THE WHIE.

EASTON, MD.

TUESDAY MORNING, Sept. 28, 1830.

In the last Gazette, we have noticed a comreply to a review of his resolutions adopted at scene which ensued is not be described. the Anti-Jackson Caucus in this county, which had been extracted from the Baltimore Republican; and although Mr. Goldsborough, has addressed himself to the editor or writer for that journal, we cannot permit his publication to pass without a brief notice of some its Mr. Culbreth, in his card of the last Gazette.

of the Republican, that he had calumniated Chancery records. Andrew Jackson, in calling him "the enemy of the Union," says "this is blind misrepresentation"; that this body of men thus called Disunionists were by him "specifically located to the South." If this language mean any thing, it is that he does not charge upon the Jackson party generally the sin of being "Disunionists." He confines it to the Anti-Tariff men of the South; and yet we see him an open, avowed and strenuous opponent of the Tariff, the advocate of the very principle on which these Southern men sin beyond redemption, exhorting the people of Maryland to spurn from Jackson party of Maryland, whom he here openly acquits of the charge. Again in speaking of these Southern men, he uses this lan- My fellow citizens: guage, "Do not be ashamed of your company "gentlemen, you never were in better. Pray "do not abjure your friends, you never will "find truer. These Southern men are among "the loftiest men in your ranks; they are truly "chivalrous men-men of honor, &c. Believe it is pollution to mingle, but even with their ty friends. This gentleman may think there is danger to the Union and to the liberties of our country from an intercourse with "men of hon-"of the loaves and fishes, but act from principle" boy's pen, we cannot but hold up to the ridicule and contempt of every intelligent mind. cnough to see through it. If you regard your reputation Mr. G. let us admonish you not again to be "advised by your friends." Keep silence.

But to return to these Southern men, we think with Mr. Goldsborough, that they are men of honor, not impelled by sordid principles. We regret the delusion, (or what we esteem a delusion) under which they labour in regard to with them; but believing them to be governed bestowed by that article on Col. Hughlett, but of Col. Hughlett's bill, the people were not what addicted to the American System.— throw Maryland into a hopeless opposition. by principle, we are anxious to conciliate them. having no ill feelings towards him, I should consulted, and as far as Mr. Henrix, and Col. This being your character, I leave it to your land the property of these forcible reasons for in support of the tariff, the check which he has given to the wild and visionary projects of Internal Improvement in his veto on the Maysville road bill, and the determination he has shewn not to permit sectional feelings to govern his actions, nor to sanction the acts of Congress growing out of such unjust principles, are in our humble judgment much more likely by his bill to heal the differences with our Southern brethren and to cement the bonds of our Union, has created all this discord, and the obstinate the money raised by the taxes out of the peo- proceedings of 1828, pages 516, 554 and 613,) perseverance in which without mitigation, is ple's pockets in the hands of these five Commis- and no single instance is within my knowledge likely to drive them to desperation. We would take some notice of Mr. Goldsborough's apology for his N. England friends of Hartford Con- ly disposed towards this "great measure?" vention memory, but our time and pressing engagements will not allow us. We leave him to the notice of our friends of the Baltimore Republican, who, we have no doubt, will do him ample justice.

party carry the whole State—Governor, both ring on the people the right of electing the high stations, and have had opportunities, Houses of the Legislature, and Congress. Where do the friends of Mr. Clay expect to get the votes necessary to his election?

on board the Steamboat William Peacock, by which several persons lost their lives—the bill proposed to place all the money which by the Steamboat their lives—the bill proposed to place all the money which below the proposed to place all the money which below the proposed to place all the money which below the proposed to place all the money which below the proposed to place all the money which below the proposed to place all the money which below the proposed to place all the money which below the proposed to place all the money which below the proposed to place all the money which below the proposed to place all the money which below the proposed to place all the money which below the proposed to place all the money which below the proposed to place all the money which below the proposed to place all the money which below the proposed to place all the money which below the proposed to place all the money which below the proposed to place all the money which the proposed to place all the money which Another Steam bout disaster. A terrible dis- Hughlett's Republicanism.

cylinder, gave way, which instantly discharged the munication from R. H. Goldsborough, Esq. in upon the deck. The apartment was thronged with

COMMUNICATIONS.

[FOR THE WHIG.

A Card .- The political friends of MR. HAR-RISON, in Caroline, deny the assertion made by He did not give Mr. Harrison a signal defeat, to it. Mr. Goldsborough in reply to the assertion and they are not yet satisfied respecting the

One of the People.

