Only Exclusive Shoe Store in Town

Seventeen Years In The Business

We take pleasure in announcing to you that our stock this season will considerably excel our most ambitious efforts in the past. In point of variety, we shall display more styles in each line than ever hereto, while in the matter of quality we shall maintain the high plane of excellence which has ever been our standard. Our prices will, as heretofore, be based on the smallest possible profit-margin consistent with legitimate business methods.

The only store in town where you can buy the celebrated W. L. Douglas Shoes for Men and Boys, and the Stout Snag-Proof Rubber Boots, the only genuine Snag Boot on the market. Best selected line of Children's School Shoes in the county. I know where to secure them. One price—all goods marked in plain figures.

Thanking you for the past favors and trusting we shall shortly have the pleasure of serving you again, we are, very respectfully, yours,

T. G. WROTH, The Shoe Man.

A Double Shot.—To shoot a hawk and a rabbit at one crack of the gun is a feat unusual in itself, but the conditions under which Hannibal Rossi, president of the Hazelton Game and Fish Protective Association, did this are still more unusual.

Mr. Rossi was after quail and rabbits in the woods at Mount Grove, when his dogs got on the trail of a rabbit. He shot the rabbit when it came into view, and was proceeding to the spot when he was surprised to see a big hawk rise in the air with the cottontail in his claws. The rabbit was not yet dead and was kicking vigorously.

The hawk rose to the height of a chestnut tree before Mr. Rossi recovered from his surprise. Then he blazed away at the robber and brought down the hawk and its prey with one shot.

The hawk was hit in the head and the agony of the rabbit was ended with part of the load in its side. The claws of the hawk were sunk so securely in the flesh of the rabbit that they could hardly be pried open.

The hawk was 3 feet 6 inches from tip to tip and was one of the largest ever killed in the Hazelton region.

Counties Must Pay The Bill.—Under the provisions of the Haman Oyster Law, one person is appointed in each county to assist the engineer in making surveys by giving information regarding the location of natural oyster beds or bars within the border of the county. The question has arisen as to whether the appointee is to be paid by the county or by the commission. Section 88 of the new law authorize County Commissioners of the tidewater counties to make such appointments of such an assistant, to receive a daily salary of $5 a day for each day he is actually employed, but the law is silent as to whether the appointee is to be paid by the commissioners of the county which he represents or by the commission. Attorney-General Bryan has been asked to give an opinion on the subject. Mr. Bryan's opinion is in part as follows: "The appointment is optional, I think, with the board of County Commissioners; they are authorized, not required, to make the appointment. The question is entirely free from difficulty, but I think the fair meaning of the State is that if the Board of County Commissioners choose to make this appointment, they must compensate him out of the county fund."

Wilmington M. E. Conference.—The Board of Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church have assigned Bishop Joseph E. Berry, of Buffalo, to preside over the 39th annual session of the Wilmington Conference and selected Wednesday, March 20th, 1907, as the time for the conference. Asbury Church, Smyrna, Del., will be the seat of the conference. Bishop Berry is about 50 years old and was elected to the episcopacy at the General Conference session held in Los Angeles, Cal., in 1904. For 12 years prior to 1904 he was editor of the Epworth Herald, and previous to assuming the duties of that position he was assistant editor of the Michigan Christian Advocate. The Wilmington Conference, at its last session, adopted a resolution requesting the Board of Bishops to change the meeting time of the Wilmington Conference from March to April, but the board seems to have ignored the request. The change was requested on the ground that the weather in March is generally unpropitious both for conference session and for moving purposes.

Our well-known LOW PRICES reign supreme in this department and our constant effort is to give you "better goods for less money" than you can find elsewhere.

Our Millinery Exhibition

Medium Hats predominate ostrich plume and bird-of-paradise feathers are chief ornaments. But there are small hats a plenty The fine clipped beaver felt varieties lead ; and they are preferably trimmed with pheasant tails. merle birds, wings and quills. But details are tedious and it is much easier to show you. Do not fail to look at our millinery when in need of your fall hat.

We have fortunately secured the services of Miss M. Kynast, of Baltimore, as trimmer, an artist who stands in the very front ranks of her profession and her work will speak for itself.

FLUE CURING IMPROVES TOBACCO LIKE ROASTING IMPROVES GREEN COFFEE

Flue Curing Develops the Stimulating Aroma and Taste Found in Schnapps that Satisfies Tobacco Hunger

There are three ways used by farmers for curing and preparing their tobacco for the market; namely, sun cured, air cured and flue cured. The old and cheap way is called air cured; the later discovery and improved way is called flue cured. In flue-curing the tobacco is taken from the field and suspended over intensely hot flues in houses especially built to retain the heat, and there kept in the proper temperature until this curing process developes in the tobacco the stimulating taste and fragrant aroma found in Schnapps tobacco, just as green coffee is made fragrant and stimulating by the roasting process. Only choice selections of this ripe, juicy flue cured leaf, grown in the famous Piedmont country, where the best tobacco grows, are used in Schnapps and other Reynolds' brands of high grade, flue cured tobaccos.

Hundreds of imitation brands are on sale that look like Schnapps; the outside of the imitation plugs of tobacco is flue cured, but the inside is filled with cheap, flimsy, heavily sweetened air cured tobacco; one chew of Schnapps will satisfy tobacco hunger longer than two chews of such tobacco.

Expert tests prove that this flue cured tobacco, grown in the famous Piedmont region, requires and takes less sweetening than any other kind, and has a wholesome, stimulating, satisfying effect on chewers. If the kind of tobacco you are chewing don't satisfy, more than the mere habit of expectorating, stop fooling yourself and chew Schnapps tobacco.

Schnapps is like the tobacco chewers formerly bought costing from 75c. to $1.00 per pound; Schnapps is sold at 50c. per pound in 5c. cuts, strictly 10 and 15 cent plugs.
