OBITUARY.

MRS. MARY JANE LAMBERT.

Mrs. Mary Jane Lambert, one of our oldest and most highly esteemed residents, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Brown, on Wednesday night after a long illness, in the 68th year of her age. The deceased was the sister of the late William Hamilton, formerly sheriff of this county, and the widow of the late Henry Lambert, for many years mail clerk on the local train, and a former sheriff. Mrs Lambert was an active member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and was a woman of noble christian character. She leaves two sons, Messrs. Wm H. Lambert, deputy postmaster, and Edward Lambert, postal clerk on the Easton road. She also leaves the following daughters: Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mrs. Wm. H Brown, Mrs. J. B. Burchinal, Mrs. Frank M. Miller, of Chestertown; Mrs. Seth Ellegood, of New York State, and Mrs James Vansant, of Philadelphia. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at four o'clock at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Arthur M. Brown, conducted by Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett. Interment was in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Jas W. Lambert, Jas. W. Chapman, Charles L Dodd, Wm. H. Lambert of Edward, W. Bradford Copper and M. A. Toulson. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MISS BERTHA M. BIDDLE.

Miss Bertha M. Biddle, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Noland, died at the home of Mrs. A H. Crew on High street on Thursday of typhoid fever in the 20th year of her age. Funeral services will be held this morning at 10 o'clock in Double Creek M E Church, conducted by the pastor. Interment will be made in the cemetery adjoining the church. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd will have charge of the funeral arrangements.

Fine Show at Betterton.

The Palisade Casino at Betterton, under the management of F. P. Angelier & Son, opened last Saturday and is a big attraction. The performance consists of clean vaudeville of the highest character and the performers are the best of their kind in the business. The Casino has been erected and features provided at considerable expense to the management and the people of Betterton and those who visit the resort may attend the performances with the assurance that they will see a good, clean show. The prices of admission are popular and within the reach of every one. A full bill of particulars will be found on page 1 to-day.

RELIGIOUS MATTERS.

Mass every Sunday morning during August at Sacred Heart Church, Chestertown, at 8.30 o'clock.

Next Sunday will be the regular communion Sunday for the members of St. John's R. C. Church, Rock Hall. Confessions will be heard on Saturday evening and on Sunday morning before mass.

A big crowd attended the St. James picnic at Worton Manor Beach on Thursday, and as usual a jolly good time and a sumptuous dinner were enjoyed.

Emmanuel M. E. Church, South, Chesterville.—Sunday School at 9 30. Preaching at 10.30. League at 7 30. Wednesday night service at 8.

Trinity M. E Church South, Millington.—Sunday School at 2 Preaching at 3 League at 7.30 followed by short address.

Trinity Sunday School will hold its annual picnic at the home of Mr. William Felton, on the river, Tuesday of next week.

Other religious matters may be found on page 6 of this issue.

Educational Notes.

Miss Etta B. Croswell has resigned the principalship of Piney Neck School to accept a lucrative position in Baltimore county.

Miss Rose Duyer has resigned as teacher of Quaker Neck School.

The Board of Visitors and Governors of St. John's College have awarded the contract for re-building McDowell Hall, which was recently destroyed by fire to the W. A. Walters Company, of Baltimore whose bid was $65,000. The Hall will be rebuilt upon the old lines of the building as far as possible.

With Our Advertisers.

The Peerless Fertilizer Company has its fall trade advertisement in this issue. The company has had a most prosperous year due to the fact that they have made the best goods they know how to make and sold them at the lowest possible cost. Give them a call before buying.

Stock-taking time is over at Hochschild Kohn & Co's big store, and there are just crowds of bargains that you can secure. Look into this matter.

Low prices on all summer goods for the month of August at Boulden & Schofield Bros., Still Pond. See price list page 2.
