We regret to state that Miss Helen Gale has been quite sick with pneumonia at her home in Baltimore during the past week.

An engagement of much interest to society of Baltimore, Washington and in baval circles just announced is that of Miss Eunice M. Westcott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Westcott, 906 St. Paul street, Baltimore, formerly of Chestertown, Md., to Ensign Russell Willson, U. S. N., son of Mrs. Willson and the late Mr. S. L. Willson, of Washington. Miss Westcott, who made her debut at the first german of the Bachelors' Cotillion Club several years ago, is one of the most popular girls in the younger set and has been much admired. Ensign Willson is a graduate of the Naval Academy in the class of February, 1906, and is at present aid to Admiral Vreeland on the flagship Louisiana, which has just arrived at the Norfolk Navy Yard. Ensign Willson has spent the greater portion of the time since his graduation in and about China. Although no date has been set for the wedding it will probably take place in the late spring.

Mr. George Vickers, of New York, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison W. Vickers, at Lauretum Place, near town.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Tull, of Philadelphia, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Beck on Maple avenue during the past week.

Mr. Miller was a classmate of Dr. Lowe at Dickinson Seminary and the invitations Wednesday evening were confined to members of their class with their wives and daughters. The decorations used were the class colors, violet and yellow. The others present included Mr. and Mrs. Milton Brittain, of Washington; Mr. Richard Carter and Miss Annie Carter, of Denton, Md.; Prof. J. A. Bahr, of New Freedom, Pa.; Dr. J. Spencer Free, of Dubois, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Melsheimer and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Moul, of Hanover, Pa., and Dr. and Mrs. William Gibson, of Baltimore.

Mr. William Archibald, of Kennedyville, made a trip to Westminster last Friday to see his nephew Harry Hill, who is recovering from an attack of pneumonia at Western Maryland College.

Mr. and Mrs. H H. Klinefelter have been visiting in Washington, D. C. during the week.

Miss Riggs, of Howard county, and Miss Sallie Sheridan, of Baltimore, are guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. Walter T. Morris, near town.

The Baltimore Sun on Tuesday contained a striking likeness of Mr. Harry Busick, a native of Kent county, but now manager of the New Howard and Caswell hotels in Baltimore. The Sun said, "Mr. Busick is above all else a hustler and a representative of the type of young men most desirable in any municipality."
