MINISTERS AGAINST LIQUOR TRAFFIC

at Raleigh, N. C., and is mentioned in connection with the bishopric.

Rev. J. H. Pritchett reported that the church in Harve de Grace was in a flourishing condition. The collections for all purposes have all increased during the few months that Rev. Pritchett has had charge of the work.

A new candidate for the bishopric has cropped out within the past three days. He is Rev. L. C. Curtis, of Annapolis, and he wants to succeed Bishop Heard in West Africa. Rev. Curtis was in charge of a church in Freetown, Liberia, before going to Annapolis, and is thoroughly conversant with the needs of the work in that part of the world.

Some surprises are expected when Bishop Coppin announces the appointments at the final session Monday night. A new pastor will succeed Rev. J. G. Martin at Allen Church, this city, and Rev. Martin will be appointed to another good charge. Among those mentioned in conncetion with Allen Church are Rev. J. W. Norris, a former pastor there and Rev. D. G. Hill, pastor of Bethel Church. While the various rumors regarding this man or that for Allen Church cannot be regarded as what will exactly happen, there is a probability that another pastor will succeed Rev. Dr. Hill at Bethel Church. He has been stationed there for the last four years.

Women Ministerial Union.

A ministerial meeting composed of female ministers and evangelists has organized in this city by Rev. Jeannette Johns and a number of active religious workers. Meetings are held every Morday at 1711 Keyser street, and all women church workers are invited to take an active part in the work.

At the initial meeting addresses were delivered by Mr. Mary F. Bond, Mrs. Teresa Wineberry, Mrs. M. Herndon, and Mrs. Lucy Cooper.

Rev. Johns and Evangelist A. V Blackburn Truxon, who suggested that the new organization be called the First Women's Ministerial Union of the United States of America.

The officers of the organization are Rev. Jeanette Johns, president; Rev. Mary E. Silver, vice president; Mrs. Teresa Wineberry, secretary; Mrs. A. V. B. Truxon, assistant secretary and general representative; Mrs. Mary L. Harris, treasurer; Mrs. Mary F. Bond, instructress; Mrs. Lucy A. Cooper, chaplain; and Mrs. M. Herndon, membership solicitor.

A CORRECTION.

We, the officers and members of King Darius Lodge No. 22 G. U. O. of Good Hope, desire to correct the announcement made in this paper April 6th and 13th which stated that the above mentioned lodge would celebrate their 10th anniversary at Bethel A. M. E. Church, April 14th, 1912 at 7.03 P. M. We knew nothing about such an event nor who furthered the rumor. No one was authorized to make such publication nor to use any of the officers names in connection therewith.

SMALL COURTESIES ARE LOST

These Things That Make Life Really Worth While Seem to Be Forgotten.

Small courtesies of life seem to be entirely lost in the rush for big things. This leaving off of the little things that go to make living worth the while is a well-known and recognized fact to women who crave those gracious attentions so easy in the giving when the thought is right.

Many men no longer consider it necessary to rise when a lady enters the room. If they proffer a chair, it is seldom done with the old-time alacrity, and a few trips on a city car will be sufficient to convince the veriest skeptic of the truth of courtesy's decadence.

Be it said in favor of man, continually on the rack regarding these omissions, that he is by no means the greatest offender. Women who entertain will tell you of scores of invitations to which they have never even received the courtesy of an acknowledgment. "R. S. V. P." at the end of a card or note means nothing to women too thoughtless or too ill-bred to take five minutes for a reply. Such treatment of a social courtesy is an offense garish enough to cause the offender's name to be struck from the social list of the hostess.

The small courtesies of woman to woman are fully as important as those from man to woman or woman to man.

IN MEMORIAM.

RIGDON—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear husband and father, Samuel Rigdon, who departed this life in the full triumph of faith, April 20, 1911.

We miss you from our home, dear,
We miss thee from thy place
A shadow of our life is cast
We miss the sunshine of thy face.
We miss thy kind, and willing hand
Thy fond and earnest care
Our home is dark without thee
We miss thee everwyhere.
By his loving wife and children.

MOODY—In sad but loving remembrance of my dear husband, Joseph Moody, who departed this life two years ago, April 18, 1910.

Days of sadness still come over me
Tears of sorrow silently flow,
Fond memory keeps my husband near me
Though Heaven claimed him two years ago.
You are not forgotten, dear father,
Nor ever will you be
For as long as life and memory last
I will remember thee.
By his wife and children.

WATKINS—In sad but loving remembrance of my beloved husband, Emanuel E. Watkins, who fell sweetly asleep in Jesus 21 years ago. April 16.

In the grave lies the one I love so dearly,
In his quiet, lonely grave;
Twenty-one long years have passed
Since we were forced to part
Farewell, my husband, may your slumbers
Be as gentle as your love
May we meet in heaven above.
By his wife and children.

NICHOLSON—In loving remembrance of our dear daughter and sister, Isabella L. Nicholson, who departed this life one year ago—April 12, 1911.

One year has passed
Our hearts are sore
As time rolls on
We miss her more
She sleeps—we leave her in peace to rest
The parting was painful, but God knoweth best.
By her parents
J. A. D. and Maggie A. Wilson, and brothers

Sleep on wife and take your rest
God called you home he thought it best.
It was hard, indeed, to part with thee
But God's string arm supported thee.
By her Husband and Children

LAKE—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, Ellen Lake, who died just two years and two months ago.

A precious one from us has gone
A voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our home
That never can be filled.
By her son, Thomas Lake.
But you are not forgotten, dear mother,
Nor will you ever be
For as long as life and memory last
I will remember thee.
By her daughter-in-law, Rachel Lake.
We often sit and think of her
When we are all alone
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call its own.
By her grand-daughter, Josie E. Lake.
