LOCAL MATTERS

Special Meeting.—A special meeting of the Fairlee Grange will be held in the Grange Hall next Wednesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. Mrs. T. B. Kilbourn will edit the Grange, and Mr. Jas. T. Anthony will deliver an address on Dairying. A full attendance of the members is desired.

Pomona Grange.—Notwithstanding the bad roads and cold weather a large number of grangers were present at the quarterly meeting in Still Pond on Thursday as guests of the Still Pond Subordinate Grange. County Lecturer Smyth prepared an excellent program, which was much enjoyed and of a profitable character. Captain Silvester, president of the Maryland Agricultural College, was present, and delivered an interesting talk upon an interesting agricultural subject.

A Visit from Santa Claus.—People are going to Medders & Co.'s at Still Pond, from many miles distance. They have really outdone themselves this season in order to give our home people exactly what they would find in a city trip and at far less prices. Their success in this matter is due simply to their efforts in the way of real merchandising. Old Santa Claus visits their place on next Wednesday and Thursday. See our full page advertisement this week.

Officers Elected.—At a regular meeting of Chester Camp, No. 8745, Modern Woodmen of America last Thursday evening the following officers were elected: Consul, M. E. Newsome; adviser, J. F. Thompson; banker, Walter U. Lusby; clerk, John W. Barnes; escort, Calvin T. Ryan; watchman, Chas. L. Dodd; sentry, J. G. Usilton; manager for 3 years, Clifton L. Jarrell; physicians, H. L. Dodd and H. B. Simmons; Camp deputy, M. E. Newsome; asst. deputy, J. F. Thompson.

TOLD IN BRIEF.

—Mr. B. S. Sutton, of Blacks', is the first merchant in the county to offer 50 cents a dozen for eggs. He will pay that price next Wednesday.

—Eggs 50 cents a dozen; corn 47 cents a bushel. In what year in your experience was a dozen eggs worth more than a bushel of corn before 1910?

—The White Rose Minstrels will show in Stam's Hall on Wednesday evening next, December 14th. Wait for them. They are good, all right.

—It is reported that Mr. J. Thomas Blackistone has purchased the store business of Mr. Thomas W. Trew at Lankford, and will conduct same after January 1.

—Mr. Percy Rawleigh and family leave here next week for Florida. Mr. Rawleigh has disposed of all his property here, and will make his permanent home in the land of flowers.

—The cow stable, shedding, poultry house and 160 bundles of fodder on the Veazey farm near Cecilton, owned by S. Wills Lusby, were destroyed by fire last week. The farm is tenanted by Mr. Joseph Woolleyhan.

—Three fine race horses raised by Mr. James Merrick, of Sudlersville, were sold at the Old Glory Sale in New York recently. They were Happy J., 2.10¾, for $375; Happy F., 2.11¼ for $775 and a five year old mare, Happy Dun for $170.

—All the lumber for Mr. Frank E. Duyer's cosy new home on Queen street has arrived, and Mr. Duyer expects to have it under roof by Christmas, if the conditions are favorable. There are a number of applicants to rent it.

—The first sleighing snow of the season fell on Monday covering the ground to the depth of six inches and more. Quite a number of sleighs were out, the honor of the first to make its appearance going to Master George Titter.

—The Board of Town Commissioners on Monday appointed Messrs. James W. Crouch and Eben F. Perkins auditors to examine the accounts of the Chestertown Water Board. This is a new office created by a recent Act of the Legislature governing the Water Board.

—The Board of County Commissioners were unable to meet on Tuesday on ac county of the road blockade. Messrs. Crew and Wood were the only members of the board present on Wednesday and still nothing doing. The board was able however, to sit Thursday and Saturday as a Board of Control and Review.

—Now is the time to do your Christmas shopping at home. The stores of the town and county are brim full of an excellent assortment of Christmas novelties, toys, and articles of every description, and all you have to do is to consult the columns of the TRANSCRIPT this morning to learn where to buy our Christmas presents.

—The moving pictures in Stam's Hall this week for the benefit of the Volunteer Fire Company have been largely attended notwithstanding the bad weather, and the entertainments each night have been much enjoyed. The White Rose Minstrels gave several excellent numbers on Monday and Wednesday evenings, and a male quartette composed of Messrs. Thomas W. Perkins, J. Hydie Thompson, Arlington L. Sparks and James H. Shuster rendered fine music last evening. Mr. Daniel Hall also sang a fine solo.

