Fine Price for Farm.

The sale of the Hurlock farm situated near Kennedyville, and advertised in the TRANSCRIPT, brought a crowd of moneyed men from Kent and Queen Annes counties on Tuesday, when the farm was offered at public sale by the trustees, Messrs. Hope H. Barroll and Sydney P. Townshend. This is one of the finest and most productive estates in Kent county, situated right in the heart of her richest farming lands, and improved by comfortable and convenient buildings. The bidding was spirited, and when it was all over, Mr. William T. Baxter, who lives on the farm, and one of our most skillful and enterprising young farmers, was the successful bidder, paying $17,900 for 203 acres, or $86.50 per acre. This is within $1 of the price per acre of the Aldridge farm sold last spring, and is an evidence of what good land in Kent will bring. Automobile Commissioner John E. George, of Sudlersville, was here to bid but did not remain in the race long. The 9-acre wood lot was withdrawn on an insufficient bid. This shows what the TRANSCRIPT can do. It works while you sleep and while you are awake.

Terrible Cutting Affray.

Two of the deck hands on the steamer B. S. Ford, one named Williams, who was recently employed, and the other named Davis, got into a terrible fight on Tueaday afternoon as the steamer was rounding Swan Point bar on her approach to Rock Hall wharf. Williams drew a knife and so terribly cut and mangled Davis that he was hurried to a Baltimore hospital in a launch shortly after reaching Rock Hall. There were severe cuts on the back of the neck, on the forehead, in the abdomen, and the left hand was almost severed at the wrist. The cutting grew out of a quarrel and Williams claimed that Davis started to hit him with a monkey wrench. Captain Taylor and Officers Woodall and Wilson were quickly on the scene and put a stop to the fight, but when they found Davis he was lying in the dining-room floor as bloody as a stuck hog. Davis was accompanied to Baltimore by Dr. Bealle, and Williams was arrested and lodged in jail after the arrival of the boat at Chestertown.

Celebrates 41st Birthday.

Samuel J. Tilden, the oldest horse in the United States, owned by Mr. Joseph Guest, celebrated his 41st birthday yesterday, May 6th, amid the splendor and glory of the pump house lot, and in the free exercise and enjoyment of his faculties. We gave an account of this event and a history of the horse some time ago, and he is a perfectly familiar and much prized object to the citizens of the town, who are justly proud of his age and good looks. The old fellow is in fine condition, good eyesight, unblemished limbs, actions of a colt for a short time when harnessed, and well able to perform light service. His only defect is that he is not sure footed. Any one wishing to buy him address Joseph Guest, Chestertown, Md. Price, $5,000 cash.