Caroline, Sept. 24th 1830.

[FOR THE WHIG.]

PRECIOUS CONFESSION Edward N. Hambleton, the political friend and active partizan of Col. Hughlett, stated yesterday morning, in the office of the Eastern Shore Whig, in substance:

That William Hughlett's bill for abolishing the Levy Court was an electioneering trick got up by him to secure the county officers to the Adams party; and thathe (Hambleton) did no their considence as the friends of Disunion, the blame Henrix if he did oppose the bill, as stated by Hughlett.

If this be as stated by Hambleton:

to make wholesome laws for the security of "and fishes, they act from principle and will not time in getting up intrigues and practising arcould be bestowed on any body of men than is before it is too late, and say through the ballot lits operation. (See votes and proceedings of able to copy. To Mr. Mayo was also left their brough "be in your way." What higher eulogium tifices, to deceive and delude the people-reflect here bestowed on these Southern men, these box on next Monday, in a voice of thunder, enemies of the Union," with whom not only that you condemn such men to lasting obscuri-

Monday, 27th Sept.

ams man, because I do not like Jackson; but lower house, and being now deprived of these with neglecting to do, what you had contracted propriations, and rendered an augmented NA-"or," who "are not impelled by any sordid love when I see foul play, I am apt to suspect that anti-rejublican and aristocratic features, which to do, and what you were paid for doing. This when I see foul play, I am apt to suspect that all is not right. You know that our Adams in its first shape so much disfigure it, and in you have not denied in your publication. You -but we do not. These "men of honor" thus leaders had a meeting at Quaker-town last Sa- fact made it any thing rather than republican; will never deny it in writing, though you may veto doctrine, to principles of administration. turday. Well, Col. Hughlett's handbill was -it was voted for by Mr. Henrix, and voted still boast of your triumphs before "a portion of in the general government, which would re-"governed by principle" stand not in our way, handed about among the people, and was read against by Col. Hughlett, Spry Denny and the people of Caroline." of our country in the late war; they did stand plain about the charge they were reading against plain against plain against plain again or our country in the way of foreign foes and domestic traiin the way of foreign foes and domestic traiwe hear these men talk about Jackson, and arbitors. Mr. Goldsborough has forgotten when trary power, and call themselves democrats. experiment, and before they submitted the peopenning this paragraph, that these "men of Shame! shame! If Col. Hughlett's ple to Col. Hughlett's sehemes and experiments, of the Council? If you knew you were not in Congress. honor" who "are governed by principle" are handbill was the truth, Henrix could not hurt I think they were right, and discharged their able to attend to these accumulated employhonor" who "are governed by principle are the infected portion of the inhabitants of his right that the people should be imposed on by of its population, or he would not have told us blown shout he are to be they were willing to submit to it or not. in conclusion "they will not be in your way." He will not suffer us to hear any information but year's tenure of office, providing for the faithcautions the people of Maryland against trust- what they judge proper? As to my part, I am ful accountability of the people's money, and point a suitable person in your place. Sup- and the equal rights of all her citizens ing that portion of her citizens called "Jack- a Freeman, and I am resolved not to be im- proposing to pay but 'a decent respect' to their pose you had superintended the work yourself, opinion as much as they, and I will not vote Sport Department of the administration warred against the roruopinion as much as they, and I will not vote Spry Denny and George Dudley to vote against and frauds, instead of preventing them; in that LAR WILL.—Before the development of any the South, infected with a political plague for one of them, because I cannot believe in the bill, is it not nonsense to talk of their rewhich is likely to be communicated to the them any more; and when the tickets are spect for the people, their republicanism, &c.? sum you received? If you would not have been tested, and rightful and salutary opposition. whole party, and in the next breath he calls thinking, or lam mistaken. They can blow these Southern men "men of honor," "govern- hot, and blow cold, just as they like:—it is led to believe that their object was to amuse, reasonable or just that you should receive ter persecuting warfare against a president, ed by principle," and exhorts the friends of the mighty wrong in Jackson to turn bad men out not to serve the people, did not the indignant nearly six thousand dollars for the fraud and elected by a majority unexampled in the histoadministration not to abjure them, not to be of office, like Toby Watkins and Barney and office, like Toby others, and very right in them not to suffer an sulting the people's wishes, force on us the tution prohibits any member of the Executive stration of popular preference and affection, to honest man to defend himself before his fel- conviction that they had determined to set the from participating in the profits of any other which our annals have no parallel case. ashamed of them, that they are the "loftiest men in our ranks" "the very elite of the corps." low citizens—they cry about among us that people at defiance. alists to-morrow, and serve under federalists mind, that the people should have his law in his has a salary sufficient for his support, and his Maryland, to get control of the State;—not Such inconsistencies, unworthy of a school- they are democrats to-day, and vote for feder-

A FREEMAN. TO THE CITIZENS OF TALBOT

induced them to resort, I find the public atten- county, but it is also a fact, that it was well vices which you never performed.

