervals during the entire night. The heaviest rain fell about three o'clock Monday morning. Rain spouts were powerless to carry off the water as well also as the town sewers, and as a consequence many cellars in the town were flooded, one having as much as six feet of water in it. The lightning was incessant, and the thunder was like unto a bombardment. A valuable horse belonging to Mr. Frank Shinn, in Quaker Neck, was killed, five sheep and two lambs at Mr. George Beck's in Lankford, the sheep belonged to Mr. Beck and the lambs to Mr. H. Stockton Startt were killed by lightning, and a shock of wheat in Mr. Herman's Bramble's field near Lankford, was struck by lightning and destroyed. Several other shocks in Mr. Bramble's field were swept by the rain down to Brice's mill branch. The storm closed one of the hottest weeks ever experienced in this section in the month of June, and its severity may be due in a measure to the excessive heat. It furnished very little relief from the heat, for while the mercury did not rise so high, yet Monday was one of the most uncomfortable days of the summer on account of the humidity. The oldest residents of the town state that not within their memory has so much rain fallen during one storm as fell on Sunday night, and never have they known such blistering weather as we have experienced in these "rare" days of June.

Lightning set fire to Mr. Fletcher Caulk's barn, near Sassafras, but it was not destroyed. A house in Cecilton was damaged by a bolt, and a shock of wheat in Mr. Walter T. Morris' wheat field, near town, was destroyed.

Late reports from the storm on Sunday night state that 10 sheep belonging to Mr. S. G. McCollister, of near Church Hill, were killed by lightning, a barn on the M. deK. Smith and Hynson heirs farm near Crumpton, was destroyed. This property, together with Mr. B. F. Shinn's horse, noted elsewhere, were insured with Jos. N. Wheatley & Co.

In the storm of Thursday night which followed the hottest day of the summer, two valuable colts belonging to Mr. Jesse R. Copper, near Kennedyville, were killed by lightning. They were insured with Mr. Edgar P. Beck.

Big Reduction in Carriages.—Wm. Medders & Co. of Still Pond are having a big reduction sale in carriages. They advertised a big cut price sale last week and since then they have had big sales. The buyer will now find it to great advantage to visit Medders & Co. during the cut price sale. See their big Adv. page 8.
