IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE IN THE "NEWS"

A Trite Saying.

It is a trite saying that no man is stronger than his stomach. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery strengthens the stomach—puts it in shape to make pure, rich blood—helps the liver and kidneys to expel the poisons from the body and thus cures both liver and kidney troubles. If you take this natural blood purifier and tonic, you will assist your system in manufacturing each day a pint of rich, red blood, that is invigorating to the brain and nerves. The weak, nervous, run-down, debilitated condition which so many people suffer from, is usually the effect of poisons in the blood; it is often indicated by pimples or boils appearing on the skin, the face becomes thin and the feelings "blue." Dr. Pierce's "Discovery" cures all blood humors as well as being a tonic that makes one vigorous, strong and forceful. It is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes every ingredient of which has the professional endorsement of the leading medical writers of this country. Some of these endorsements are published in a little book of extracts from standard medical works and will be sent to any address free, on receipt of request therefor by letter or postal card, addressed to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. It tells just what Dr. Pierce's medicines are made of.

"The Words of Praise" for the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed, by leaders in all the several schools of medical practice, and recommending them for the cure of the diseases for which the "Golden Medical Discovery" is advised, should have far more weight with the sick and afflicted than any amount of so-called "testimonials" so conspicuously flaunted before the public by those who are afraid to let the ingredients of which their medicines are composed be known. Bear in mind that the "Golden Medical Discovery" has THE BADGE OF HONESTY on every bottle wrapper, in a full list of its ingredients.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation, invigorate the liver and regulate stomach and bowels.

COLD BEANS.

Little Jule's Thanksgiving Dinner Wasn't Very Satisfying.

"Well, all I've got to say is that this Thanksgivin' day was better'n the last was," said little Jule. "It couldn't be worse, for last Thanksgivin' day I didn't have any Thanksgivin' at all. I'll tell you how it was.

"You see, my Uncle Depew Green, he invited me an' ma out to his farm to spend Thanksgivin' day.

"Ma, she said she guessed we'd better go, for it would save a lot of fuss an' trouble at home an' she wouldn't have to cook any turkey.

"An' I said I guessed we'd better go, too, for Uncle Deep always had pretty good dinners.

"An' ma she said there was enough cold beans in the house to last me for two or three days.

"I didn't like cold beans much, but every time I'd eat 'em I'd think how good Uncle Deep's dinner was goin' to be, so I didn't say anything about it, but after the fifth or fourth meal it was hard work.

"We were goin' to start for Uncle Deep's Thanksgivin' mornin' an' get back that night, for ma said she could not spare any more time. An' I don't know whether so many cold beans affected ma's head or what was the reason, but when the day before Thanksgivin' came she said that she was sure it was Thanksgivin' day an' we'd made a mistake thinkin' it was the next day an' we'd better start right off or be late for dinner.

"When we come to the station, near Uncle Deep's house, the station master said there wasn't any wagon an' he guessed they expected us tomorrow. An' ma said we had come to Thanksgivin' dinner an' maybe the wagon was goin' for more folks. An' then the station master grinned. An' when we come to Uncle Deep's there was Solon choppin' wood in the front yard. An' Solon he said, 'Why, I thought you was comin' tomorrow.' An' ma she said his pa had invited us to Thanksgivin' dinner. An' Solon he grinned.

"Uncle Deep came to the door, an' he said, 'Why, we thought you an' Jule was coming tomorrow.' An' ma she said she thought we was comin' to dinner Thanksgivin' day. An' Uncle Deep he said that he was glad to see us today all the same an' that they wasn't cookin' much today, 'cause tomorrow was Thanksgivin', but he guessed there was some cold beans for dinner, an' to come right in an' sit down.

"Ma was so flurried she said she couldn't wait, 'cause she had somethin' particular to do at home. An' Uncle Deep he grinned. So we went right back to the station, an' we had to wait three hours for a train, an' we didn't get home till most night.

"An' ma said she'd had enough goin' to Uncle Deep's an' we could stay at home the next day. An' when I asked her could we have a turkey she got angry an' said not to bother her an' that there was enough cold beans left for dinner tomorrow. But I couldn't eat them."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

IN THE PHILIPPINES.

Yankee Thanksgiving Customs Have Made a Hit There.

Since Admiral Dewey played the part of a modern Columbus and discovered an archipelago with a greater number of inhabitants than were to be found in all America when Columbus landed there have been great changes in the Philippines, and a good many of the customs brought over by the Yankees have been adopted by the natives. Any form of festive enjoyment always appeals to those childlike people of the south seas, and to the numerous holidays introduced and celebrated by the Spaniards they have been glad to add Thanksgiving. Turkeys are as yet lacking, but they will come in time doubtless, and meanwhile there are plenty of other things suitable to feast upon.

Uncle Sam has now 10,000 soldiers in the Philippines, and every one of them will celebrate Thanksgiving day in some fashion. Though they are scattered over the island in no fewer than 400 different posts, every "mess" will have its special dinner to mark the joyous occasion. For this feast money will be provided out of the "company fund," which is handled by the captain of each company.—Philadelphia Times.

The Pony Smoke.

The Apaches and Cheyennes are in the habit of holding a pony smoke on Thanksgiving day. Often the Osages, too, indulge in this expensive festival. A pony smoke is a friendly meeting of two tribes and is especially appropriate for the occasion. The tribe giving the smoke is supposed to bear all the expenses. They provide the best game and vegetables in the market for their guests, and at the end of the first day's meeting they present a good pony to the head of each family visiting them. As a tribe consists of from 300 to 500 families, the expenses soon mount high. The Osages, being the richest reservation Indians there are today, can better afford to hold pony smokes, and, combined with their feast day, they generally invite several hundred guests from the Poncas, Tonkawas and surrounding tribes. Those accepting the ponies are supposed to return equally expensive gifts later on.—Buffalo Express.

The Holiday of the Hearthstone.

As the Fourth of July is our national holiday of patriotism, so Thanksgiving is our national holiday of the hearthstone. On the one we seek to express and renew our devotion to the republic and to the liberty it so well guards; on the other we celebrate and cultivate that family unity and affection on which, after all, our institutions rest.—New York World.

DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP

Is not a patent medicine but a doctor's prescription. The Rev. Dr. J. W. Bull first prepared it. It is perfectly safe, cures a cough or cold quickly. For croup, whooping-cough, bronchitis, grippe and throat and lung troubles it is the best. Price only 25c. It saves the doctor's fee and the druggist's prescription charge.
