HARRY F. JEFFERSON,

THE LADIES' STORE,

Opposite Stam's Hall Chestertown, Md

Kennedyville Items.

Our farmers are threshing and some are stacking their wheat, and while the crop is small and somewhat inferior the price is good, and while we must not try to cross the bridge until we get to it, yet, the man that buys flour the coming year will have to pay more than in the past.

There will be some changes among our farmers the end of the year. Some who will change are George Lane, Harry Redding, Mrs. Harry C. Price, Harvey Moore, Mr. Benton, Mr. Logan, Wm. L. Meredith, Wiley Hudson.

Our community was sorry to hear on Tuesday of the death of Mr. Eli Hastings, who, for the past eighteen months has made his home with Mr. Frank Sylvester at Sassafras. Up to that time Mr. Hastings had lived near Kennedyville for probably thirty years or more, and with the exception of a few years, had made his home with Mr. Smith Burris, on the White House farm now tenanted by Mr. Phil Meyers. The funeral services were conducted on Thursday morning in the M. P. Church, by Rev. C. M. Cullum, of Warwick. The pallbearers were John R. Bennett, Capt. Dan Hill, W. J. Hurlock, Thos. Jones, Isaac Cleaver, Wm. H. Whiteley. Interment in M. P. cemetery.

On Friday night of last week the W. C. T. U. held its monthly meeting in the M. P. Church. Rev. Mr. Reynolds gave a very interesting talk, he also sang a very nice solo. The president called on him to fill the places of several that were unable to come, who were on the programme.

The Sunday School and church services are being very well attended, still there will be room made for any who will come these warm Sundays. The services are short and helpful.

We had a nice shower on Tuesday evening which was badly needed and which helped vegetation very much.
