What's Behind the Varnish?

Did you ever see a hypocritical piece of Furniture.

It pretended to be so and so—but it was REALLY behind the varnish, something very different.

Such Furniture as that never fooled us—and never will. The sham is too easy to see through.

But it's always a legitimate question to ask the Furniture Man what is behind the varnish.

With this store there is never any masquerading. Oak is always oak, mahogany is mahogany and ash is always ash. If you pay for a certain quality you get THAT quality—always.

And behind our "say so" is a business standing that is ready to correct any mistakes that we may make.

Missionary Anniversary

The S. S. Missionary Anniversary at the Chestertown M. E. Church, was held last Sunday evening, and was one of the largest and most successful ever held in that church. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity and the program was beautiful, entertaining and instructive. The collection was the largest in the history of the school and reflects great credit upon officers, teachers, scholars and pastor, who worked earnestly and faithfully together to bring about this result. The program of exercises was as follows:

Chorus by school—Jesus Shall Reign.

Recitation, "Just a Penny"—Little Miss Cora McWhorter.

Recitations, "Foreign Missions"—Twelve children of Primary Department.

Anthem by Choir—"How Excellent are Thy Works O Lord."

Singing, "Little Missionaries"—Primary Department.

Male Quartette—"Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," Messrs. T. S. Bordley, T. H. Hill, A. L. Sparks and E. Roland Matthews.

Marching Song "Dropping the Pennies" by Primary Department.

Bishop Hebners Hymn "From Greenland's Icy Mountains" sung by Miss Louise Armstrong and typified by Misses Minnie Brinsfield as Greenland; Mamie Layman, India; Ethel Ringgold, Africa; Isabelle Lambert, Rivers and Plains, representing benighted countries; and Misses Rebecca Davis, Clara Coleman, Frances Miller and Esther Todd, representing the enlightened countries.

Solo and quartette "Seek ye the Lord" Mrs. Merrick Clements, Misses Hallie Toulson and Edith Dunbracco, Messrs. T. S. Bordley and E. Roland Matthews.

Address by pastor, Dr. L. E. Barrett.

The report of the class contributions for the month and year, was as follows:

Scale on Trees in Chestertown

Those who seem to know about the depredations of the San Jose Scale state that nearly every shade tree in Chestertown is badly affected with it. Mr. Edward Robinson, who helped to trim the shade trees and haul away the tops which were cut out two years ago when the new telephone wires were strung, states that the scale then was thick on nearly every tree. If this is so, it is only a matter of a short time before the beautiful shade trees in Chestertown will be bare trunks and leafless branches much as were those which stood in front of T. W. Eliason's store and the Second National Bank, also at Wm. M. Slay's residence.

Some of our citizens have been writing to the State Horticultural Department. Mr. Symons, the State Entomologist, says there is a public sprayer in Chestertown and he is trying to make arrangements with some one to work it. Public spirited citizens and our Town Commissioners should take an active interest in this matter and see that every effort is made to kill and destroy this dreadful pest. The following letter was written to one of our citizens:

MY DEAR SIR:—I have your favor of the 22nd. instant and beg to advise that it is my purpose to inaugurate a public sprayer at your town at the earliest possible date. I cannot say at this writing when this will be possible. I have a rig in your town which I will take up just as soon as I can get a man to operate it.

Hoping that we may be successful in controlling the pest on the trees in the town, I am,

THOS. B. SYMONS,
State Entomologist.

Big Year For Book Concern.

Rev. Dr. A. S. Mowbray, Secretary of the committee on the book concern of the Methodist Episcopal church, at its recent meeting, in Cincinnati, was one of the seven members chosen as a committee to select the meeting place of the next quadrennial session of the General Conference, which will probably be held in some city in the West. The book concern during the year did a business of $3,000,000, and the committee declared the largest dividend in its history, $175, which will be applied for the relief of retired ministers, and widows and orphans of deceased ministers.

--The most familiar sound of spring we have heard during the week is Gen. Cadwallader's cry of "Fresh Fish! I got yellow neds, white perch, catfish and flounders." Flowers have been in bloom in some of our flower yards, and the blackbirds and robins have made their apperance.