The mild, temperate course of the President find his title to it had not the republication of tion his title to it, had not the republication of friends, a majority of opinions appeared to be land, enjoying the privilege of speech and lections by the support of Gen. Jackson, it is that article in a handbill form satisfied my against the bill, until something more could the liberty of the press, should forbear to worth while to inquire, what do the opposition mind, that the real object of the writer was be learnt of it. Under these circumstances a- speak of public abuses, because you threat- expect from success? What benefit is to acto cast unmeritted censure on Mr. Henrix, ra- lone, it was the duty of a prudent man desirous en them with a law suit. I leave it to your- crue to Maryland, by joining in a desperate al ther than to tickle and flatter Col. Hughlett. of conforming to the will of the people, to I therefore respectfully submit the following pause for information and reflection. But has

Court, five Commissioners, to serve three years? year, against electing the Levy Court of Alleits faithful forthcoming when called for?

Has Col. Hughlett been always thus friend-Did not Col. Hughlett in the progress of this measure before the Legislature, evince an utter disregard and contempt for the wishes and opinions of the people? I have heard it asserted as a fact, and I am compelled to believe it, from the votes and proceedings of the last session (see page 120 of the proceedings of the Senate), that this

WERE TO HOLD THEIR OFFICE. And confine myself to one or two prominent facts. in the interim the people were to have no more You wish to be attacked in company with the control over their own money, than they now | Executive, of which you no doubt considered have over Col. Hughlett's. & So much for yourself the most influential member; and as-Col. Hughlett's economy and care of the pub- sert that you can establish the purity and prolic purse. Does he thus take care of his own?

I have understood that Col. Hughlett's bill in the above odious and abominable form, was through the lower House in the absence of Mr. | Caroline. As it was so easy to refute Mr. faction, and that the cardinal points of policy istration, and become one of a desperate mi-Henrix, with all these imperfections sticking about it, it was amended by Col. Lloyd, by striking out in the first place, that outrageous and anti-re

Harrison, why could you not gratify your for which they contend, are, Low Taxes; the rapid extinguishment of the public dearges? In the first place, that outrageous and anti-re
Harrison, why could you not gratify your for which they contend, are, Low Taxes; the rapid extinguishment of the public dearges? In the first place, that outrageous and anti-re
Harrison, why could you not gratify your for which they contend, are, Low Taxes; the rapid extinguishment of the public dearges? In the first place, that outrageous and anti-re
Harrison, why could you not gratify your for which they contend, are, Low Taxes; the rapid extinguishment of the public dearges? In the first place, that outrageous and anti-re
Harrison, why could you not gratify your for which they contend, are, Low Taxes; the rapid extinguishment of the constitution, and become one of a desperate infinity, and the deargn in the caronial points of three years; and by inserting in the place of it, ought to excite in a man of your consequence. the State governments in full possession of their quiry, which every citizen may answer for came down from the Senate with this amend- | the same suspicion. ment, Col. Hughlett, Denny and Dudley voted You were employed to superintend the re- Against these principles, on various preten-

the aristocratic principle.

(See handbill.) -49 Mr. Mullikin.—I have always been an Ad- Col. Lloyd, went down from the Senate to the destruction of records. But you are charged congress a bargaining system for votes and ap-too-and think the people ha'nt got sense own way, right or wrong, want it or not. No situation gives him advantages over other men, that all men of the opposition, openly avow or he could not condescend to consult them; if in obtaining Executive patronage. they would not take his own law in his own way, they should not have it in their way. Really this looks a little like the old leaven. He could scarcely have Hectored it more with one of his boast as much as you please about your won-

Did not Col. Hughlett's bill propose to place gany county by the people, (see votes and Col. Hughlett has not been against the increase of the suffrage of the people

A VOTER. Saturday Evening, Sept. 25th, 1830.

