Fairlee Grange Minutes.

Fairlee Grange No. 249 held its regular January special meeting on Wednesday, Jan. 18th. Promptly at the appointed hour Worthy Master Bro. J. P. Nicholson called the meeting to order. A business meeting was held and several applications received and referred to the proper committees. Grange was closed in due form, about one hundred and fifty present.

The meeting was then turned over to Worthy Lecturer, Sister E. A. Corey, whose program was as follows: Singing by the choir; a reading by Sister Florence Nicholson. "The Golden Mile Stone;" song, by Sister Cattie Kendall. Part first of The Grange Garner, which was edited by Sisters Walter T. Morris and Mary Nicholson, was read. Solo by Sister T. B. Kilbourn. Reading by Sister Daisy Nicholson. Bro. T. E. W. Crew was asked, "Does it pay to beautify the home?" His answer was to the point that it did. Reading part second of the Garner. Song by Sister Thomas Davis, "Meet Me in Dreamland." "Does it pay to fertilize corn?" was asked Bro. Thos. Davis, who announced that he thought it did and answered several questions along that line. Reading part third of Garner. Song, Miss Elsie Plummer. Bro. John Morris was asked, "What is the most desirable, most satisfactory fence?" which was answered in a most satisfactory way. "Does it increase the value of a farm to give it a distinctive name?" was answered by Bro. J. T. Anthony in the affirmative.

"Have you a neighbor who is a better farmer than yourself?" was asked Bro. Carey Rhineheart, who said there were several, and gave as his reason because they had been at it longer. Reading part fourth of Garner. Closing song, "Father, We Rest in Thy Love." Supper was then served.

Grange again called to order. Bro. George H. Horner, of New Jersey, was introduced, who gave us a very interesting talk on Potato Growing and the value of Maine seed. Several questions were asked Bro. Horner, who answered them in a clear and concise way. Sister Fletcher impersonated Sophronia Tabor at the opera, which was very amusing. Song by Sisters Jones and French. "Is it to be reckoned as a fall from grace for a woman to lose her temper who is compelled to burn green wood?" was asked Brother Stockton Startt, who answered that a woman should never lose her temper. He said his wife never did. "On the average modern size farm, what is the weakest point of its management?" was asked Bro. H. C. Willis, who begged for more time to answer such a weighty question. "Is the human race actually more civilized than one hundred years ago?" was answered by Bro. W. G. Smyth. "What modern piece of farm machinery is the most necessary?" was answered by Bro. W. G. Skirven, who thought the cook stove could be least done without. "What other money that we spend in a year brings us so great an actual return as the money spent for taxes?" was answered by Bro. W. G. Smyth.

Bro. Morris, pastor of St. James M. P. Church, who was a visitor, was asked to tell us what he thought of us. His remarks were very flattering and encouraging.

The February special meeting will be held about the middle of the month. The Lecturer is arranging an entertaining program.

OTHER GRANGE NOTES.

A very well attended meeting of the members of the Chestertown Grange was held in their room on Thursday afternoon, about 20 members being in attendance. Matters of much importance to the grange were discussed, and it was the general opinion of the members that the grange should be pushed with even greater vigor than in the past. The next regular meeting of the grange will be held on Wednesday afternoon next and every member is urged to be present. The annual election of officers will be held and a topic of much importance discussed. Col. Wm. J. Vannort was appointed a committee of one to arrange for the purchase of clover seed. Let all the members be present next Wednesday afternoon promptly at 2 30 o'clock.

Fairlee Grange held its regular meeting last Wednesday evening. Meeting was full of interest, both of business and literature. The degree team is preparing to initiate twenty candidates next Wednesday evening.

The following officers of Still Pond Grange were installed last Tuesday by Past Master John N. Bennett: Master, J. L. Price; overseer, F. H. Cornelius; steward S. J. Roseberry; lecturer, Mrs. Clara Williams; assistant steward, Wilmer Ford; gatekeeper, Harry Williams; chaplain, Rev. J. H. Beauchamp; treassurer, Dr. J. Horton Kelley; secretary, A. L. Harris, Ceres, Mrs. J. W. Price; Pomona, Mrs. S.J. Roseberry; Flora, Mrs. William Medders; lady assistant, Mrs J. H. Kelley,

Still Pond Grange held their regular meeting on Tuesday afternoon, opening promptly at 2.30 P. M. The meeting was very well attended and topics of interest to all were discussed. At the next meeting Messrs. Cornelius and Ford will discuss, "What special benefits may we as farmers derive from our Agricultural Experiment Stations?"

Dr. Kelly and Mr. Price will tell "How more farmers may be brought to apply these benefits to their daily life." There will also be special music. Still Pond grangers are urged to be present as the meetings are full of life.
