Grange Notes.

The Chestertown Grange held a well-attended meeting on Tuesday evening. Arrangements were made for attending the Pomona Grange at Betterton on Thursday next, July 29th, and much other important business was transacted. A committee on the purchase of scarlet clover seed received orders, and a committee to make arrangements for the purchase of fall fertilizers was named. $18.75 in dues were collected. The chairman of the delegation from Chestertown Grange, Mr. Samuel Vannort, was instructed to invite the Rich Neck Farmers' Club, which will hold a session at Betterton on next Thursday, to be the guests of the grange. Mr. Vannort was also instructed to ask for the next meeting of the Pomona Grange in Chestertown the last Thursday in October. Chestertown has a special reason for desiring this meeting which will be stated by the chairman of the delegation at the meeting in Betterton.

The Queen Annes County Grange will hold its regular quarterly meeting in Church Hill hall next Wednesday, the program of which has been published in the TRANSCRIPT.

Still Pond Grange held its regular meeting in Grange Hall Monday, July 17, attendence fair. Mrs. A. L. Harris was appointed pianist and Mrs. John Bennett was appointed assistant pianist. A blackboard has been placed in the grange hall for the benefit of grangers who have products to sell or buy. One of the interesting features of the program for Monday, July 26, will be a round table by Mr. F. H. Cornelius: "Is it better to market cereal crops at the prevailing prices of harvest time or to hold them in the hope of a higher figure?"

The following is the interesting programme to be rendered at the County Grange meeting at Betterton on Thursday, July 29:

Purse Netters Caught

Mr. Sidney Jones, secretary of State Game Warden Horace F. Harmonson. called at the Governor's office in Balto. Wednesday and reported that he had succeeded Tuesday in arresting a number of purse-net fishers near Betterton.

According to Mr. Jones, the following men were arrested:

George Davis and crew, of Rock Hall, in the schooner United, in Worton creek, between Handy Point and Worton Point. Charge, purse-netting without a license and purse-netting in forbidden waters.

Thomas Sewell and crew, of Rock Hall, on the schooner Mary E. Crockett, in the same locality as the United. Charge, purse-netting without a license.

William Stevens and crew, of Rock Hall, on the schooner Rebecca, in the same locality. Charge, purse-netting in forbidden waters. He has a license which expired at midnight Wednesday night.