[FOR THE WHIG.] Annapolis, September, 1830.

To THOMAS CULBRETH,

The returns of the election in the State of Maine are not entirely received, but sufficient Maine are not entirely received. boasted Republican measure of Col. Hughlett, the conduct of Gen. Jackson, you threaten evehave been received to make it quite certain that the Republican majority in the State will be at least two thousand. The democratic party carry the whole State—Governor, both members of the Levy Court (under the name which you turned to good account of laying of Commissioners), it contained the abomina-up money enough, to enable you to sue your Paris, Aug. 12.—As, at this important crisis, ble and odious provision that these Commis-old neighbours for telling the truth. But I sioners SHOULD HOLD THEIR OFFICE have been advised by counsel, that any man every person in Europe is more of less inter-THREE YEARS. So much for Col. Hughlett's Republicanism.

The So much for Col. Hughlett's Republicanism. It is further asserted as a fact, and for proof of the truth of it, see votes and proceedings of the Truth from being given in evidence. My number not ascertained. About 20 were badly scalded. The following is from the Buffalo Journa' of the above date:

The Steamboat William Peacek left this port at nine o'clock this morning, for Detroit, and when about four miles outside the light house, a joint in he pipe which conveys steam from the boilers to the

against the bill because of the amendment. See cording of the Chancery papers, and received ces the opposition is embodied. A blind unhandbill. It destroyed, says Col. Hughlett, between five and six thousand dollars for the reasonable hatred to General Jackson,—a steathe rotational principle-meaning, I suppose, care and labor which it was supposed you dy instinctive hostility to republican principles the deep and lasting ruin prepared for your safe keeping of the public money, and for its To his discretion it was left, what papers against the administration. The partisans of faithful payment to those entitled to receive it. were to be recorded, and all were recorded, this faction are considered as having embark-And also, inasmuch as the change designed whether of value or not, that the profits of ed themselves, on these various pretences of the bill for one year, in order that the peo- dy been recorded by the present Register. pledges him and them in favor of INCREAS-Levy Court, before they become subjected to destroyed such as were difficult and unprofit- munity which earns their bread by the sweat of the Senate, page 120.) CF- Col. Hughlett op- the computation of the work, which it was his They are too, supporters of the CLAY doc- painful illness, HENRY C. 3d son of Foster posed both of these amendments, the last with interest to overrate. It is said and believed, trine opposed to Gen. Jackson's vero poc- Maynard, Esq. of this county. so much violence, that his opposition to that the words were counted on a side that TRINE—and consequently advocates of that and the first amendment caused himself, Den- was closely written, and that every other side profuse expenditure of public money for local JEFFERSON. ny, and Dudley, finally to vote against the bill. in a whole record was then estimated to con- purposes, which would have been established tain the same number of words. You are not in the Maysville bill, -a principle which would Col. Haghlett's bill being thus amended by charged with this forgery, false calculation and have beggared the Treasury, established in public employment; and the spirit of this pro- These we take to be some of the prominen Col. Hughlett it seems had made up his vision would equally prohibit their Clerk. He grounds upon which a party is organized in > ery intelligent man must admit that you ought a common interest, discordant elements of par to have been removed from office. You may derful triumphs in Caroline, but you will not |-we have not permitted ourselves to doubt of

18th instant, to Col. Hughlett's bill for abolish- ple of Queen-Anne's county, and being unani- obstinate in your temper nor conceited in elections, the importance which they attach mously supported by the Queen-Anne's Dele- your opinions, but like Henry Clay you are to them, by signally and irretrievably defeat-I do not subscribe to the lavish panygerick gation, it accordingly passed. But in the case the humblest of the most humble, and some- ing the motley party, which is laboring to I therefore respectivily submit the ionowing pause for information and reflection. But has a course of violence twenty States which support him? Besides hear of a purchase, by applying to the subcurries and reflections to the consideration of true principles, which support him? Besides hear of a purchase, by applying to the subcurries and intimidation. Perhaps you were of opinand intimidation. Did Col. Hughlett consult the people of this not invariably opposed all such extensions of ion that a little clamour would be considercounty on the important change contemplated the right of suffrage? It will be found that in ed as a proof of your innocence. You ought be the sacrifice of the interests of Maryland for the year 1828, Col. Hughlett voted against the to have remembered that Toby Watkins, the mere purpose of distributing offices among Did not Col. Hughlett's bill propose to elect bill for electing the Levy Court of Washing- Miles King and a host of swindlers and de- needy partizans, and embarking the State in in place of the now annually appointed Levy ton county by the people. And in the same faulters adopted the same system, without a feverish contest against an overwhelming I leave it to yourself to say, whether you had not hopes of being continued in office by the nion, have demonstrated the utter hopelessness dec'd now occupied by Lambert W. present Executive, and whether you did not of the cause of the Anti-Jackson party. A brief missioners, to be held by them without bond for until in the case of his hopeful bantling, where say, that you would, in that case, take no and candid sketch of the results as they have further part in the contest between the been developed, will shew how completely present parties. If you had been retained, in all parts of the Uuion, the opposition has you would have endeavoured to keep in, by failed in its attempts to array any strength in your moderation; as you were turned out, you its crusade against the present administration. now attempt to recover your place by your violence. You have this excuse for your pre- elected to the Legislature—and a Jackson sent course: you have so long been accustom- | Senator will be elected. ed to office, that you cannot be satisfied with-