—One of our prominent lady residents who is spending a month out of town, stopped at the TRANSCRIPT office on Monday morning and ordered her paper sent to her temporary address. Said she, "I must see the TRANSCRIPT every week, I can't get along without it." That was a compliment which we greatly appreciate.

—Mr. John S. Matthews has purchased of Mrs. John C. Davis, a building lot on Cross street 25 feet front and 135 feet deep for $1250. Mr. Matthews will erect a dwelling and express office in the spring. Mrs. Davis has other lots for sale on Cross street. Mr. Matthews' lot adjoins Mr. William L. Fowler's property.

OBITUARY.

MISS FLORENCE L. McCOURT.

Miss Florence L. McCourt, daughter of the late Mrs. Louisa McCourt, of this town, died last Saturday in a Baltimore hospital, of typhoid fever, aged 43 years. The deceased had been in the hospital for some weeks, and it was generally thought that she was improving. A relapse occurred, to which she succumbed. The remains were brought to Chestertown by train on Sunday evening and rested in Emmanuel P. E. Church, whence funeral services were held on Monday morning, conducted by Rev. Dr. H. B. Martin. Interment was made in the Chester Cemetery. The pall-bearers were Messrs. William H., A. M., Leon and H. Clay Brown, Wilbur Eliason, Jr., and J. E. Ferguson. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of the funeral arrangements.

NELLIE LEIGH BOONE.

Nellie Leigh, the 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Boone, of Betterton, died on Tuesday evening last at nine o'clock after a lingering illness of typhoid fever. Funeral services were held at her parent's home on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. John H. Beauchamp officiating. The pall-bearers were Norman Brice, Preston Smith, William Owens, Walter Luke. Interment was in Still Pond Cemetery. Undertaker W. H. Krusen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Our Advertiser's Interest.

Watch B. S. Sutton's space for his big Christmas adv. next week. But remember Sutton will pay you 50 cents a dozen for eggs next Wednesday.

Old Kris will be at Medders & Co.'s big stores in Still Pond on Wednesday and Thursday next and he will give each boy and girl a nice box of candy and nuts and a big juicy orange. He will throw kisses and sweets to you from the top of the big building. Read his greetings on page 8.

M. Kramer, Rock Hall's largest and most popular clothier, is offering excellent bargains in clothing and gents' furnishings for the holidays. His weekly visits to the city enable him to secure rare bargains and he is giving the public the benefit of low prices. No better present than a suit of clothes or overcoat, and Kramer has the goods.

Through the courtesy of H. F. Jefferson & Bro. we were allowed the use of their advertising space to make room for a rush of new ads. This firm has been especially courteous to us in allowing the use of their big space when we are crowded, and it is greatly appreciated, as it saves the necessity for running a troublesome supplement. Jefferson & Bro. are making special preparations for a splendid Christmas display, and they will tell you about it in their big space next week. Their assortment will be the largest and best they have ever carried, and you know what that means. Wait.

There is no better Christmas present for the entire family than a barrel of fine flour. Kilbourn & Bramble, the hustling Fairlee merchants, are advertising two excellent specials. They also have a large and beautiful selection of toys, Christmas novelties, groceries and confections. See their adv. on page 2.

M. Alexander, Rock Hall's economy store for the people, will have his special Christmas opening next Tuesday, Dec. 13th. Old Kris will be at the big store on Thursday and Friday evenings, Dec. 33rd and 24th. Take the children to see him and toyland.

John Schofield, Still Pond's big new store proprietor, has a grand array of Christmas goods. His offerings are fine, and his prices on all goods are astonishingly low. Splendid place to do your Christmas shopping.

A word from Sandy Bottom. It is Old Kris at Abe Cohen's big department store, and he is telling you of the great offerings in toyland, and the big bargains in other departments. Cohen knows how to buy the goods that will catch the trade. Look up his adv. on on page 4 and see what he is doing.

C. C. Jones, the Shoe Man, is offering special values in High Cut Storm Shoes. These are a fine Christmas present for man or boy, and in weather like this they are a necessity.

Vansant & Newsome, Clothiers & Gents' Furnishers, have a number of splendid suggestions for Christmas. Fine assortment of Handkerchiefs, Underwear, Shoes, Hats, and Clothing. Go in and dress the boy or dad up.

The Worton Merchandising Company has a full and complete line of Christmas Goods, Candies, etc., Dress Goods, Shoes and Rubber Goods. They are paying 42 cents per dozen for eggs every day in the week.

The Big Bankrupt Sale of Hague & Hackett, Still Pond, is now going on. Everything in the Hardware, Implement and Carriage line at greatly reduced prices.
