Public Library News.

The Chestertown Public Library is just issuing a new catalogue, the last it purposes issuing as a whole, since such catalogues are out of date as soon as published and the Library Board feels it would be for the better interest of its patrons to invest this money in new books. Hereafter, the local papers have kindly consented to publish a list of all new books as added. These lists the patrons can cut out and pin to their catalogues and so keep up to date. Following are the books just added. The board begs you to notice the children's books, more will be purchased from time to time, and it is hoped the children will take advantage of the choice books offered.

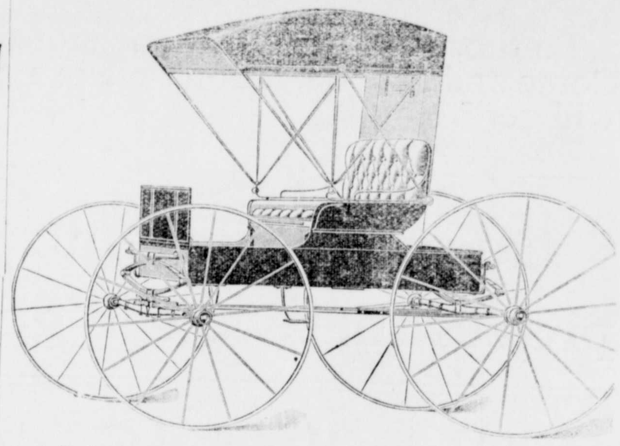
BIG REDUCTION IN CARRIAGES!

Cut Prices Means Quick Sales.



In last week's issue we announced our clean-up sale in Carriages and Runabouts, and explained the reason for making this sale.

We have had customers from many parts of the county and all have been well pleased and certainly well paid for coming. This is the biggest PRICE-SAVING SALE we ever made, and we could not possibly afford to make it had it not been for the rainy spring season.

We have a large stock and have decided to give our people the benefit of big reduced prices in order to move this big stock.

The line is unbroken and will include the FINE WATERLOO and all other jobs.

If you need a Vehicle, come and get a bargain. THESE LOW PRICES WILL MAKE MANY SALES.