While you are publicly censuring that I bear you no ill will, and that I have sup- son majority is hot far from ten thousand, and pressed many things out of tenderness to your a Jackson Senator will be elected.

Paris, Aug. 12.—As, at this important crisis, men in both houses of the Legislature

From the Baltimore Republican.

THE COMING ELECTION. The principles contended for, by the opvoted for by Col. Hughlett, Spry Denny, and the Executive, and every body from blame in expected to influence the judgment of the ly met by the friends of General Jackson, and Forge Dudley. Mr. Henrix being absent from the House, confined to his room by sickness, did not vote against it, as he no doubt would, had he been present, and unable to obtain amendments. The contest is a special of the find of the judgment of the judgm you completely refuted the charges, made by General Jackson in this State, rally in defence the ranks of the Republican party, lose her Col. Hughlett having managed to get his bill Mr. Harrison, at a meeting of the people of of his character and principles against a selfish proper influence in the Councils of the Adminpublican clause, by which these five aristocrats and folly," and yet in your notice of it, betray squandered, and the halls of Congress from who are hungering and thirsting after an opof Col. Hughlett, were to hold their office for more anger than so contemptible a production a debasing scramble for money, and preserve portunity to proscribe? This is a grave ina provision for the election of five Commissioners | Persons, ignorant of the facts, would suspect, rightful powers;—a proper rotation in office himself. every year at the same time that Delegates are from your irritated feelings, that you were which shall destroy the growing aristocracies cleeted to the Legislature. 45-Col. Hughlettob- conscious of the truth of the charges; and I, which had begun to deform the purity of our iccted to this amendment, and when the bill who am acquainted with the facts, entertain institutions; and finally the supremacy of the town being nearly completed, public worship people's will constitutionally expressed had bestowed upon the work submitted to -personal devotion to a fallen politician, - ing, &c.-A sermon appropriate for the acces-Col. Lloyd further amended this bill by in- your superintendency. Instead of doing this feelings of personal revenge, from disappoint- sion may be expected. serting a provision that the money collected work for which you were so well paid, you ed office seekers, and ejected office holders, from the people should not be placed in the employed Mr. Mayo, a careless and ignorant defaulters and peculators;—these are the pashands of the Commissioners, who were to give no clerk, to examine and correct the records which sions and motives, which have stirred up the ed that there will be a Love Feast in the mornbond, but that it should be placed in the hands of had been made up by himself and his associ- furious and unrelenting opposition which wa- ing before public service .- The doors closed ges in Maryland such a relentless warfare at 9 o'clock. closed in this precious confession. Col. Hugh- to be made in the transaction of the public bu- the job might be enlarged. Even forgery was direct hostility to the distinguishing principles field, Mr. Thomas Gannon, to Miss Ann Stitchlett elected by the freemen of Talbot county, siness of the county was a most important one committed for the same purpose, in altering of Jackson policy which we have enumerated. BURY all of this County. to the people, Col. Lloyd added a clause by the date of a long decree, that it might appear The open declaration of Mr. Clay at Cincinway of amendment, postponing the operation as an unrecorded paper, though it had alrea- nati, respecting the SALT and MOLASSES duties, "are not impelled by any sordid love of the loaves labour out of the people's money, spends his ple might see and judge for themselves, and Not only were useless papers recorded, but in ED TAXES on those necessaries of life—taxsay by their votes this fall whether they would some instances, valuable papers were destroy- es which the Clay organ in this city once call- Esq. General James Lloyd, in the 74th year have this new law, or not, in place of the old ed. It is said and believed that one of the clerks ed a HEAVY TAX upon that portion of the com- of his age.

They are, moreover, committed in this anti- tv.

When you received your money for doing of Maine) "below the grade of petty cor- IN pursuance of an order of the Commission-eity of the immagination, whose disease was likely to be spread through the whole extent likely to be spread through the whole extent of its normalition, or he would not have told us they think us such looks that we are to be they were willing to submit to it or not.

| Solution | They have also, from the commencement

Let your conduct be fairly viewed, and ev- signs, but a spirit of selfishness has bound into ty, maintaining substantially all their views. Upon these points, the battle is to be fought,

Among the topics of electioneering to It is true that a bill did pass the Legislature, venture to deny in writing, that you receive the result.—We believe that a full sense of which the desperation of the Adams party have to abolish the Levy Court of Queen-Anne's ed upwards of five thousand dollars, for ser- the importance of the question, is entertained You are an exceedingly modest man, not and that they will demonstrate in the coming

I leave it to yourself to say, whether you had The recent elections in every part of the U-In Louisianna-A Jackson majority

In Mississipri, among six candidates-one only for the opposition,—a Jackson member You will perceive, from what I have said, of Congress is elected, and the aggregate Jack-feelings. As a farther proof that I entertain In Missouri, two-thirds of the Legislature

In Indiana, the Clay majority in the Le-

IN MAINE, the Clay party which held the power has been routed and defeated, and all branches of the government are Jacksonian. Such are the results of the fall elections, so

The Methodist Episcopal Church in this will be renewed on next Sabbath at 11 o'clock, A. M. at which time a collection will be taken to assist in defraying the expenses of plaister-

N. B. The members of Society are inform-

MARRIED

On Thursday 11th inst. by the Rev. Mr War-

Another Revolutionary Hero gone. Died on Monday last, in this county at the Cottage, the residence of Wm. H. Tighman, Departed this life on Saturday the 11th inst. in the 15th year of his age, after a short but.

In this County on Monday last, Mr. JOHN In this county on Tuesday last Mrs. Topp, consort of Mr. Jeremian Todd. In this county on Tuesday last, Mrs. ELIZA-BETH ROBINSON, in the 70th year of herage. On Saturday last, Mrs. ELEANOR HOPKINS consort of Mr. Rigby Hopkins, of this coun-

COLLECTOR'S NOTICE.

They maintain a HEREDITARY and INALJE- all those tracts and parcels of land (or such of Talbot county Taxes for the years 1828 and 1829.

Easton, sept. 28, 1830 4w

PUBLIC SALE.

WILL be sold at public vendue on the premises on WEDNESDAY the 6th of October between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock, P. M. a lot of ground being part of the tract of land called Londonderry, situate on the North side of Cabinet Street extended, costiguous to the town of Easton, and containing the quantity of 4 acres and 7-8 of an acre of land. There is en excellent stable, carrige house and granary on the premises-The soil is of excellent quality and the whole well enclosed-Terms made known on the day of Sale.

WM. TOWNSEND, Agent. Sept. 28

SALE. In addition to the property advertised to be sold at Belle Ville, on THURSDAY next, the 30th inst., there will be also sold, on the same credit of six months from the delivery, the entire crop of corn, by parcels or lots of ten barrels, to be delivered at the Farm yard, and good gig and harness.

JOHN LEEDS KERR. Easton, Sept. 28.

WOOD LAND.

NY person having a good SPRUCE A PINE WOOD LOT, say from 500 to Farm for Rent.

FOR rent for the next year, two thirds of the farm of the late Robert Larrimore, Ford; situate about 3 miles from Easton, on the road to Wye Mill. The terms will be made known on application to the subscriber,

QueenAnn's, or at Easton. ROBERT LARRIMORE, Adm'r. de bonis non of Robert Larrimore, sepr. dec'd. sept. 21

JORICE.—Was committed to the jail of Frederick County, on the 17th day of August last, as a runaway, a negro Man, who calls himself JEFFRY, and says he belongs to Elijah Robertson, of Culpepper County, Vir ginia; had on when committed, a striped domestic close body coat, old cassinet pantaloons, old fur hat. He has a scar over the right eye and one on the back part of the left hand; is about fifty